BRONCOS

Ken,
To one of my best friends. Stay cool and have a great summer. Good luck next year in all your classes. I just know you'll succeed esp-ecially in Chemistry.
Anyways take care and good luck with the ladies. We should go cruising more this summer.
Mike Valdez

Ken,
Have a great summer and good luck next year.

FIXED. TAKE IT EASY IN THE
SUMMER AND I'LL SEE YOU
LATER
PETER

Ken,
I'm really glad that we became such good friends
this year. I hope we can continue our friendship forever. Hope we'll see each other the Summer and I'm sure we will meet again. Good Luck in Everything you do. Always Strive to be truly happy.
Take Care & God Bless Love & Friendship
Ken

Ken,
To a really good friend, I really thank your pretty neat. Thank for everything most of all being my friend, I hope for a great summer. Hope you have a great summer, may love, and see you later,

Ken,
I had been talking to your about the same S.G. I still feel the same about her, only worse. It's a way I don't really like to say words in person. Anyway, I have enjoyed our friendship always and hope it continues.

Ken,
Well here junior year has now. This year has been pretty fun! I'm glad we got to be friends and know you always. Good luck always in everything ya do.

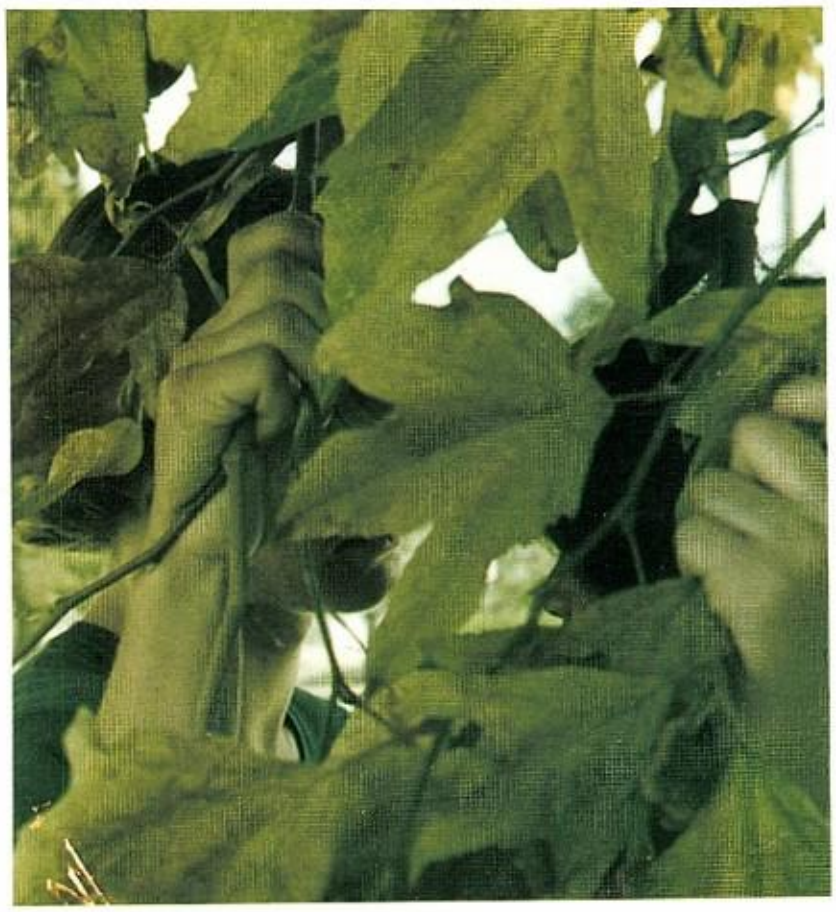
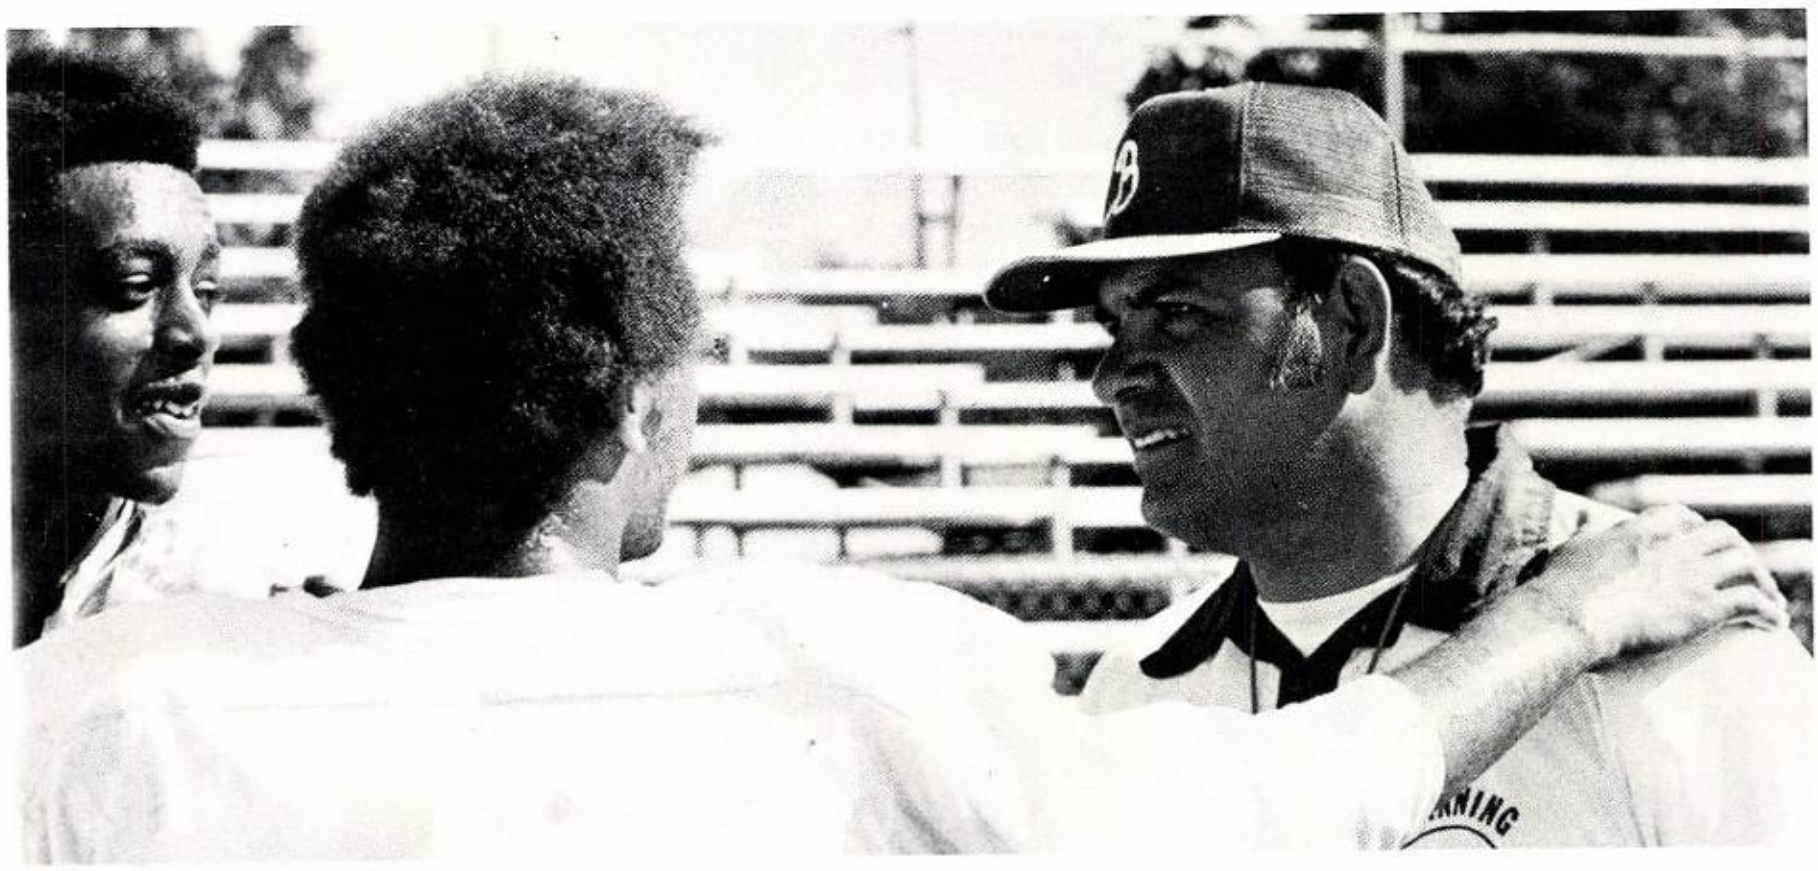
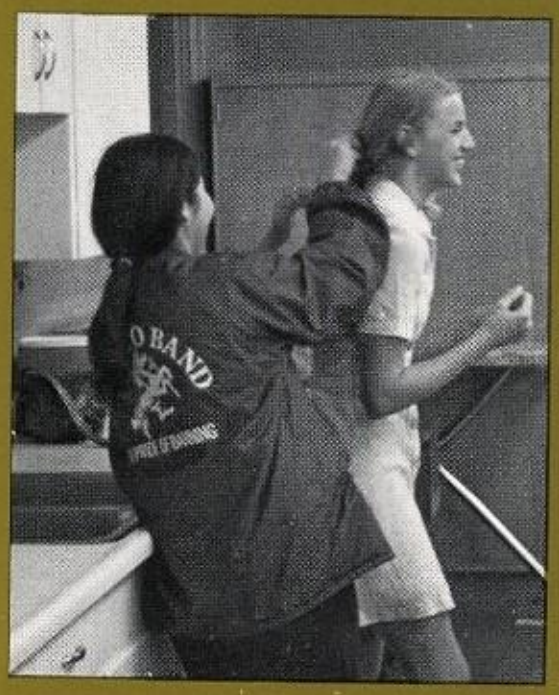
We Meet Each Day With The Realization That The World Can Be A Cold, Strange Place. Yet . . .

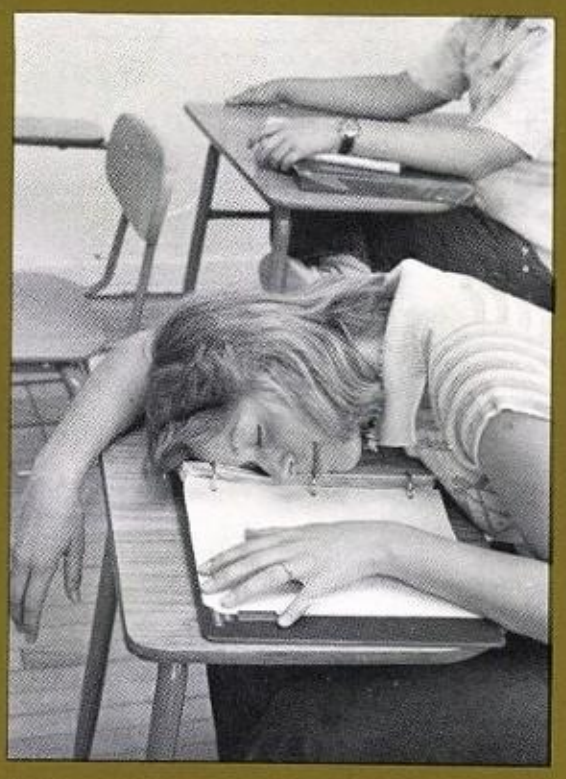
With The Warm Touch
Of A Friend's Hand, Or A
Friendly Pat On The Back. . .



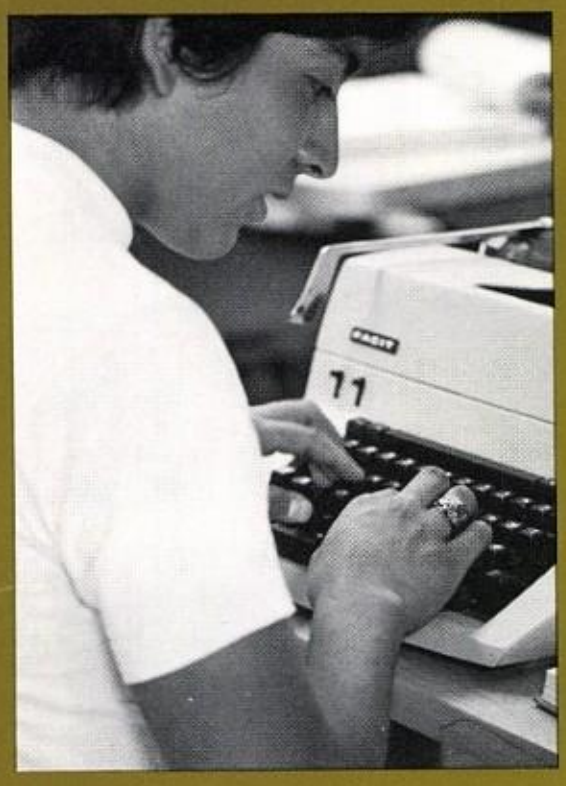


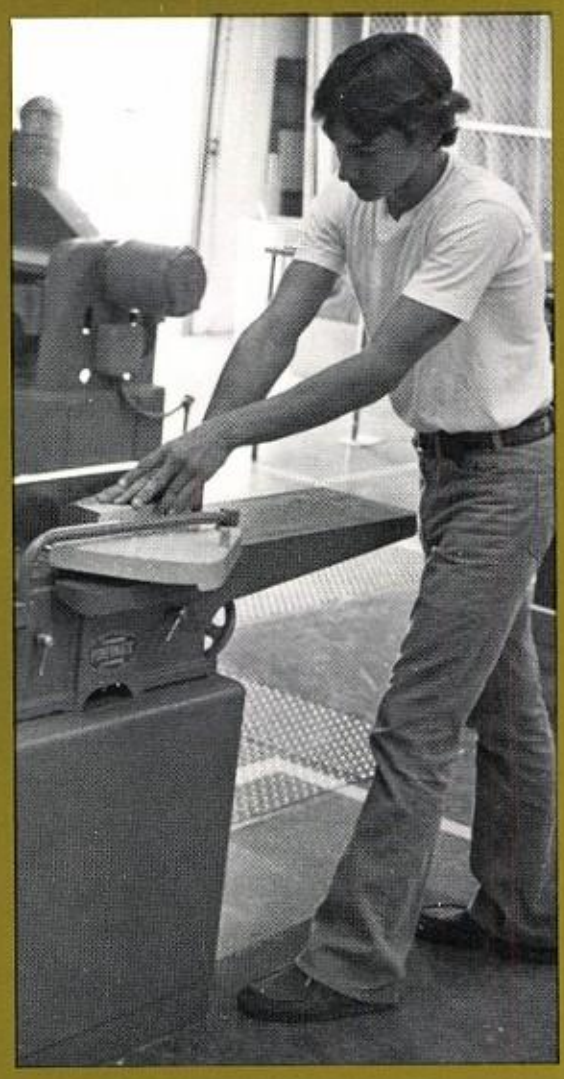
Many Problems That The World Hold Seem To Lessen.





Through High School, We Have Begun To Mold And Expand Our Lives To Meet With Our Expectations. Yet . . .





We Needn't Struggle Alone.
Through Every Closed Door,
And Around Every Corner,
Is The Patience And Under-Standing Of A True Friend.

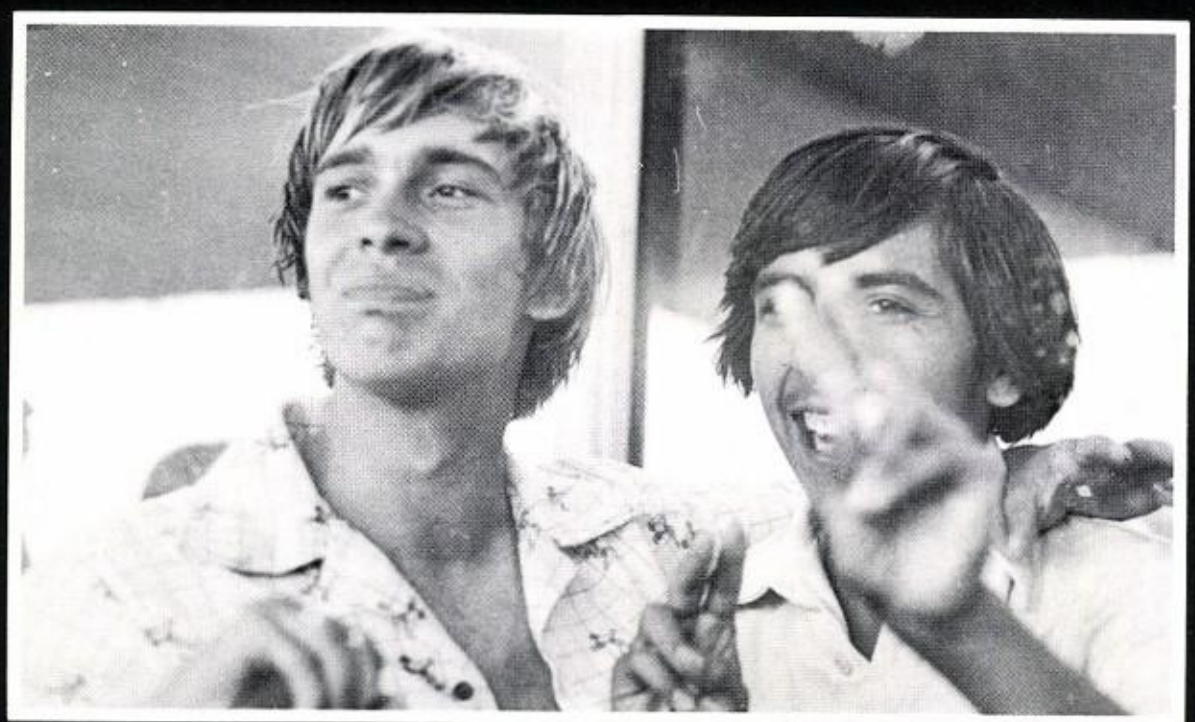
During a football game, Mike Rubel "monkeys around."

Enjoying their time out for lunch, are Bob Popeck and Maurice Calderon.

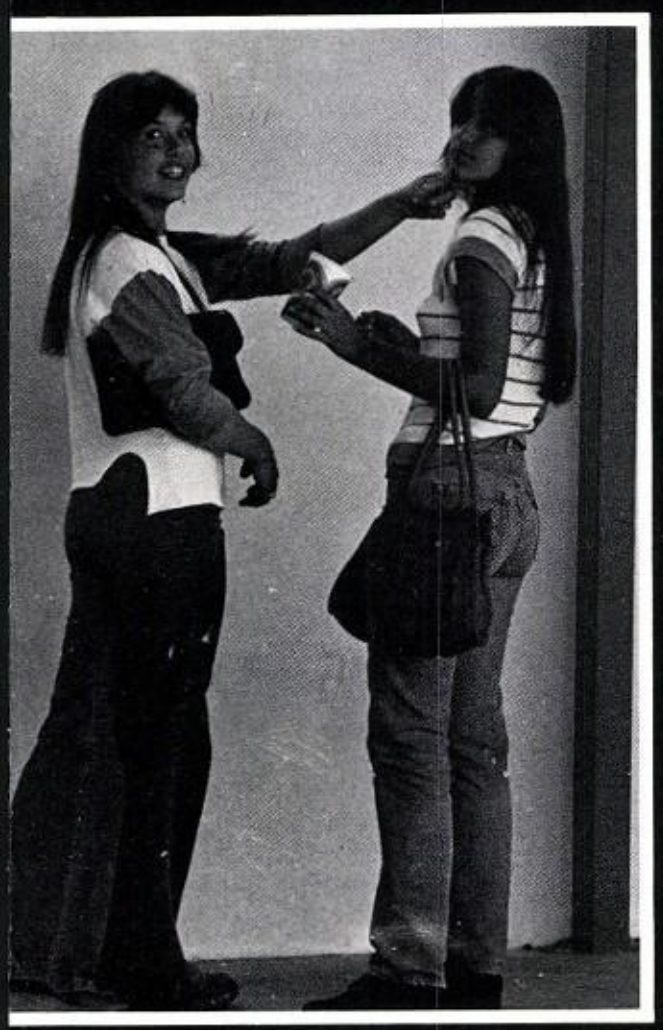


Astounded at the price for which he was sold during Homecoming Week's Slave Auction, is Peter Tripp.

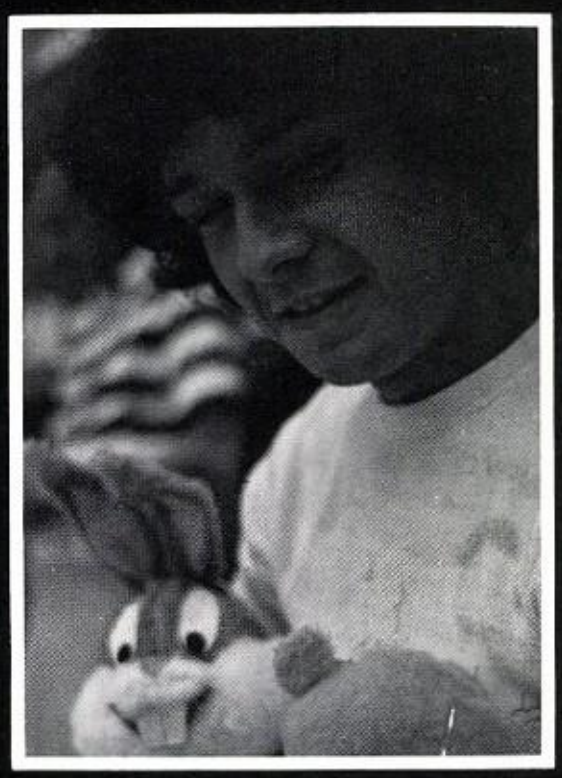
Football players and sponsors take to the field at the Banning-Rim Game.

IORS

Coaxing camera shy Kookie Sanford into a more pleasing smile, is Marlene Link.



Spending an exciting time at a pep assembly with a good friend, is Carlos Flores.



Jeff Fahy and Mike Rubel take time out to swap a few good jokes.

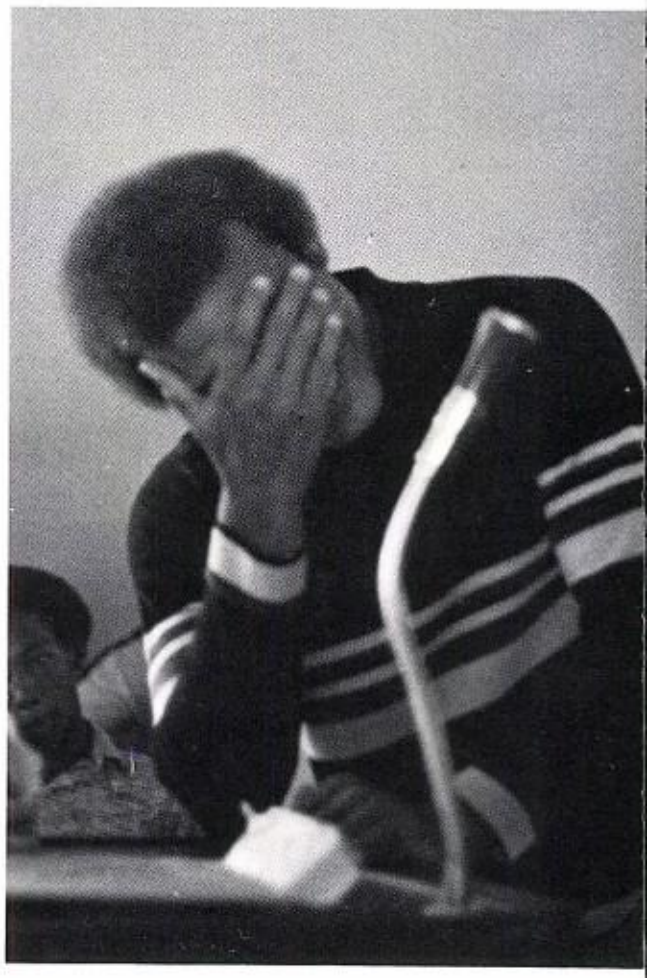
From Chaos . . .

ASB members get on top of things during Homecoming fun.

A groan goes out from Maurice Jackson, as he learns his Bubble Up costs more than he does at the Football Players Auction.

"I go for big diamond rings and big glasses, dahling," boasts Toni Cassadas.



"How am I ever going to get myself out of this mess?" questions Michael Jackson.

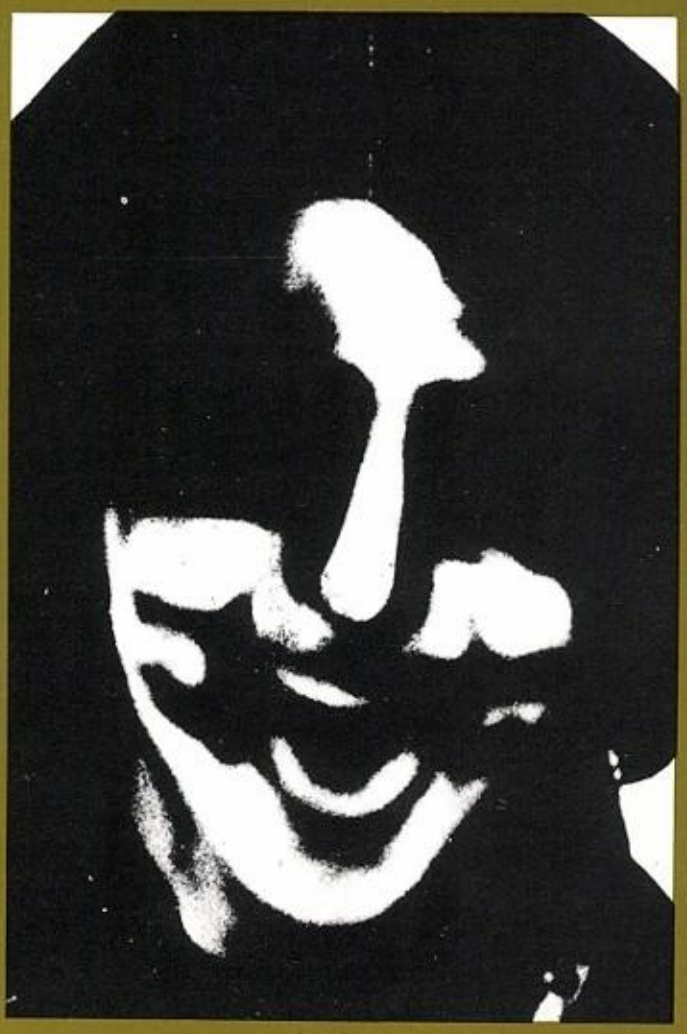
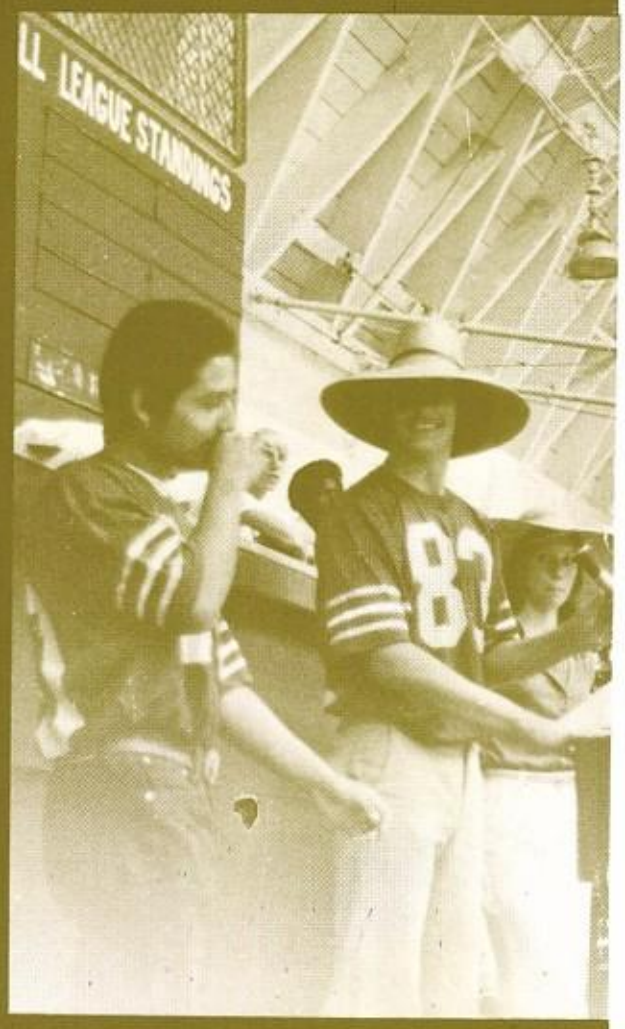
Making music with our friends.

Surrounded by her friends, Tracy Thomas swings into the Fifties.



A KISS imitation is pulled off by Carter Tucker.

"And why didn't they pick me as Homecoming Queen?" sighs Izola Williams.



"With a hat like that, you're captain of the week?" laughs Fred Moreno.

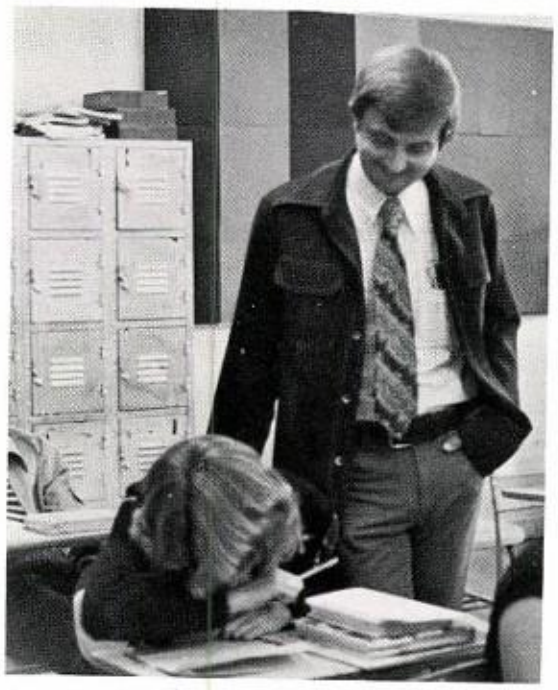
Dr. Pasquale addresses the student body during an assembly.

Many of you may have seen a new face on campus. He is our new superintendent, Dr. Fred Pasquale. Dr. Pasquale tries to schedule himself to be on campus during nutrition and lunch, which gives him the opportunity to talk with students. By doing this, he hopes to gain extensive student contact. His concern is students and their education.

Visiting classes is one way for our new superintendent to become directly involved with the students.



Michael Rose, School Board President, shares in the giggles.

School Board Vice-President Dorothy Familetti finds time to discuss future plans with seniors.

Donald Miller, School Board Clerk, does his research with the students.

Giving advice is one job for Board member Charles Crafts.

Not only is Dr. Pasquale concerned with student education, but the School Board and assistant superintendent, Merris Hammond, show a genuine interest in that area. The three new board members, Charles Crafts, Abron Evans, and Donald Miller, work well with Dorothy Familetti and Michael Rose, returning members.

Abron Evans, Board member, breaks away from a busy day for a classroom stop.

Friends

Supervising is part of Mr. Heslop's job.

When the bell rings, one can find Mr. Wolf patrolling the halls.

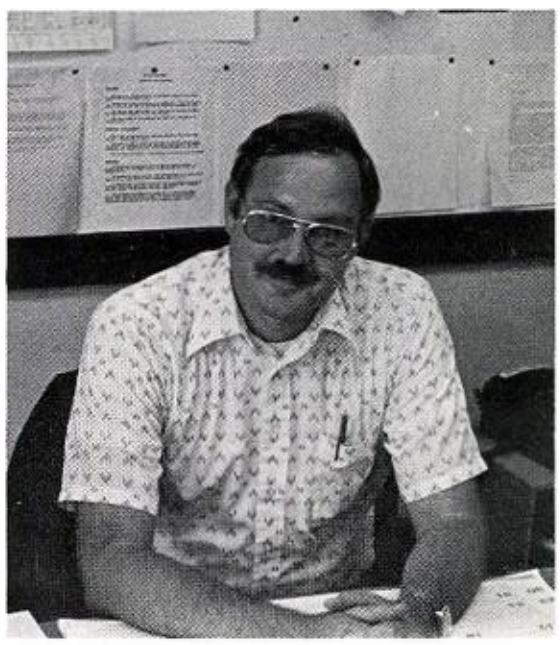
The first smiling face you see as you walk in the principal's office is that of Mrs. Dorothy Campbell. Mrs. Campbell, the principal's secretary, has been employed by the district for 25 years and has done many services for the students and school.

As you go through a door you see our principal, Mr. James Heslop. For those of you who don't know Mr. Heslop, he's the one who took away our nutrition earlier in the year.

Across the hall in the attendance office, you see the vice-principal's secretary, Mrs. Letty Thompson. You may be more familiar with her signature, as she's the one who sends out call slips to remind you that you have a class and should occasionally go.

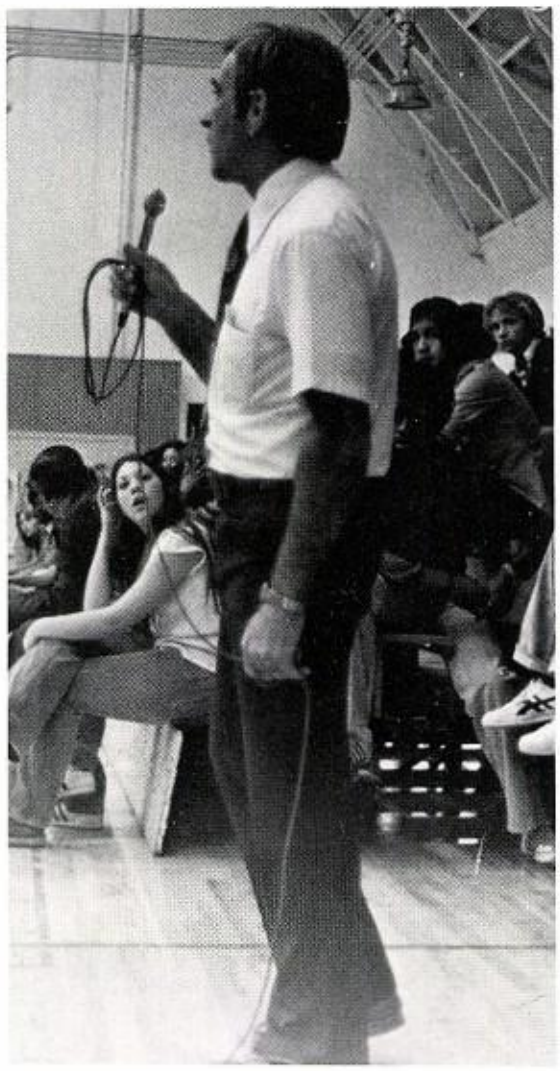
Then you see an empty desk, that of our vice-principal, Mr. Douglas Wolf. The reason the desk is empty is because he's out in the hall telling people to get to class.

Amid all that work is financial consultant and "big-help" Mrs. Campbell.



Mr. Wolf does get to spend some time at his desk.

Even though they enforce the rules, and we try to bend them, we realize we could not get along without them.



Mr. Heslop gets the chance to say a few words during a pep assembly.

Mrs. Thomson busily keeps the books for student attendance.

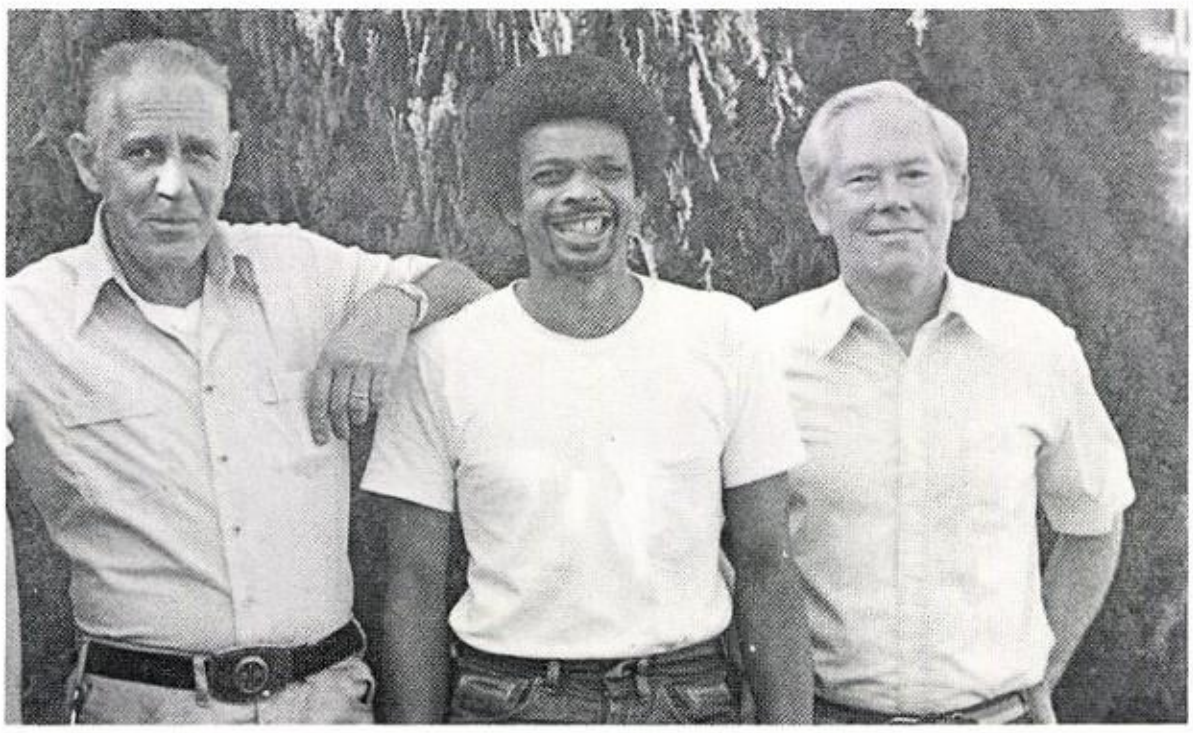
Mrs. Dolores Jones tallies the daily total of absences.

This year we have a great crew of cafeteria workers, secretaries, and custodians, who without them, the school would not be able to operate properly. It would be a disaster. Think about it. If we didn't have any cafeteria workers, we wouldn't be provided with any source of energy to get our bodies through these hard days at BHS. Without the custodians, who else would come when the bell rings twice. Imagine without the secretaries how much paper work would remain stacked in the office.

Whether we've told you lately or not, we appreciate your helpful services.



Hear two rings of the bell? You'll probably find "Slim" Willicut (left) and Maynard Long (right) answering.

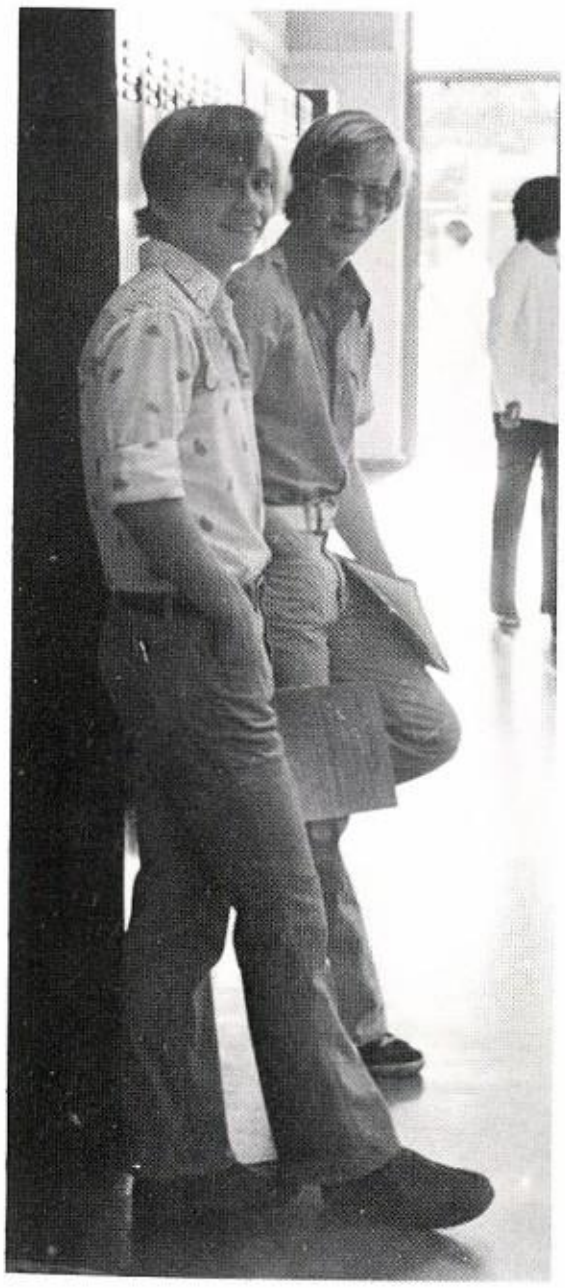
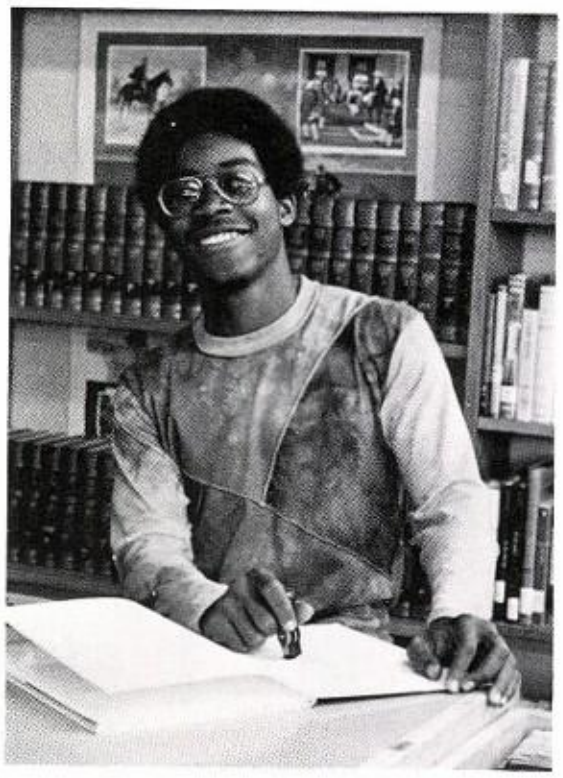
It's Our Turn



Doesn't David Trimmer realize that if he puts his leg up like Tim Adell, he'll really look cool?



Lacy Black warns, "And if you don't return this book by the date stamped, my buddies in the back room will take care of you."

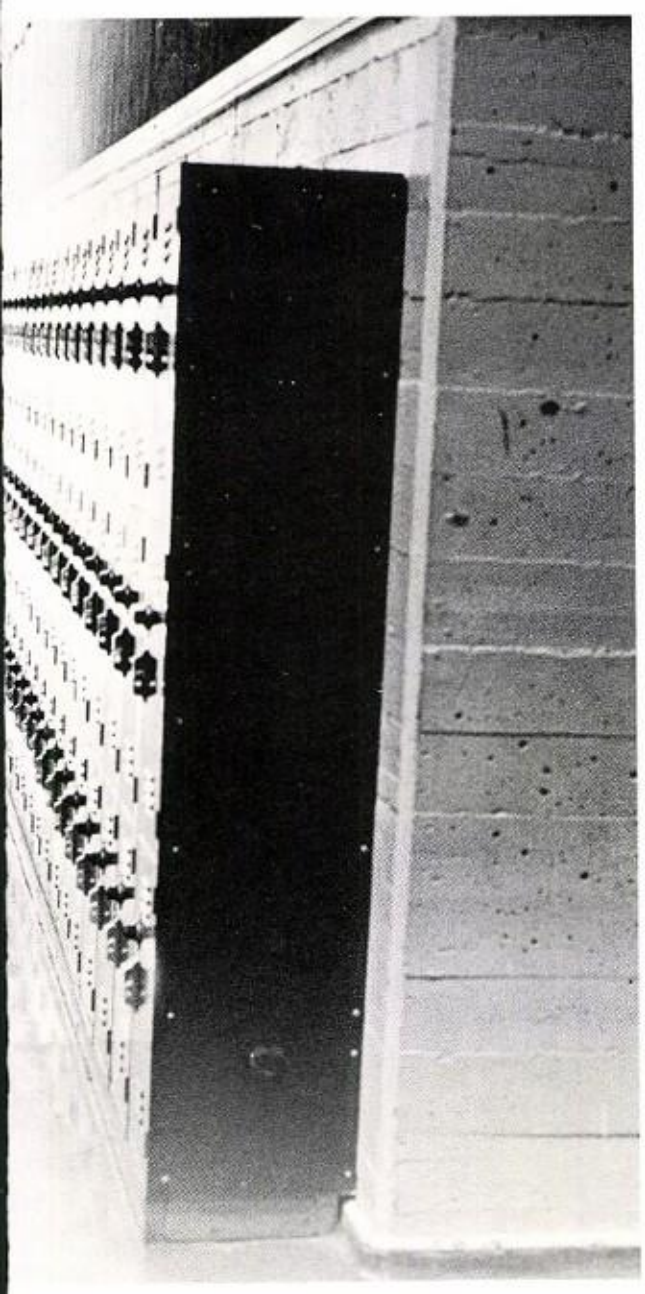
Think about it: If John Vallesillo walks away from that pole will it remain standing?

You'll never believe what Ray Johnson told Emma Gamez, but the look on her face gives it away.

Lydia Hawley tries to keep awake during a conversation with Nan Malicki and Peter Hernandez.

Mrs. Halverson's art class prepares projects to be exhibited at the Date Festival.

On the sidelines, Lisa Jensen bats her eyelashes.



The Passing Of A Friend

A friend to some, but known to all
The memory pains hurt still.
An empty space right down the hall
No stranger could ever fill.
Tears that fall for selfishness' sake
Can only release the strife,
That comes when you are forced to take
A flower in place of a life.

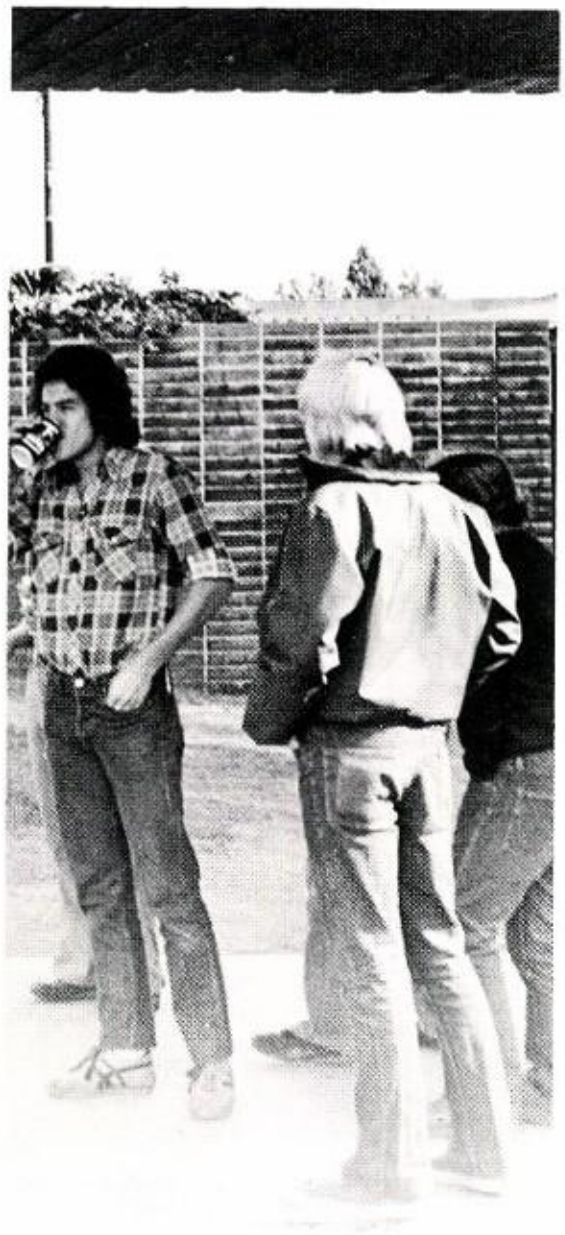
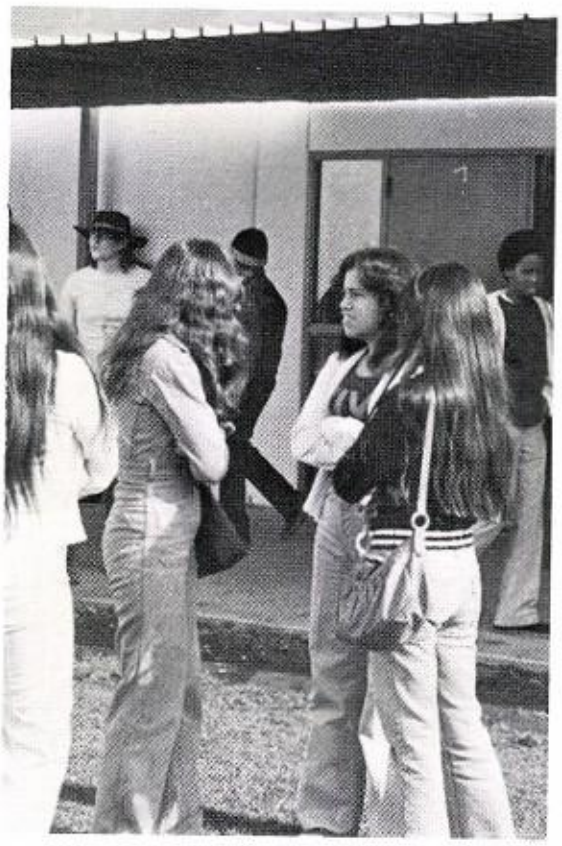
Around And About With Friends

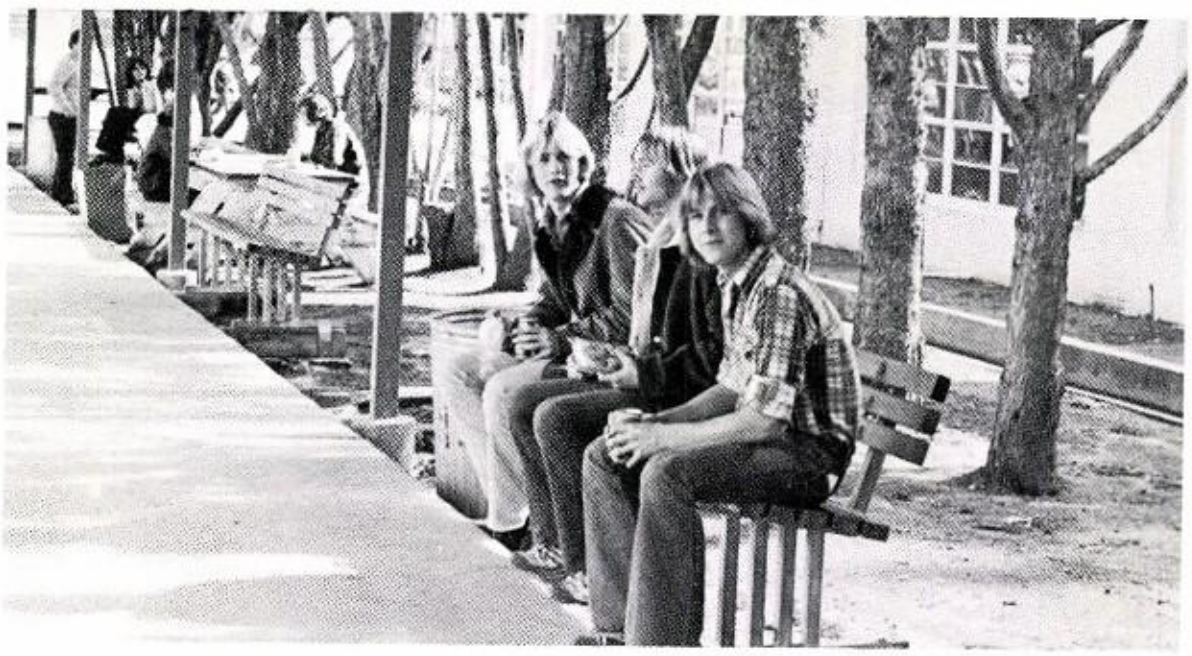


Isaac Kerr takes advantage of one of the three coke machines.

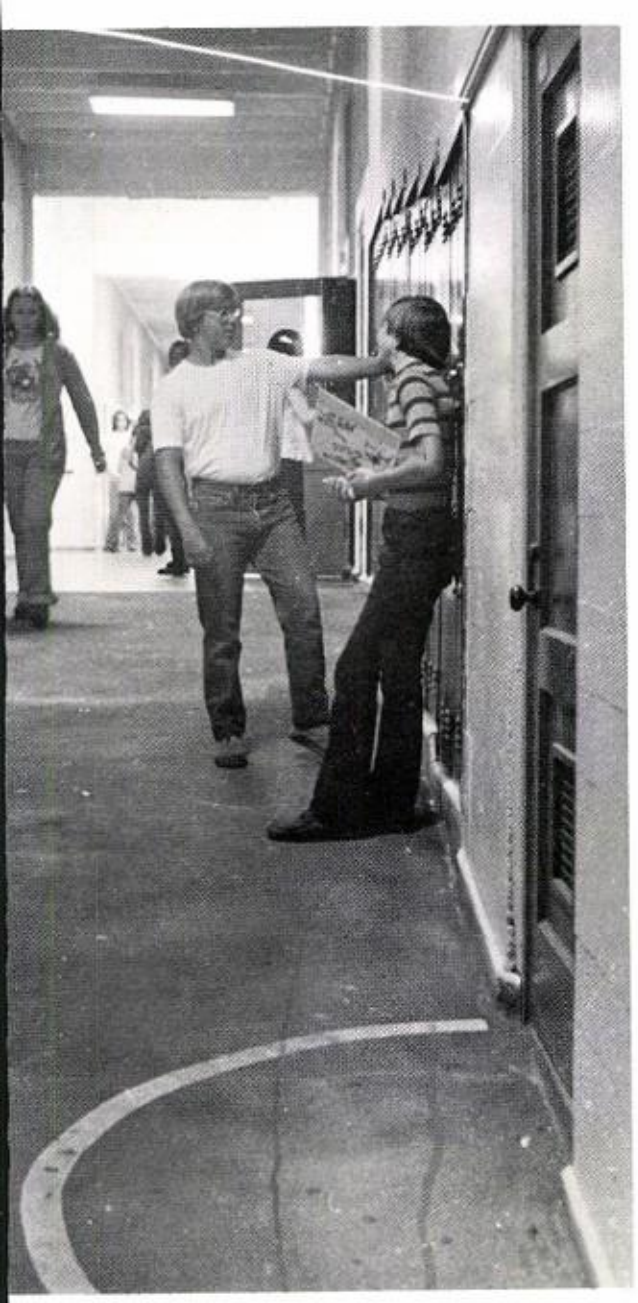
"Hi there, I'm Geneva Downs!"



Sophomores get a chance to gossip during lunch.

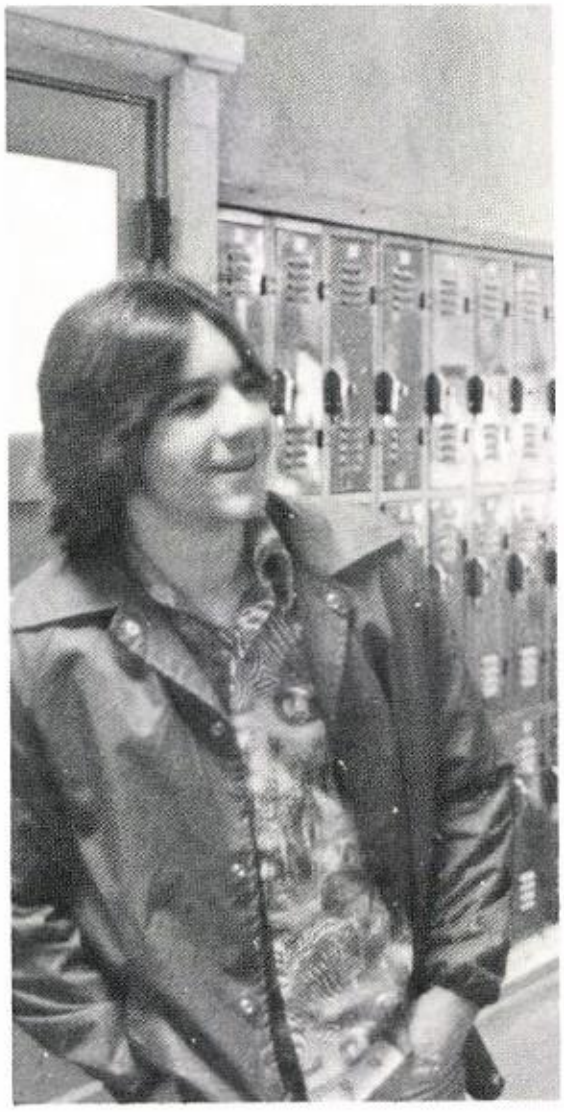


David, Jack, and Lorin find it's more pleasant to eat lunch outside.



"You know, we shouldn't be meeting like this."

It's nice that Theresa Wheelock can laugh at herself.



Tom Huff watches one of the all too frequent and unnecessary locker fires.

New teacher, Mr. Lewis, addresses his Western Civ. class on the first day of the new semester.

Sophomores listen attentively to the daily bulletin.

ACTIVITIES

Active Spirited Broncos

The first and third Tuesday of every month finds A.S.B. meeting in the cafe alcove. Mike, President, starts the meeting by having Karen, Vice-president, lead the flag salute and all other members join in. Maurice, Comm. of Records, reads the minutes from previous meetings. Mr. Rusk, advisor, adds suggestions where necessary.

Essentially, A.S.B. is the school government. Any and all school activities have to be approved by the A.S.B. Council. This prevents clubs from having a monopoly on certain functions. It allows all clubs equal chance to raise money.

A.S.B. has the responsibility of making many decisions and the officers take their duties seriously.

Etnhusiasm RALLY-ed By Broncos

Captain of the week, Maurice Jackson, requests support and spirit from the Bronco fans during a pep assembly.

Preceeding Homecoming night, members of Rally Club help boost the excitement of the event by holding a mock contest. With deafening applause, the crowd proves Kathy Walton Rally Club Queen, after five girls and their escorts parade out onto the gym floor in their eleaborate attire.

With the help of Ms. Medore, advisor, Brenda Morissette, Rally Club President, has put on skits to promote spirit throughout the student body. Besides making people laugh at pep assemblies, Rally Club is able to present boxing star Ken Norton, during a surprise pep assembly. Mr. Norton talks to the students and signs autographs to the refrain of "Rocky" played by the band.

Maurice Calderon is baffled as he is awarded a giant rattle.

Service comes in many forms. If you're interested in service to BHS, join Block B. If service to ecology is your niche in life, check out the John Muir Environmental Awareness Club. If you aspire to make a contribution in government, get your experience by joining MUN. There are plenty of activities planned by each club. "Want to buy a ticket for the CSF dinner?"

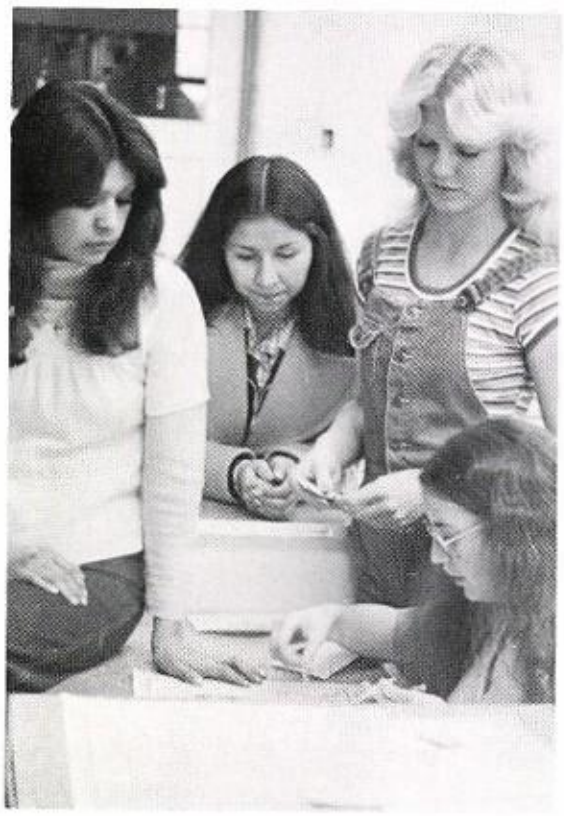
Advisors, Mrs. Meltzer and Mrs. Doyle collect dues.

A very active club on campus is CSF (California Scholarship Federation) which holds their annual stationary sale, not to mention their dinner with the theme of Easter. The life members receive pins for being in CSF for four semesters out of their last five. Their good deed for the year is putting on an Easter egg hunt for the kids at the Satelite School. Then the big field trip comes and off they go to Beatlemania!

This Book Is Brought To You By . . .

This year's annual staff began its work early. In August, Jaime Heslop, Laurie Romano, and MS. Marilyn Medore, journeyed VIA TOYOTA, to the University of California at Irvine to participate in a workshop for annual staffs. Between the time spent sunning at the beach, they managed to learn photo, design, and copy techniques. They transferred their newly gained knowledge to the other San Gorgonian staff members to re-create this year in words and pictures.

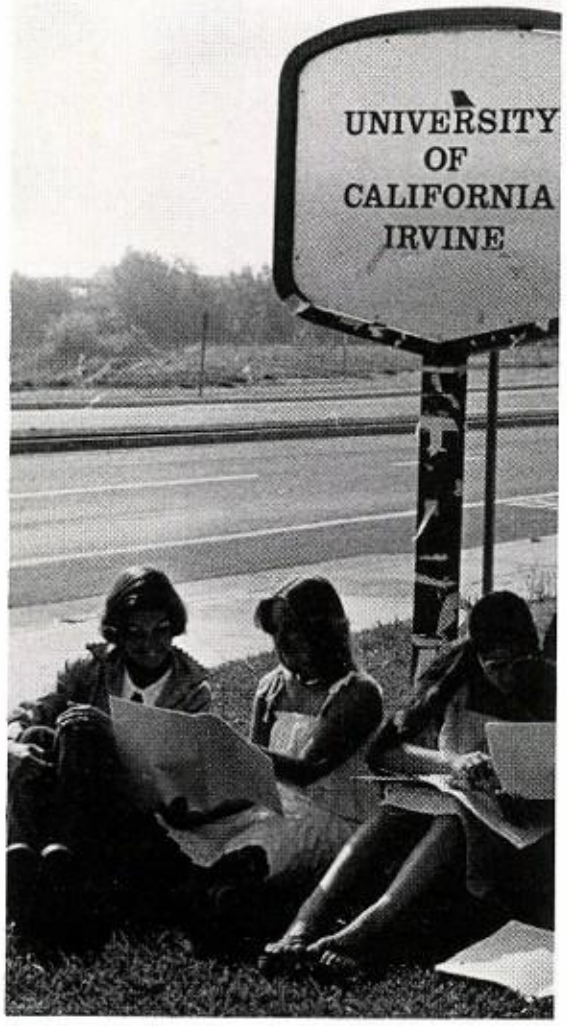


The faculty & class sections, Marguerite, Julie, Carolyn, Mary get together.

Co-Editors, Linda & Christy, try to revive advisor Ms. Medore after a deadline.

Sports Editor Jaime explains the layout to Lisa.

After a short conference, Mark & Nan will have the dummy approved by the Activities Editor Laurie.



Taking a break from summer classes is the group who studied yearbook at UCI.

All together now!

In September, the annual staff kicks off their yearbook sale with a campaign entitled "Impress Yourself." Each student who buys a book receives an "I'm Impressed" iron on T shirt patch. Annual staff also supplements the book cost by selling ads, patrons, and carnations. Deadlines are hectic and all annual work is kept top secret. The end of the year party is a time for all "staffers" to get together and celebrate the completion of the book.

We Publish

The four "W's" become a very important and integral part of the newspaper work done by the staff of the STAMPEDE. When researching information about on-campus events, or interviewing the personalities and athletes of the month, the reporters need to know who, what, where, and when, so they can bring accurate reports to the student body.

MECHA

MECHA—Movimiento Estudiante Chicano de Aztlan, translated into English stands for "The Brown Student Movement of Aztlán."

Mexican-American students from our campus make up the Mecha club which points its goal at self-identity.

A profitable dinner not only enriches the club's finances, but personal relations with friends and is a chance for members to become closer.

Nights aren't very silent for Mrs. Grieco and those students who spend their Christmas vacation touring Europe. London, Amsterdam, Brussels, and Paris offer much excitement for these adventurists, and a cheery New Years Eve is spent by celebrating "Reveillon" in Paris. Those fortunate students include: Denise McDonaugh, Mona Lisa Garcia, Valeree Vig, and Lisa McCafferty.

With much enthusiasm and anticipation, French Club begins their active year with a successful Halloween Dance, assisted by new advisor, Mrs. Grieco. Enhancing the night is a costume contest proving Steve Williams scariest, portraying Darth Vadar; and Rodney Kerr funniest, appearing as a clown.

Dancing isn't the only activity occupying the French club's agenda, as different trips are planned for Disneyland and to various French restaurants. Fund raising activities by the 20 members center around the selling of candy, a bake sale, and an Easter basket raffle.

This club begins their busy year with new members and a new advisor, and are proving to be a very spirited group.

As each new year begins, most clubs start preparing for fund raising activities that will help them financially. This year the Afro American Youth Association has done just that. To help them meet these goals, they have elected Mark Reagins, President; Veronica Black, Vice President; Brenda Anderson, Secretary; Rowena Hall, Assistant Secretary; June Alexander, photographer; and Lydia Hawley, reporter.

Their first project for the year is a Record Hop, which sets the club on the right financial track. Activities go full force during Black History Week. This week originated in 1926 by Carter G. Woodson, a well known black historian whom we call the Father of Black History. At the start of the week, the club has a dinner and crowns Debbie Johnson AAYA Queen.

Mark, AAYA President, introduces princesses Pegi, Brenda, Lydia, and Queen Debbie.

"Dessert anyone?" ask Vanessa Jackson and Kermit Frierson.

"How about a bite to eat?" inquires Veronica Black of Alvin Miller at the AAYA dinner.

Food For Thought

A club on campus that is designed to prepare students for domesticity is FHA. Otherwise known as Future Homemakers of America, the members acquaint themselves with different methods for accomplishing tasks around the home, such as sewing and cooking. As in all cases, sometimes the club's efforts are not too successful. So, if you smell something burning, it may be that one of the members has missed quite a few meetings.

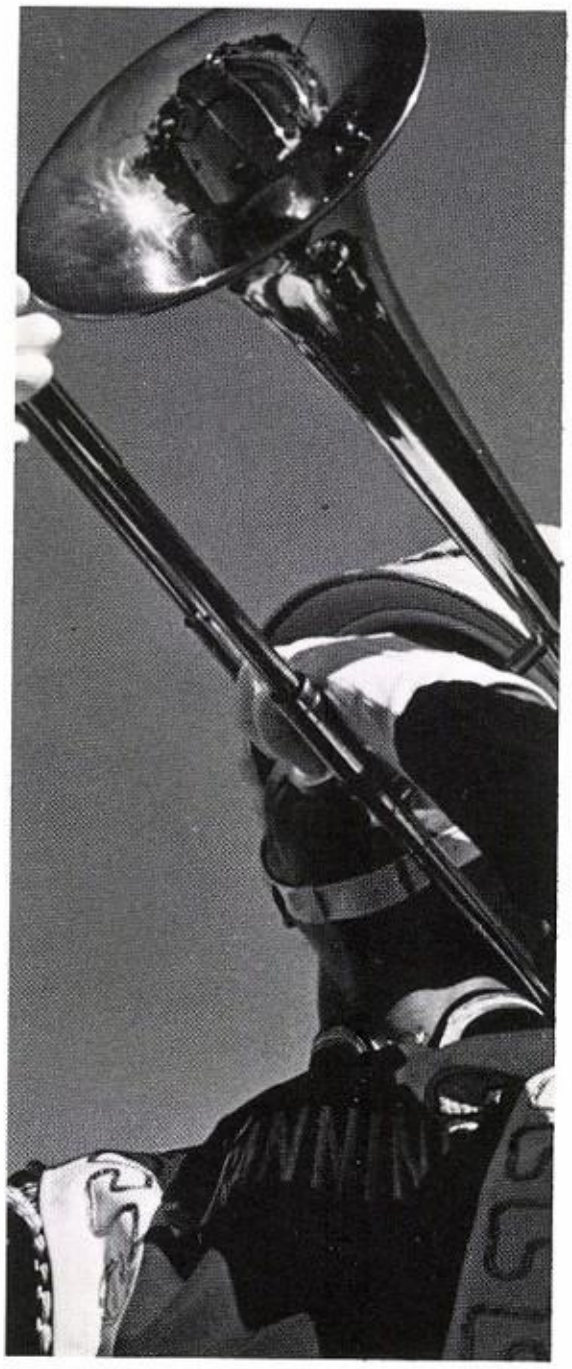
MAKING MUSIC FOR OUR FRIENDS

A military affect is added by the new rifle squad.

The flag girls catch a few moments of practice before stepping off.



As Drum Major, Don Wray, blows the whistle, the "Pride of Banning" marches onto the football field to perform their entertaining half-time show, which is also performed at the Inland Empire Field Show.

In preparation for these half-time shows and many parades, such as Colton Band Review, Lester Oaks Band Review, Santa Monica "El Primero" Band Review, and Long Beach All-Western Band Review, the band attended a clinic held in Idyllwild at the beginning of the school year. There, under the direction of Mr. Gary Locke, the 64 musicians rehearsed their music, and the 33 girls, representing the drill team and attached units, worked out precision routines, and all members were taught the meaning of pride. The result of their efforts has been the thrill of victory.

Coldness blankets all of southern California, but our spirited band marches in any weather: rain, sleet, or snow. In January, the freezing wind still doesn't stop the band from performing at Disneyland and again demonstrating the three P's: POSTURE, PERSONALITY, and PRECISION.

With authority, Drum Major Don Wray conducts the Marching Band.

"Mini-tour" is a common word among the students of Wind Ensemble and Jazz Band. This term means many concerts for both groups. For Wind Ensemble, there are concerts at Knott's Berry Farm, The Queen Mary, and Long Beach Veteran's Hospital. Jazz Band has concerts at Hemet High, Cal-State, San Bernadino, and Burbank High. Both groups perform together at Coombs Junior High and Hemmerling Schools to inspire future musicians. Not only are there these performances, but civic functions, pep rallies, and school activities.

In Me

One of the major requirements for getting into Girls' Glee is that you must be female. If you fulfill this requirement, then you try out. If luck and talent are with you, you'll be singing your way into the hearts of millions. After you've been in awhile, you'll find that you'll sing at other high schools. In March, all the girls participate in the Sip 'N Sing. It's a song-filled year!

Sing, Sing A Song

Many students on campus have been pondering the following question and have had a desire to know: What exactly are the choir members hiding under those green robes?

Well, the Annual staff investigated and with each minute got closer to the truth. They met choir members rehearsing fifth period, taking voice lessons after school, and were entertained by them at the Sip 'N Sing and Christmas concert. One afternoon, during a rehearsal for their musical production Bye, Bye Birdie, an Annual photographer snapped a candid photo and the secret is out.

Choir director, Mr. Jensen, leads a rehearsal.

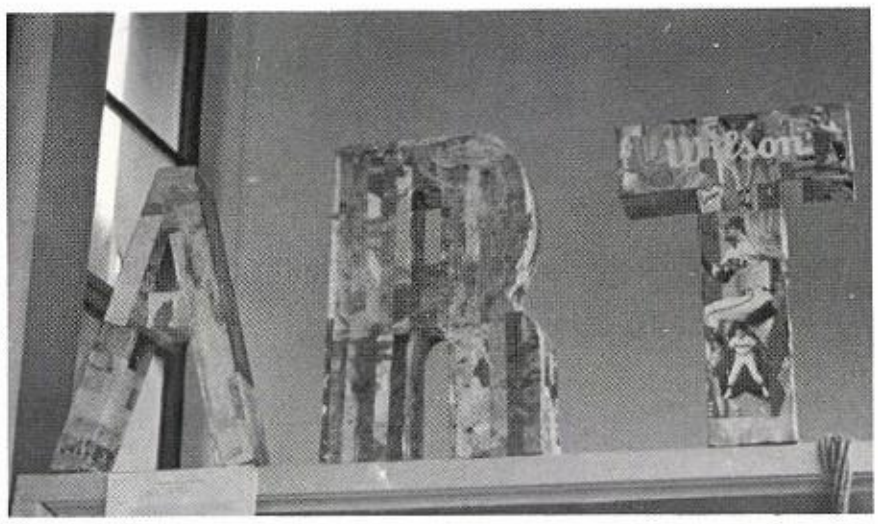
A Really Talented Club

Colorful, creative, and original are only a few words out of many that best describe the talented efforts of the Art Club. Even though their membership is fairly small, this group has ventured far and progressed well. Early in the year, a strong second place was won by the group in a van painting contest, and those involved participated in window painting as well.



This is what it's all about.

Putting pencil to paper is freshman Ted Link.

It takes a moment to create an idea, as Vanessa Jackson shows.

"We got spirit. Yes we do. We got spirit, how about you?" This cheer echoes across the football field and the Varsity Cheerleaders wait for a response from the visiting fans. When the opponents' rooters fail to acknowledge their spirit, a "put down" yell lead by Head, Brenda Cockron, begins. Mascot, Laurie Schoenborn begins to clown around. Wearing her oversized sun glasses, and banana necklace, she does her "big fig" imitation. It's a typical Friday night and the Varsity cheering squad has let loose and the girls are cheering on the Broncos for another big win.

Practice for the Varsity squad involves a clinic in Riverside in August. When the cheerleaders take away ribbons, a trophy for hardest working, and a spirit stick, they know all efforts so far have been worth it and a promising year lies ahead. It's a year of personal wins and losses, and team wins and losses. But cheering is the skill to show spirit whether there is a win or a loss.

If you happen to be 16 years old and a senior or junior, you are eligible for the ROP program. ROP, better known as the Regional Occupational Program, provides vocational training in a real life setting. The students who take advantage of ROP are better preparing themselves for the future.

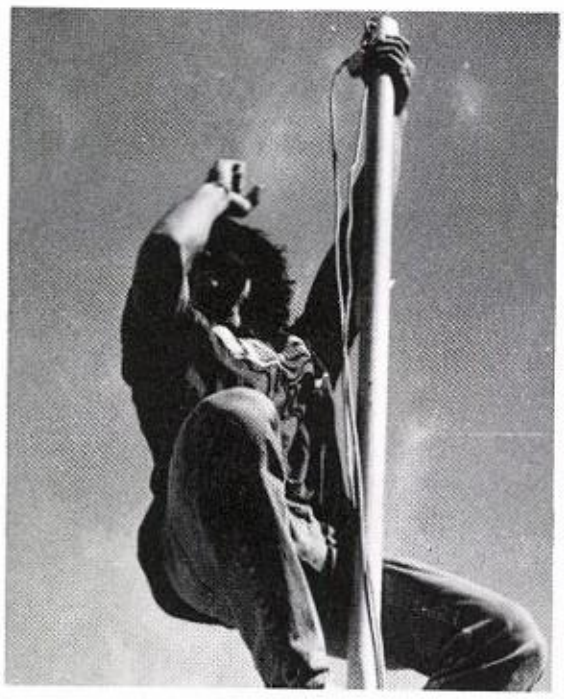
"Happy Days" Are Here Again

Anticipation fills the air as the Fabulous 50's come to the campus. Everything looks as if this homecoming is to be the best one we've had. Floats are being built to perfection, and people are getting ready for this week's festivities.

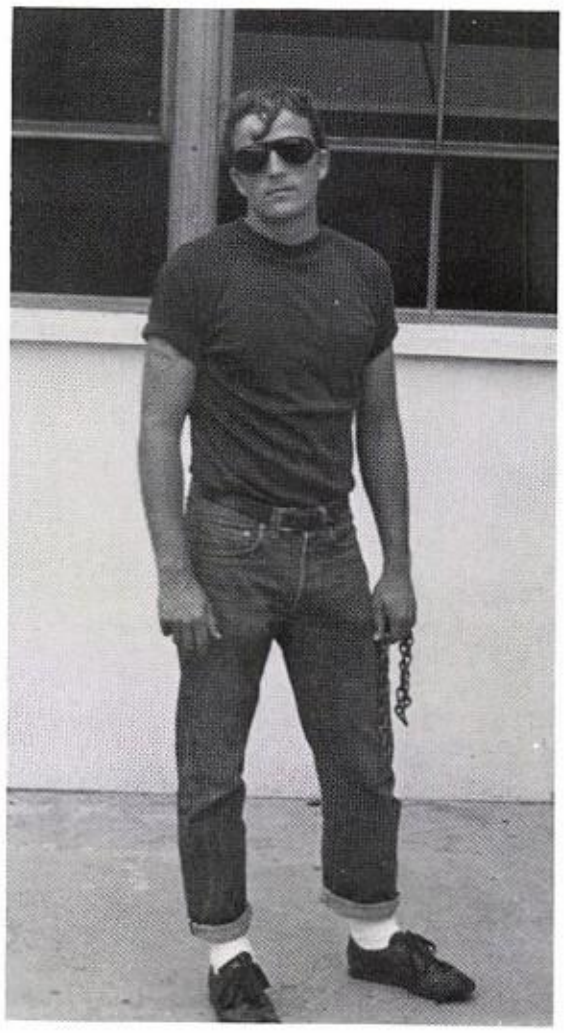
Student involvement starts on Monday with dress-up day, and Freshman Stephen Douglas, in suit and tie, taking the award. During lunch, Football player, Mike Rubel, finds himself auctioned off by ASB for a mere $7.25 to sophomore, Elsa Huerta, who can do with him what she pleases.

Tuesday, and those auctioned off football players are now the slaves of some of the shyest girls around campus. Take Bobby Amis, for instance, who has to kneel down and kiss his owner's hand under the watchful eyes of his fellow classmates. Wrapping up the lunch hour is the singing trio of Marcus, Shirley, and Calderon. Could we recognize that tune as our alma mater?

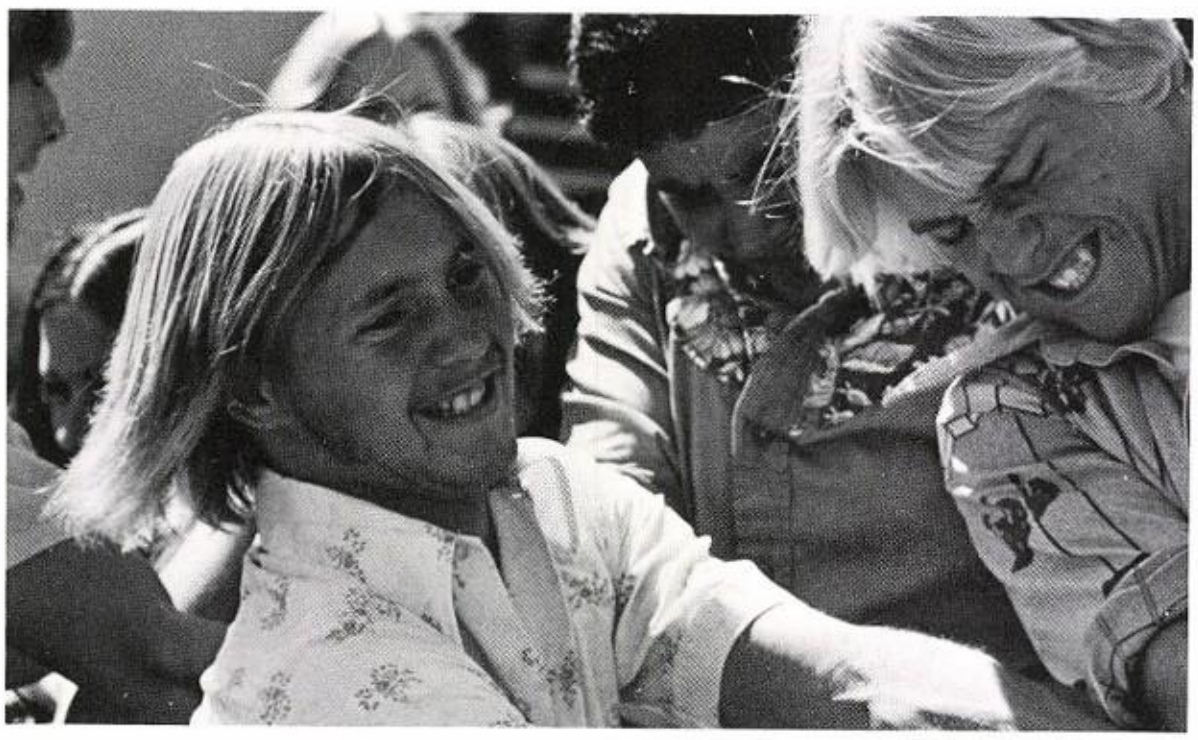
It seems on Wednesday, people forget their regular school attire and turn up in the grubbiest dress they can find. Deanna Hammond "out grubs" them all. Is it the rollers in her hair, or the fact that part of her panty hose seems to be missing that makes her so attractive?



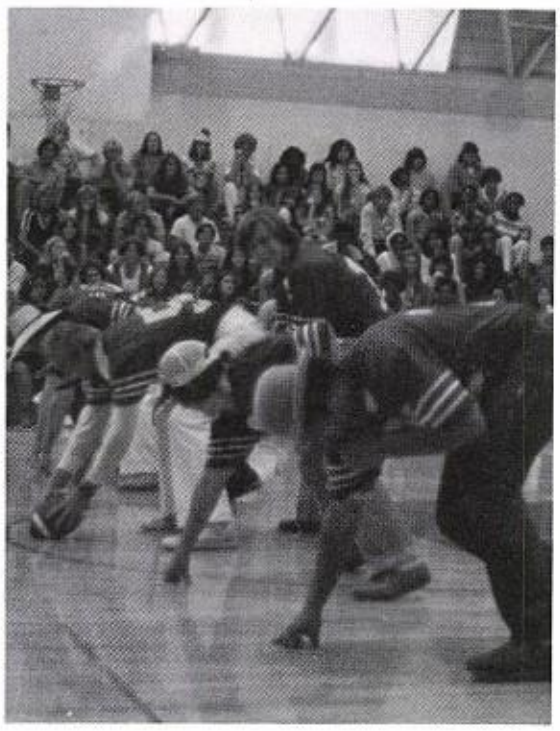
Slave, Mike Shirley, decides to "hang around" for Homecoming Week.



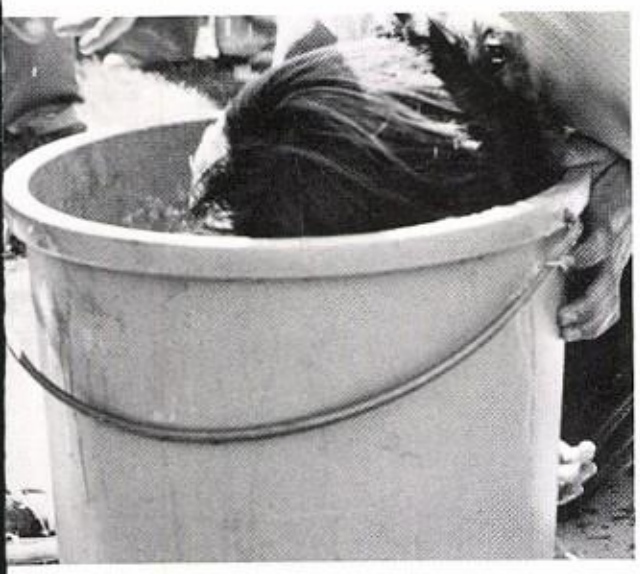
"If you say one thing about my white socks, I'll whip you with my chain."



Would you believe that at the other end of the rope that David Marshall and Jack Woody are tugging at, is a student from Central?

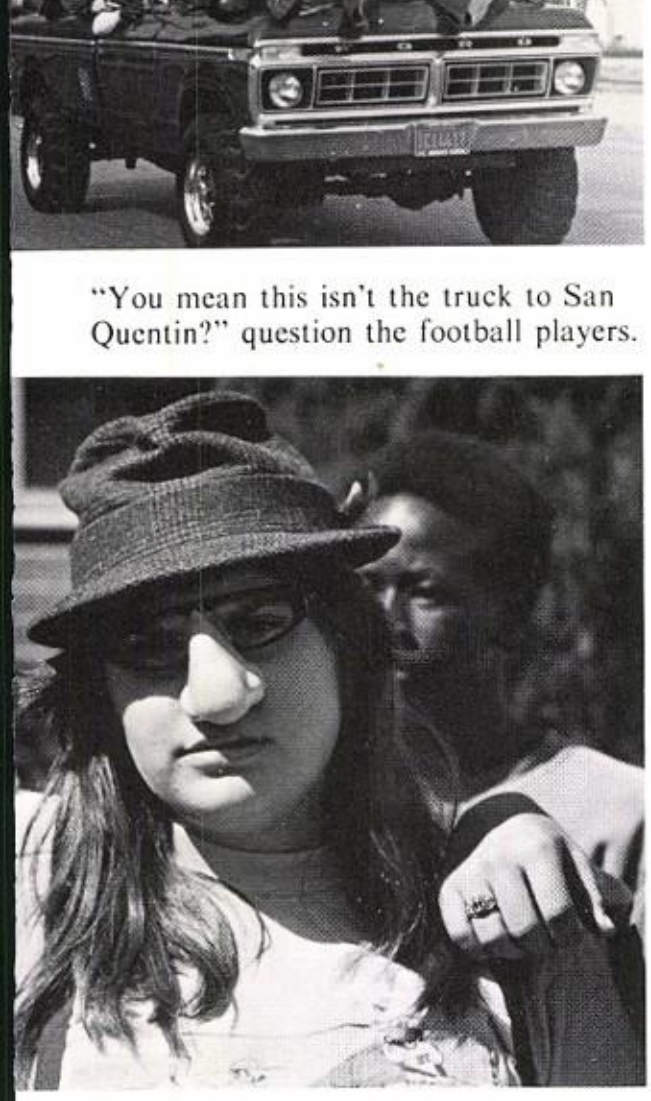


"Green 42, Green 42, set, hut," barks Quarterback, Mike Shirley.

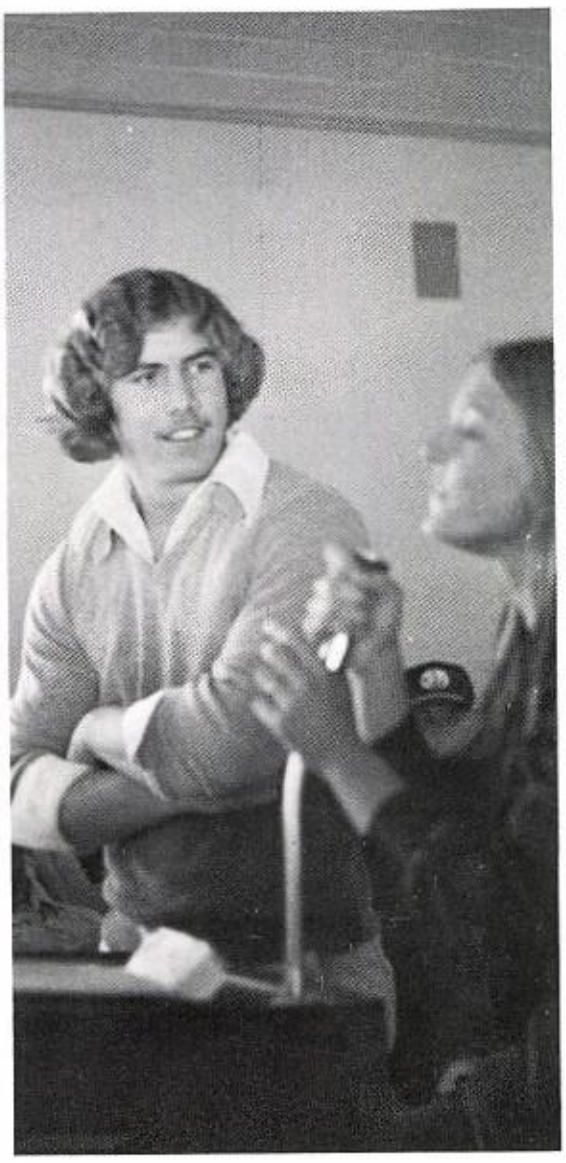


"Boy do I feel pale!" exclaims an unknown obstacle course participant.

"You mean this isn't the truck to San Quentin?" question the football players.



The rules of the homecoming games are as plain as the nose on my face.



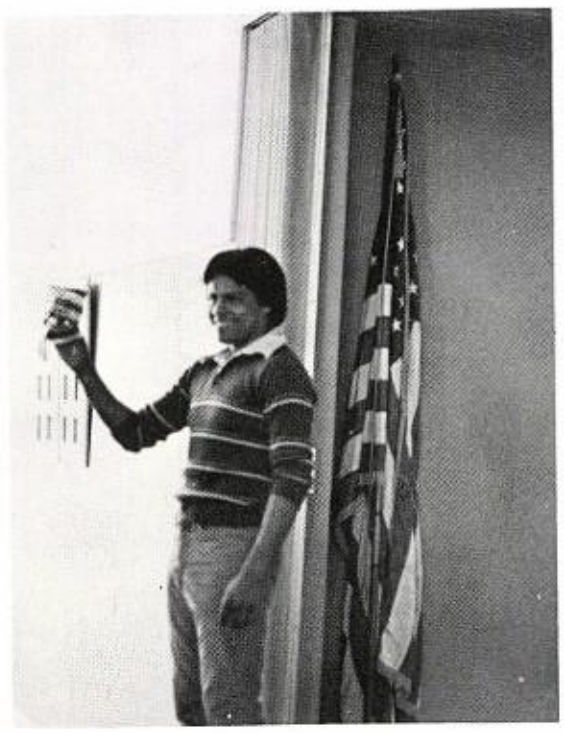
Looking very smug over his high bid, is Mike Rubel during the football auction.

The yokes on Steve Heslop during the egg toss.

The sounds of Chubby Checker echo throughout the quad, as our own Laverne and Shirley, Teresa Gilliam and Jill Miller, lead off the twist in Thursday's celebration of theme day. Others who get into the act are Disco Deak and the hard core greaser, Mr. Smith, who is on cloud nine reliving his youth.

Spirit reaches a high frenzy as green and white day draws the entire student body together in a pep assembly. Brenda James, who decks herself out in all shades of green and white, goes away with the title of most spirited and five football players leave the gym with pies in their faces.

All in all, it's a week to remember. A special thanks goes out to Diane Anderson, Commissioner of Activities, who coordinated the fun.



"I've got the pretzels, who's got the beer?" asks Kim Marcus.

Anxiously the crowds line the streets, and nervously the riders of the class floats wait in the parking lot for the start of the Homecoming Parade. Leading off with the Pride of Banning, Bronco Band, the parade begins. Grand Marshall, Mr. Stan Conerly, waves to the spectators.

And on with the floats . . .

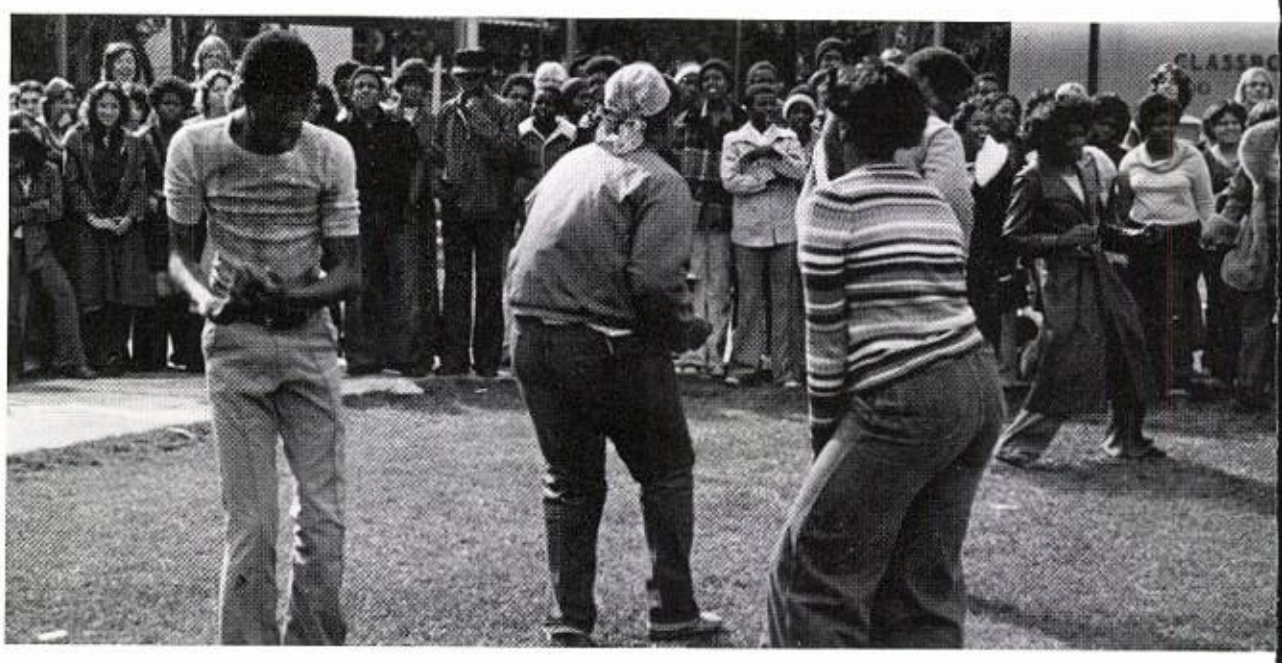
Who are all those guys dressed in suits? Well, of course they are the football players. Two of the lucky guys, who look so fine, win Thanksgiving turkeys for their efforts.

Students look on while the football players model their attire.

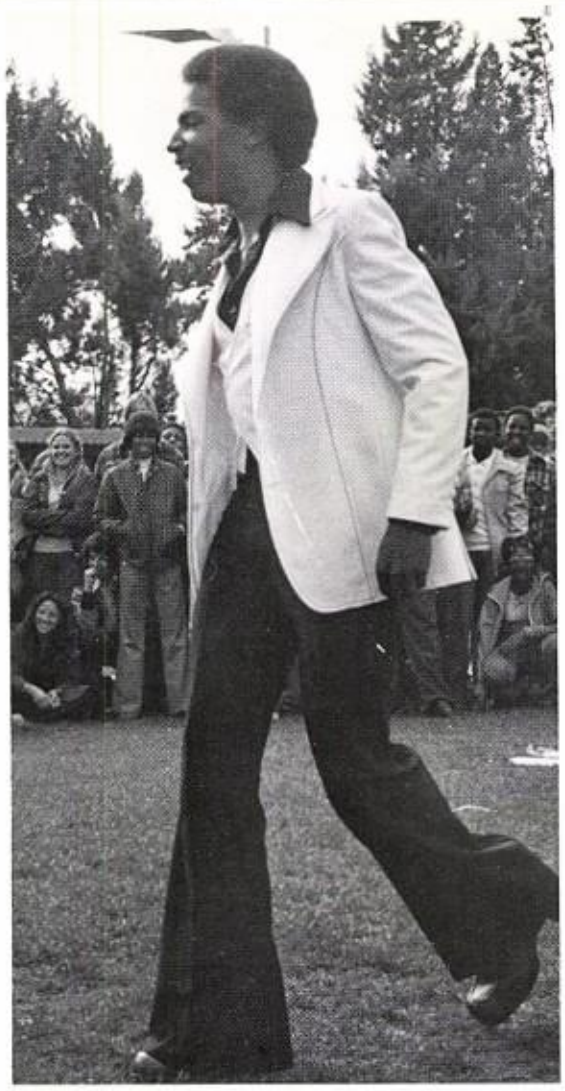
Not only do the guys stand out, but there are a number of girls sporting CIF t-shirts. The student body gets into the act by building spirit for the first round of CIF. Some enter the dance contest, and Lisa Phillips and her partner, Ralph Alexander, come away winners with a gift certificate. It's a nice change of pace and a good way to build spirit with our friends.

"S, S, S, OP, P, P, PHS" is heard throughout the quad.

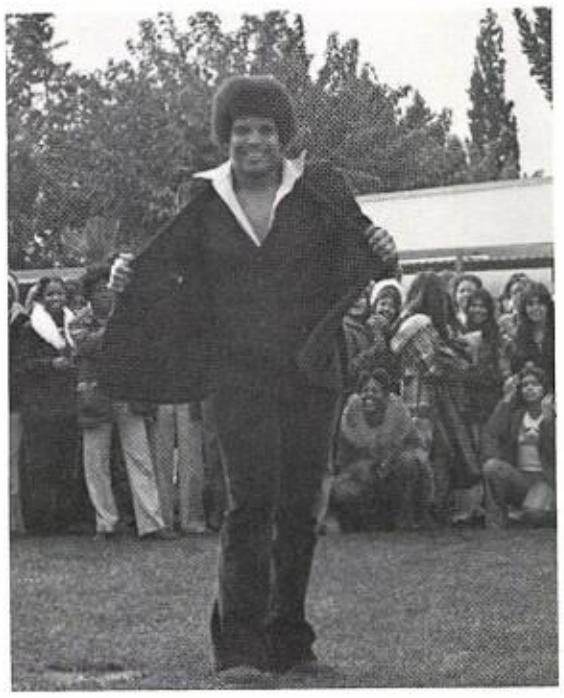
"She's a Brick House . . ."



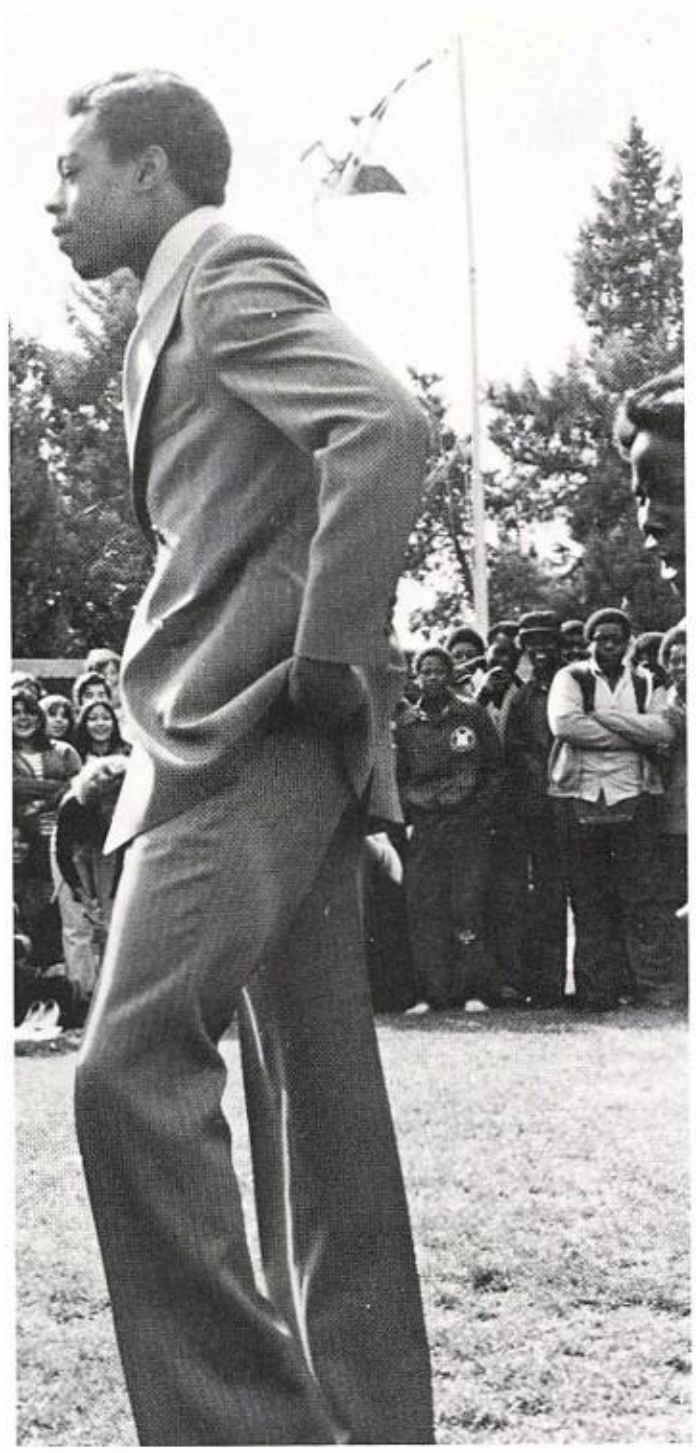
"When we boogie . . . we boogie woogie . . ." is displayed by the dancers in the dance contest.

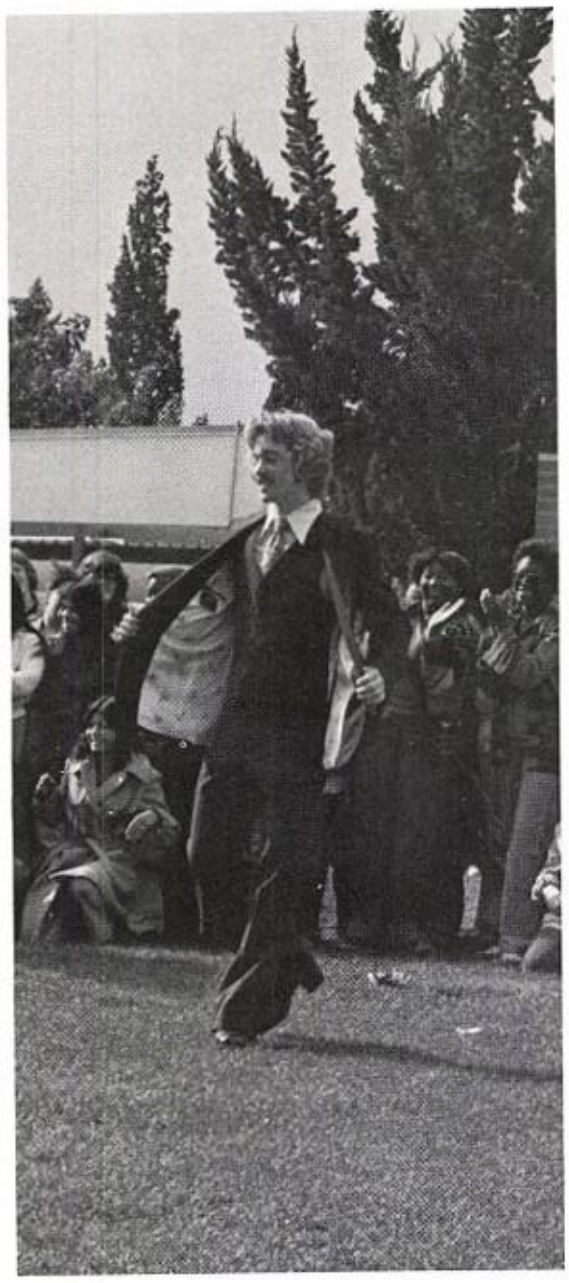


Co-Winner Bobby Amis struts his stuff.

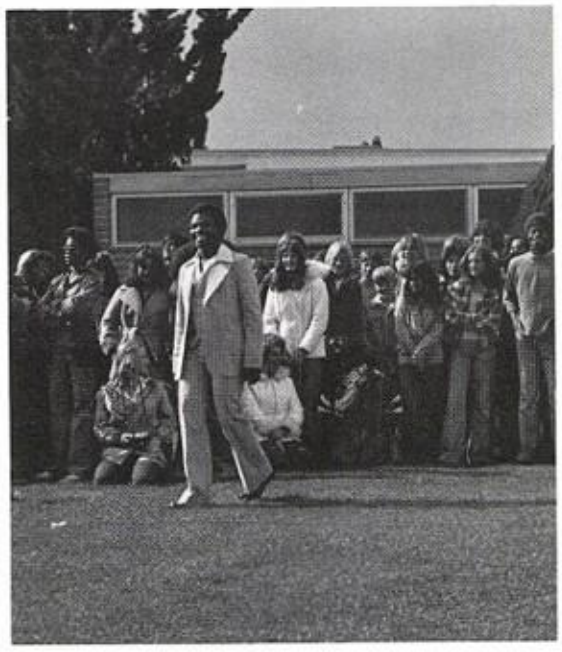


"One, two, three, look and see," teases Maurice Jackson.



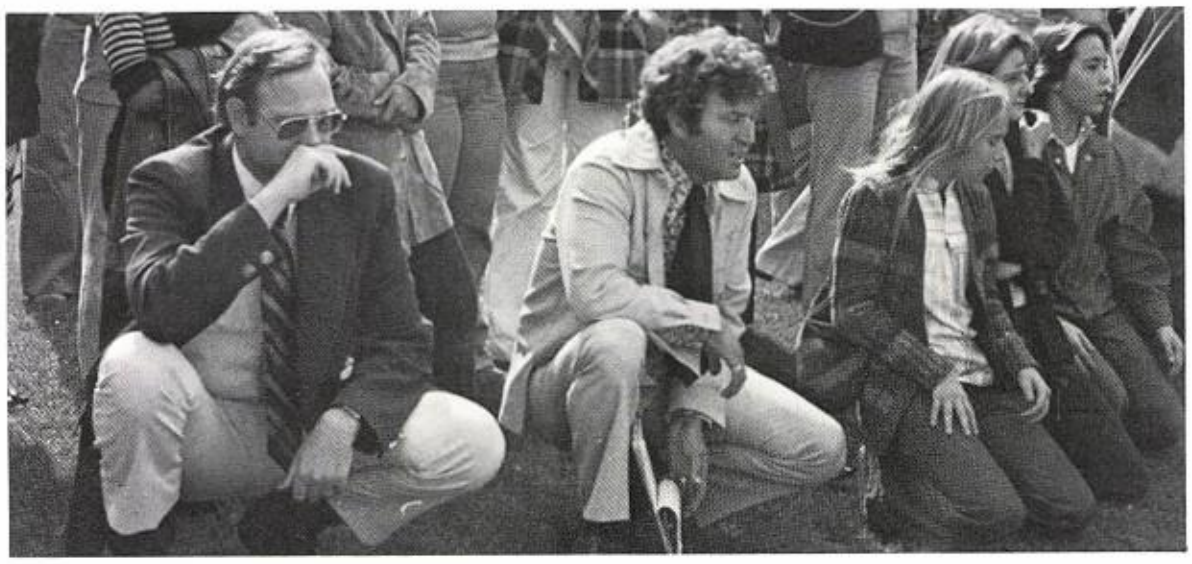


"The best thing about this suit is the lining," says co-winner Jeff Fahy.



What did Rufus Ware?

"Whoa ....."



The spectators enjoy the sights and sounds during the assembly.

Freshman Linea Macias escorted by Bob Popeck.

The Queen Is Dead, Long Live The King!

It all starts with a few giggles, an innocent smile, and a note secretly passed in the halls. It's that chance for one lucky guy to be invited to the February Spinster's Dance by a girl who has admired him from afar. Of course, he can't refuse when she's picking up the tab. Besides being with pleasant company, Fire and Ice provides the music for the pleasure of his feet, and ASB crowns the King of the dance. Long live the King!

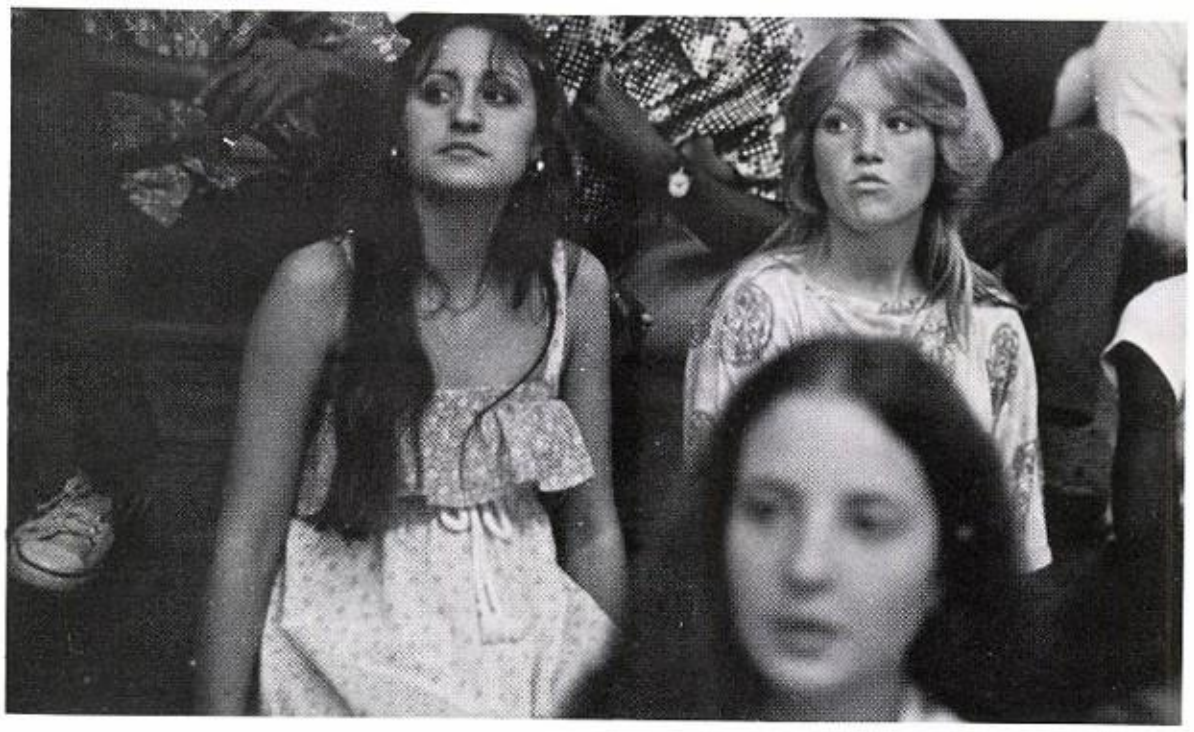
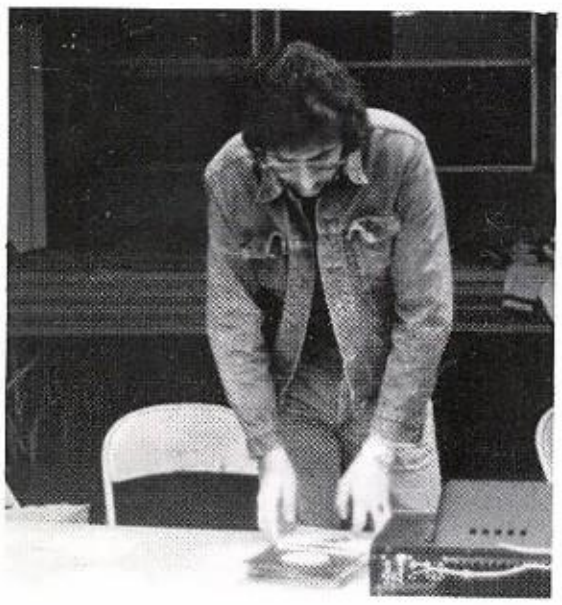
Diane Anderson cooks herself an omelet.



Anticipation sets in as the crowd awaits the arrival of the special guest.



Disc Jockey Rockin' Ron Kay from KFXM sets up for the freshmen dance.

Mayor Brigitte Page presents the band and football team with awards.

Traci Campbell finds it's not easy to make Quiche Lorraine for Frank "Mr. Eggman" Moser from the California Egg Advisory Board.

Close Encounters Of The Friendly Kind

Strutting her stuff is Ms. Medore, while Ken Norton looks on.

Heavyweight Contender, Ken Norton, waits for the clapping to cease.

I wonder if this means they like me.

Getting her wish is Tharroshia Harrell kissing Ken Norton.

Everything seems normal at first at the basketball assembly, but there is a mysterious feeling in the air. Nervously, Ms. Medore scuttles towards the microphone and begins to describe the highlights of a special person's career. As she flashes a magazine cover the tension mounts. Students strain their eyes to see whose photo is on SPORTS ILLUSTRATED. Into the gym strides, the one, the only, Heavyweight Contender, Ken Norton.

Special surprises come to some in the form of breakfast at school. When Mr. Eggman arrives in town, students learn how to make omelets, Quiche Lorraine and, Orange Julius. Some students find out it tastes better if some other hands cook besides their own.

Another honor is the presence of Banning's Mayor Brigitte Page. She presents awards to our outstanding Bronco Band and football team, making them official representatives of our town.

Of course, there is the CLOSE ENCOUNTER OF THE "STRANGE" KIND, when KFXM Disc Jockey, Rockin' Ron Kay, entertains with records and a dance contest at the Freshmen class Disco Night.

Coming along to share the applause are Manager and Trainer, Bill Slayton and Eddie Jones.

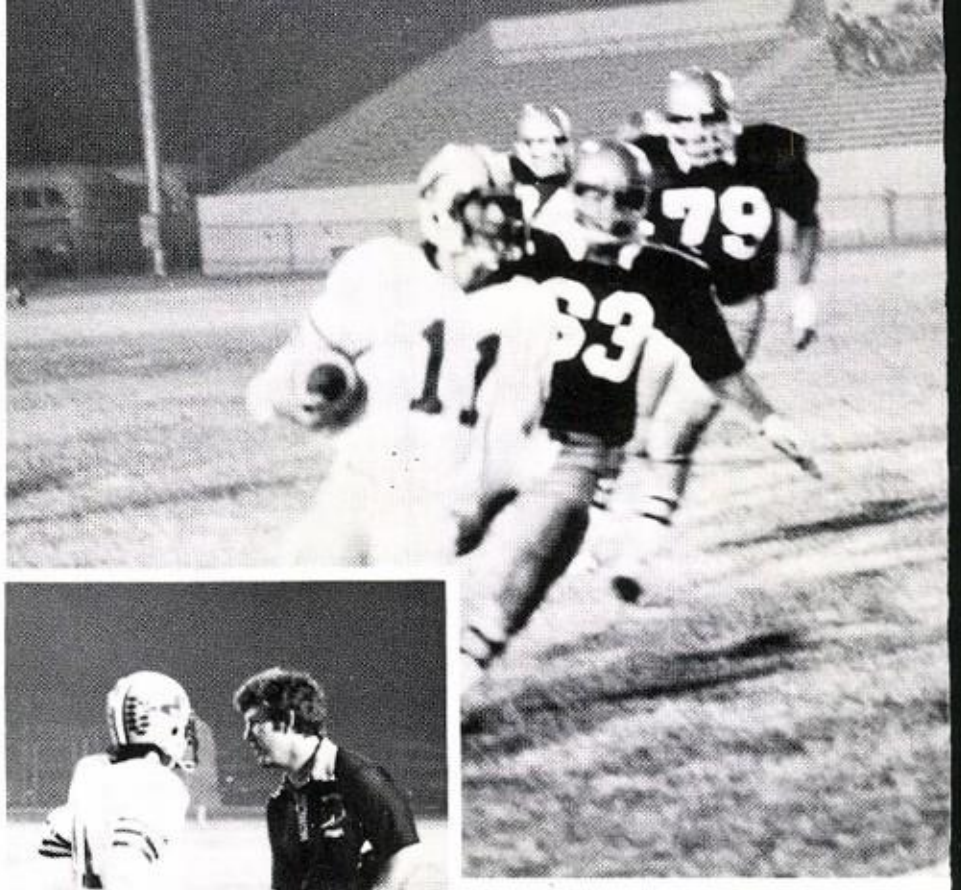
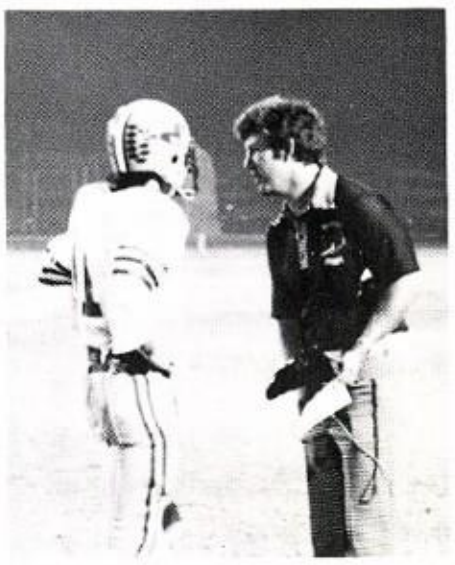
ATHLETICS

Triggered by the roaring cheer of their fans, the notorious Banning Broncos proudly pound on to the field to the announcement of their name. Also known as the "BIG GREEN MACHINE," the Banning Broncos consistently dominate the field and electrify their opponents with superb ability.

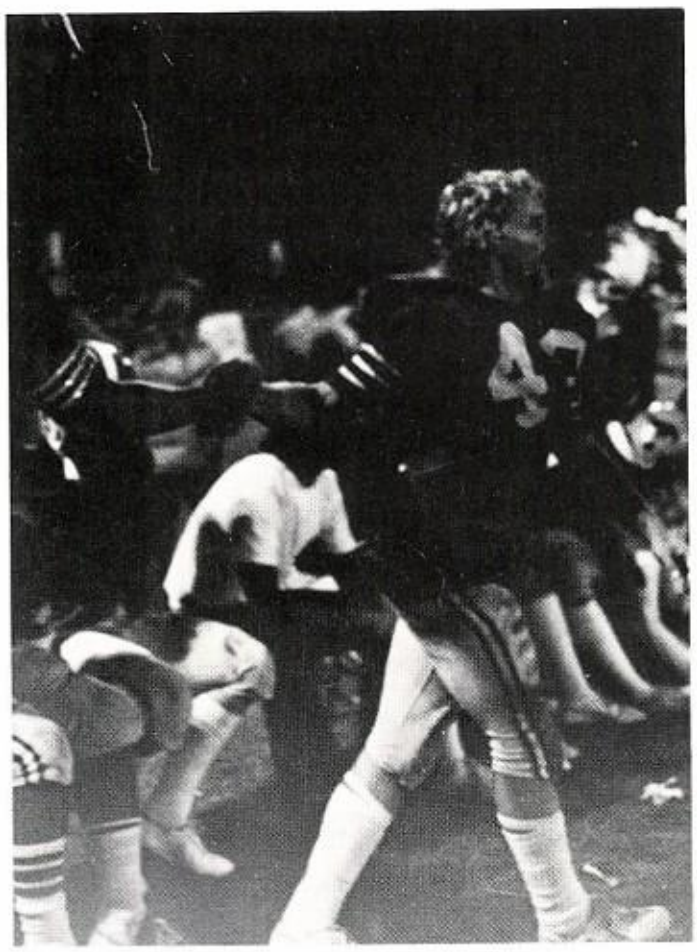
Tension reaches an ultimate high as Banning meets the Perris Panthers. With a spirited crowd behind them, our powerful team casually strolls off the field with a 29-20 victory and a defeat that is their customary style.

The Broncos are a dedicated group who work together to prove their superiority. With this dedication, they are not separate pieces of a puzzle, but are whole; they are one. Their ability to work as a team has put the Broncos ON THE ROAD TO C.I.F.



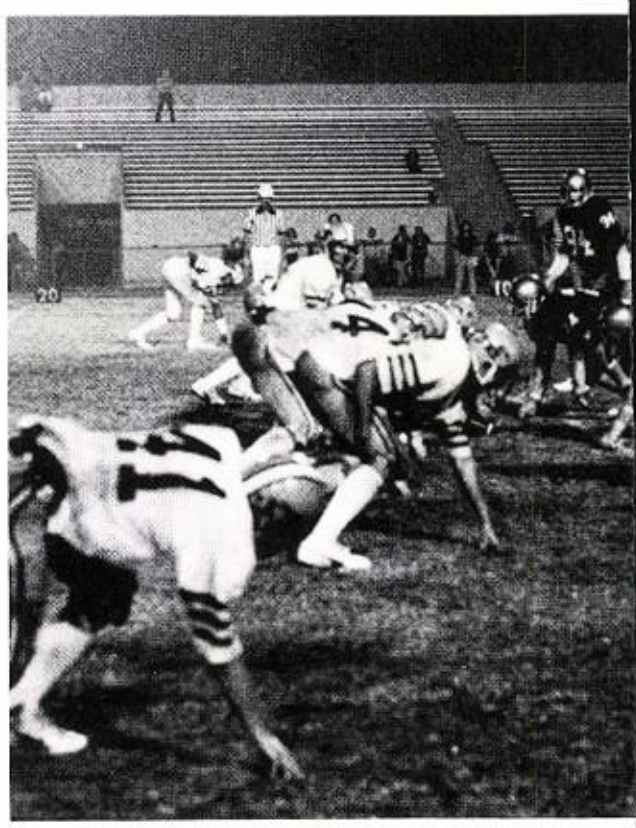


Before running for a winning touchdown, Quarterback Mike Shirley goes over the play with Coach Duncanson.



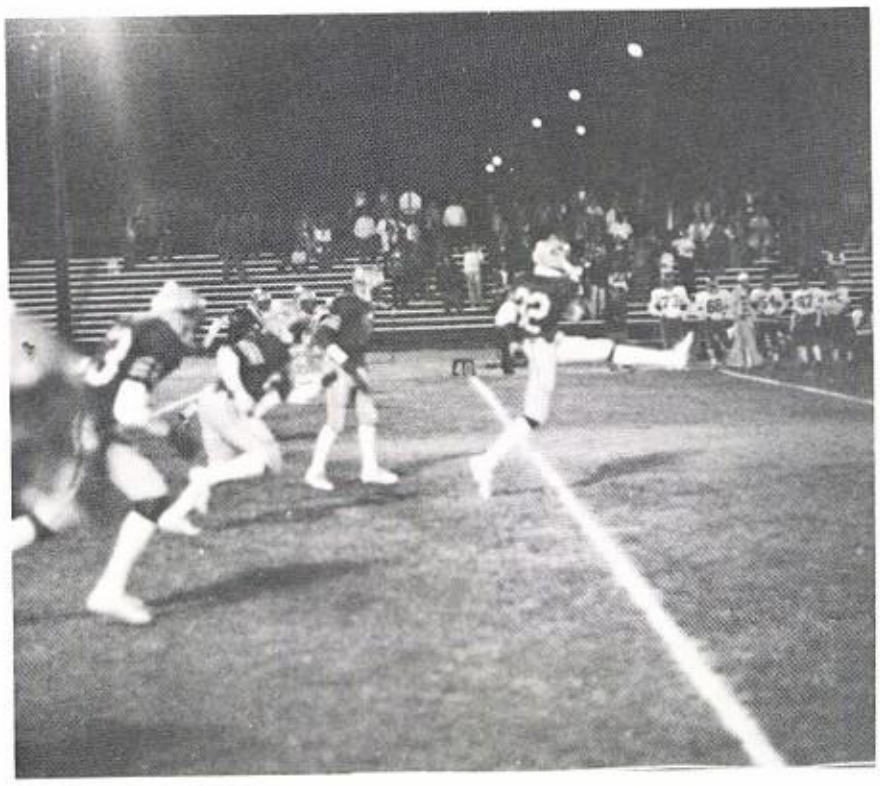
A good luck handshake is given to Jeff Fahy before he takes to the field.

Strategy plays an important part in the game.



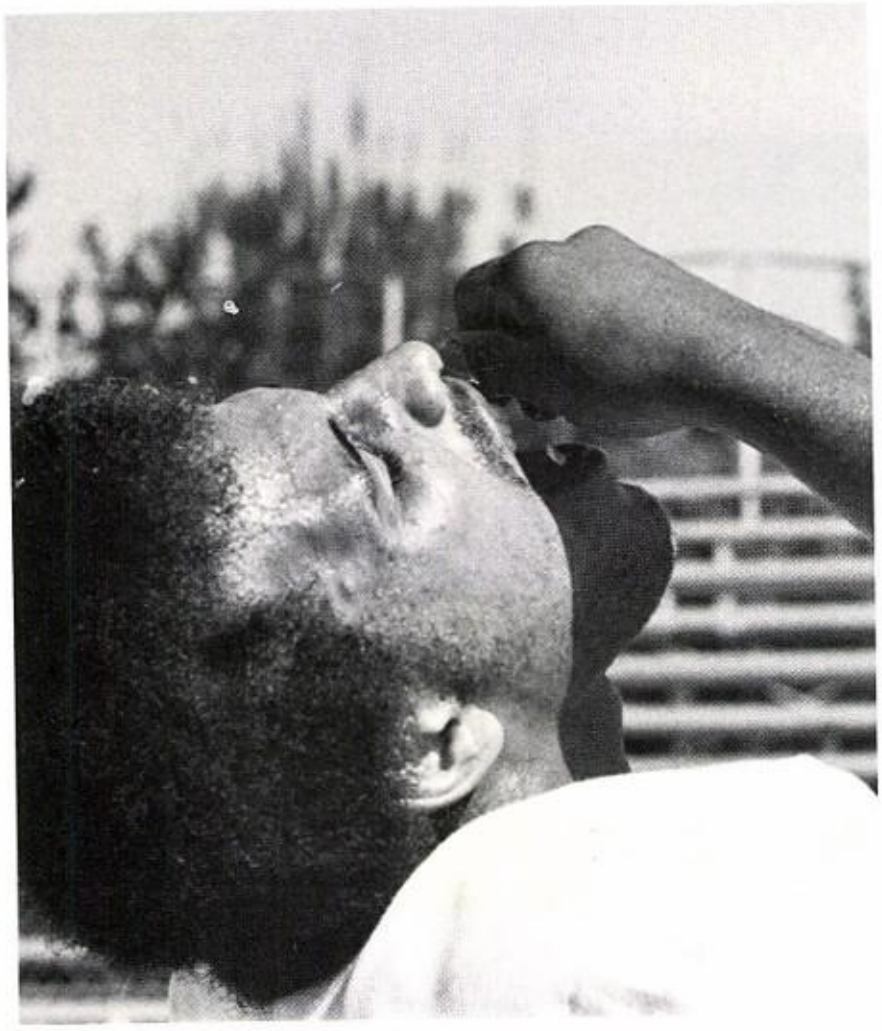
The Quarterback gives the signal that pushes the team closer to C.I.F.

On The Road To C.I.F.



Making a successful kick, Terry Owens aids in defeating the Wildcats.

Another touchdown for the Broncos.



Cooling off during a heated game is Michael Jackson.

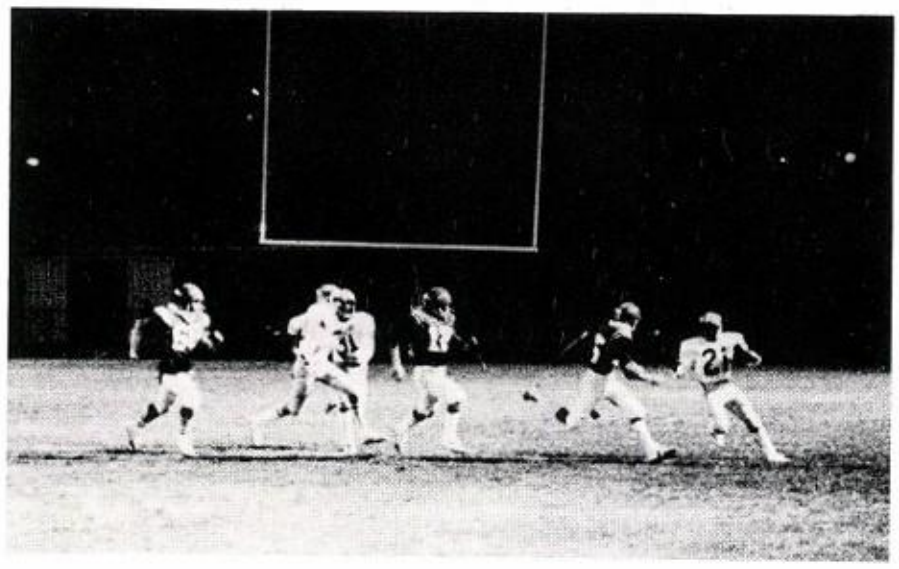
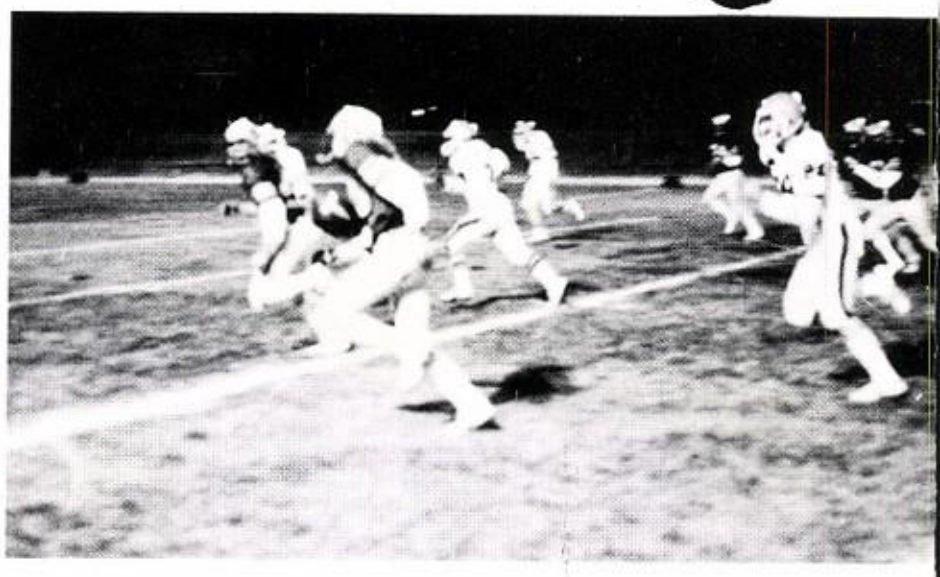
C.I.F. Playoffs

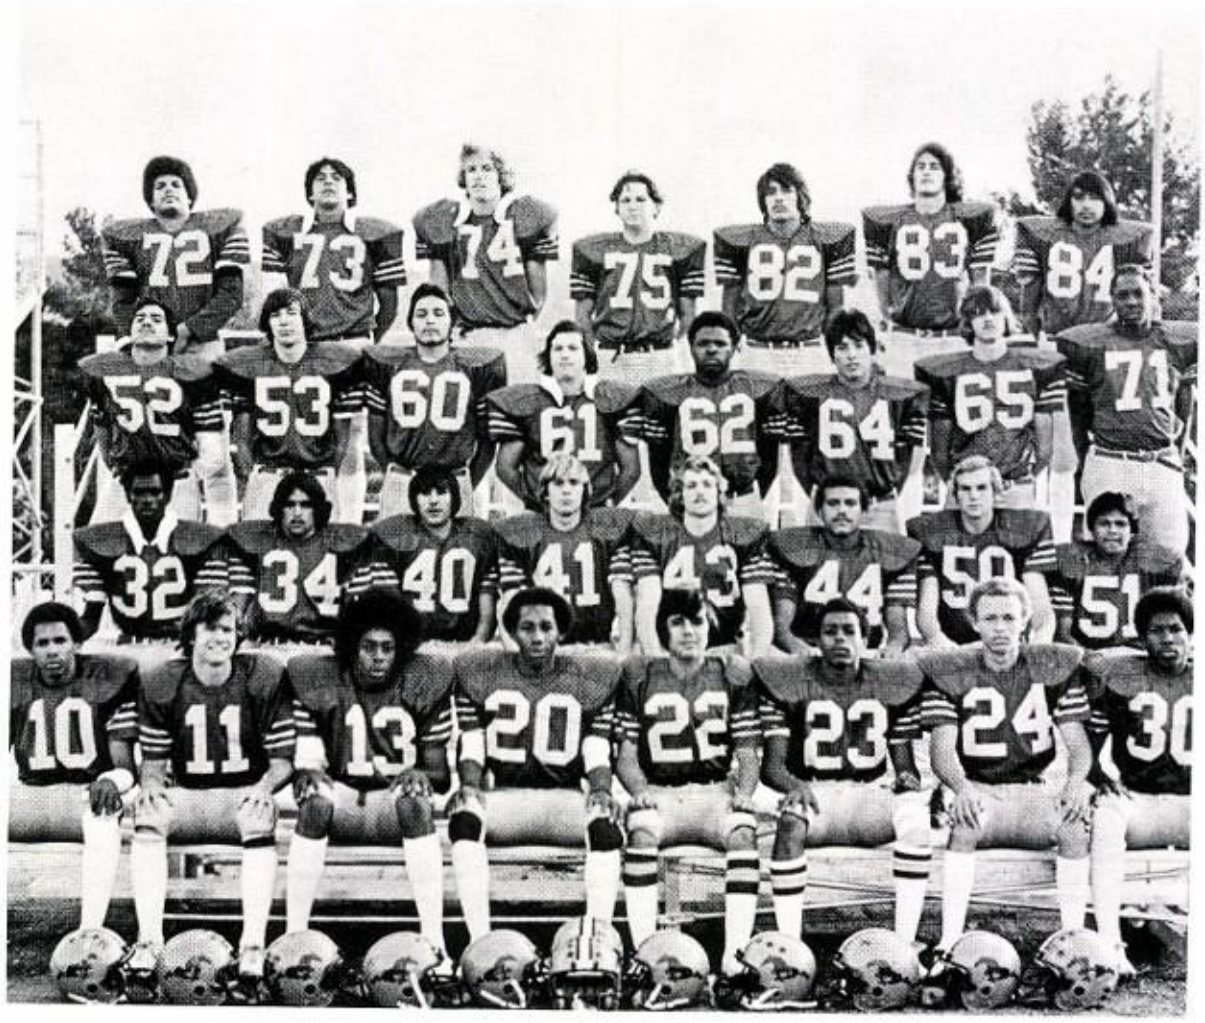
That Bear can't stop Bronco Kirby Dabney.

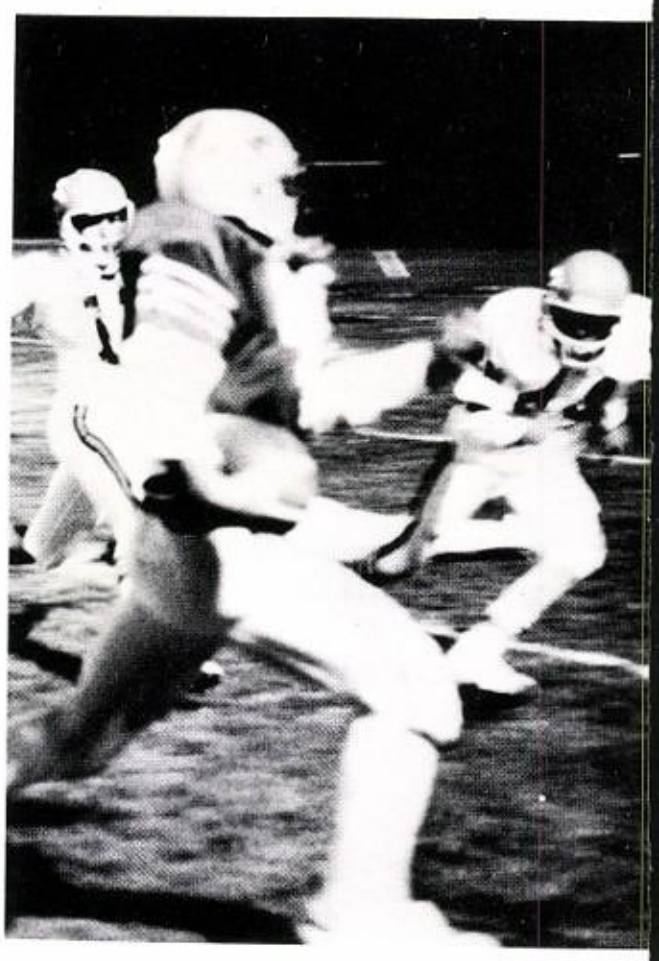


Showing his skill, J.V. player, Lacy Black, carries the ball 10 yards for the Varsity team.



Another touchdown by the Broncos, makes the final score 18 to 6 against San Jacinto.





Even though the San Jac Tigers give it their all, they still can't stop the Broncos.

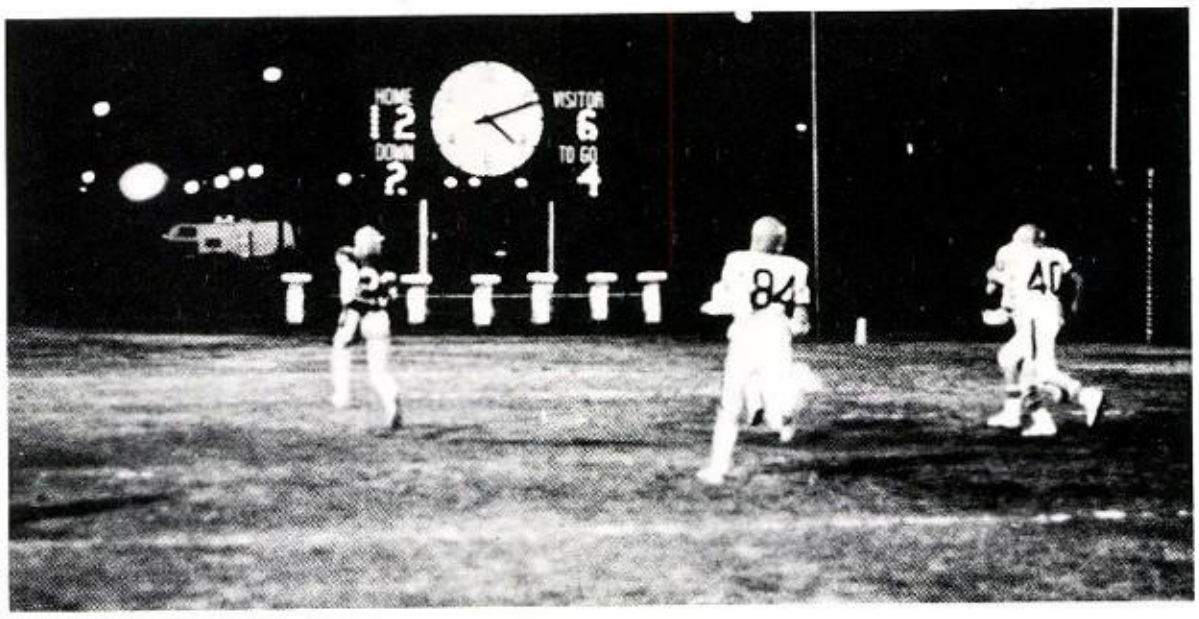
Behind the Varsity football team is a man who is described by his fellow coaches as easy-going and a super person. He is Head Coach Dave Duncanson. Completing his fourth year at BHS and second year as head coach, he led the team to C.I.F.

Dunc, as he is called by his friends, thinks his coaching improves with each year of experience, and he tries to give 100% at all times. He feels good about the over-all performance of the team and says, "I wish they could have played better in their last C.I.F. game and gone farther than they did."

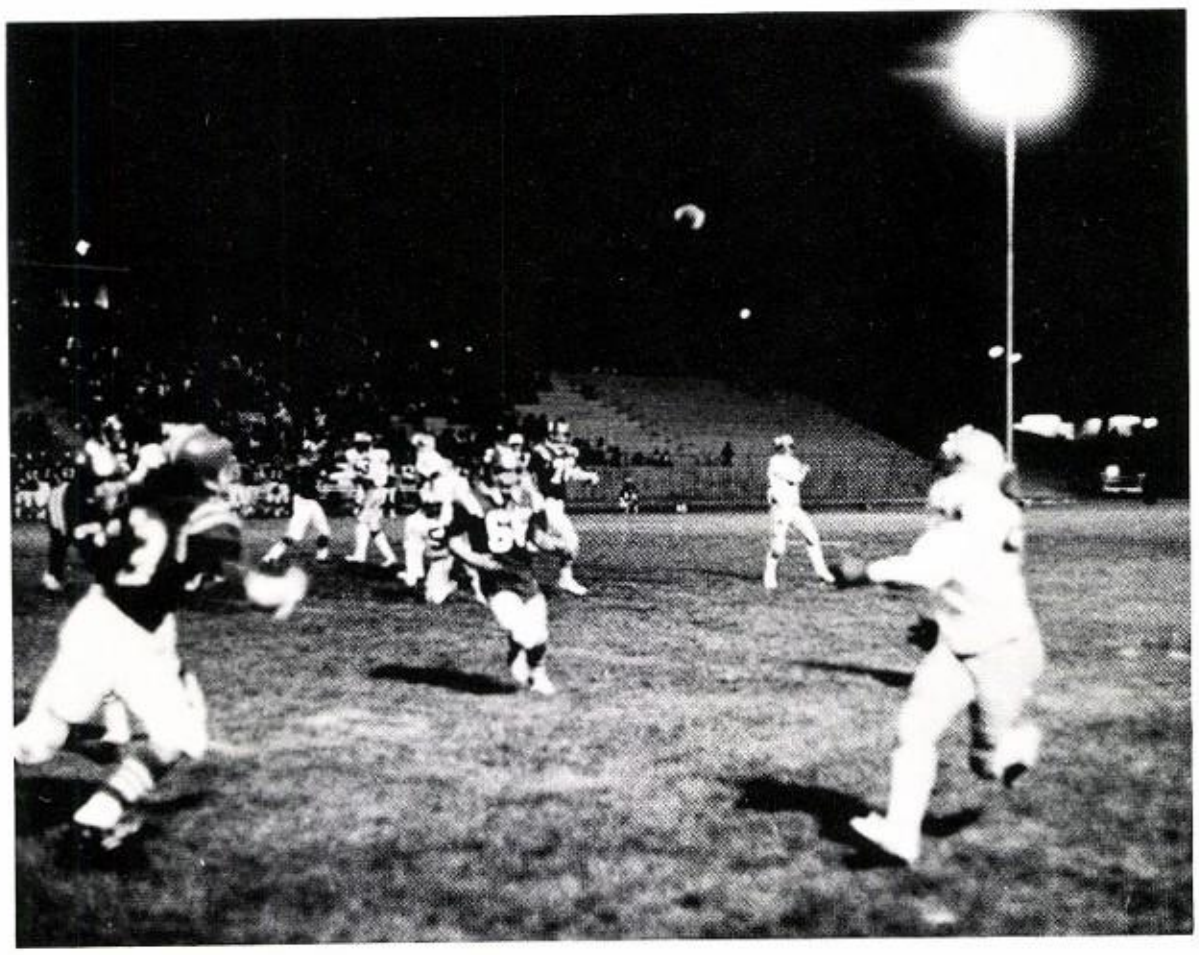
His interest in the players as human beings, his knowledge of sports, and his dedication have made Dave Duncanson

THE MAN BEHIND THE TEAM.

Forrest Pellum heads toward the goal.



Alone again . . . naturally.



Additional yardage is covered on the field by passing.

Ending a dominating football season in the Sunkist League, the Banning Broncos trot off to San Jacinto adding another victory to their record, and a glorious win to their first C.I.F. playoff. This 18-6 reign brings an over-confident air to the team, ending the admirable season in a 27-6 loss to Big Bear. Their performance displays lack of motivation and numerous injuries prevent them from playing up to expectation.

Despite the extent of their performance, the Bronco fans prove their unfailing pride for their team with their continuous aclaim and support.

We're Young, But Tough!

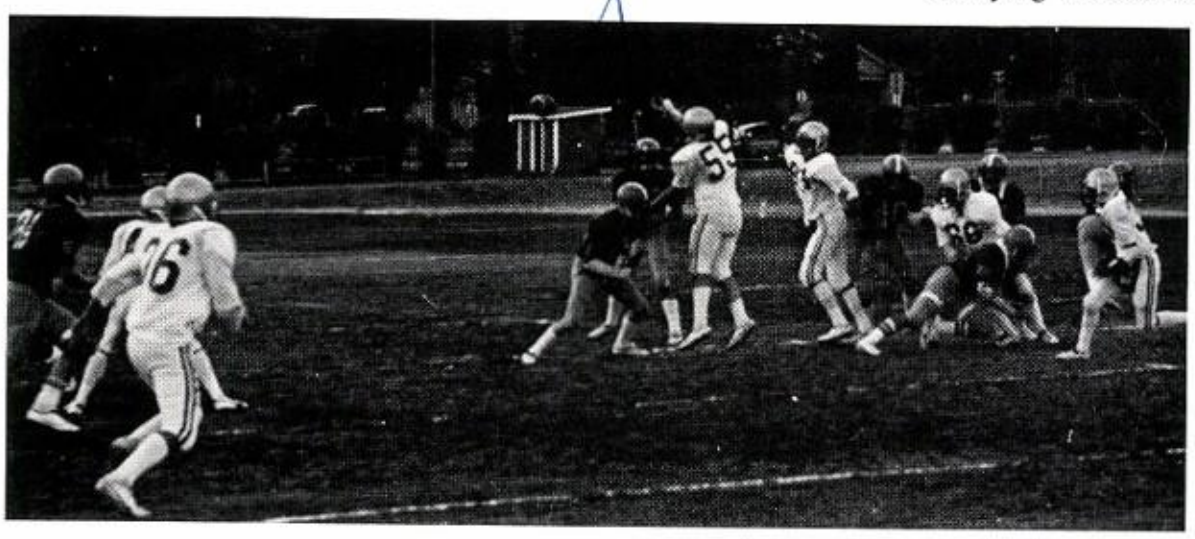
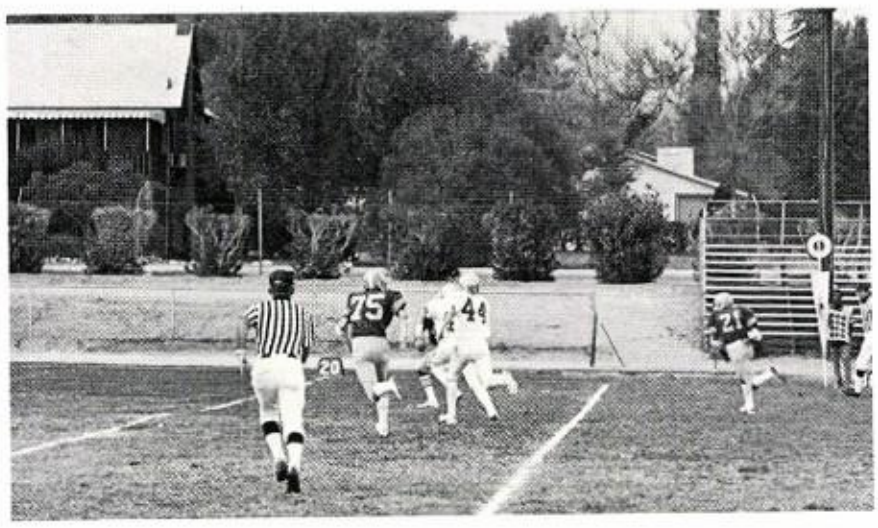
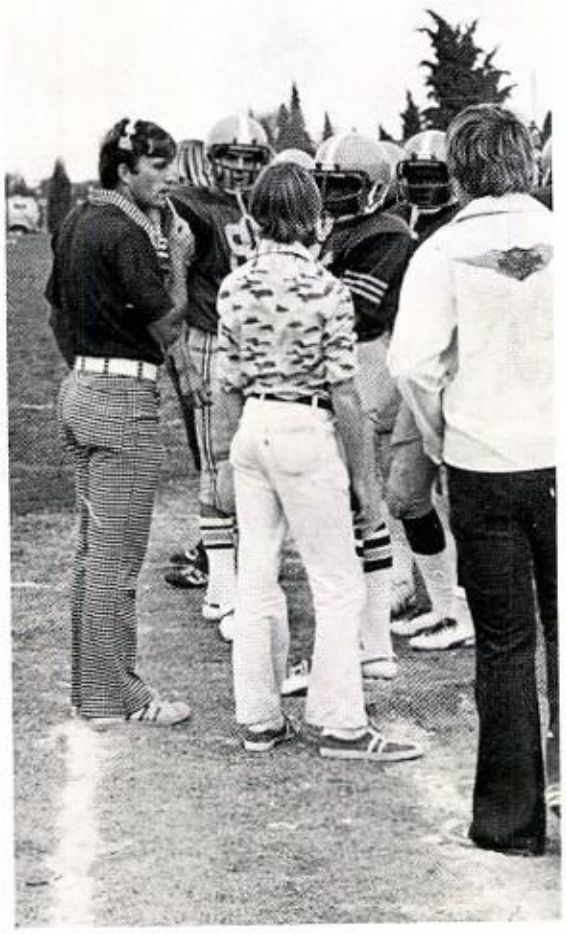
Carrying the ball successfully is Randy Ware.



In preparation for Varsity football participation, the J.V. team exhibits superb performance in their exciting season in the Sunkist League. Their well-disciplined talent proves worthy, as the reigning group remains undefeated throughout the season. Though each team member exemplifies individual abilities, they all pull together, displaying a diversified team. These mighty Broncos proclaim their superiority by offering their "undefeated" title to the school. Seven of the players are honored for their merits by aiding the varsity team in the C.I.F. playoffs.

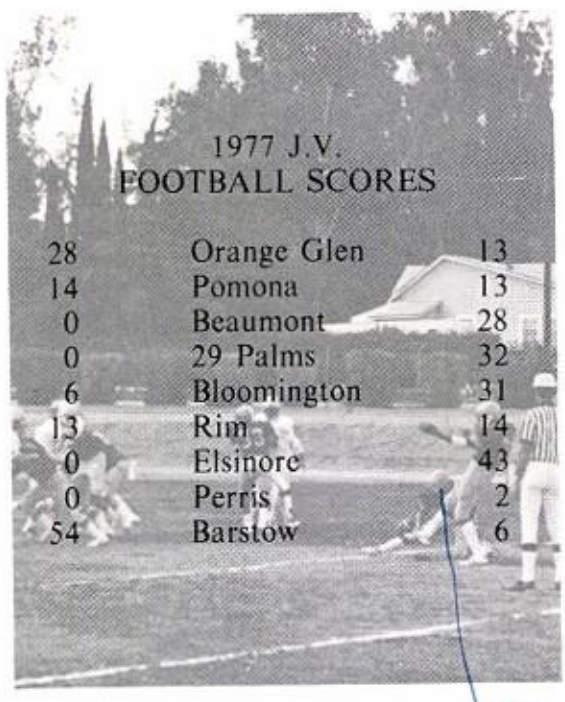


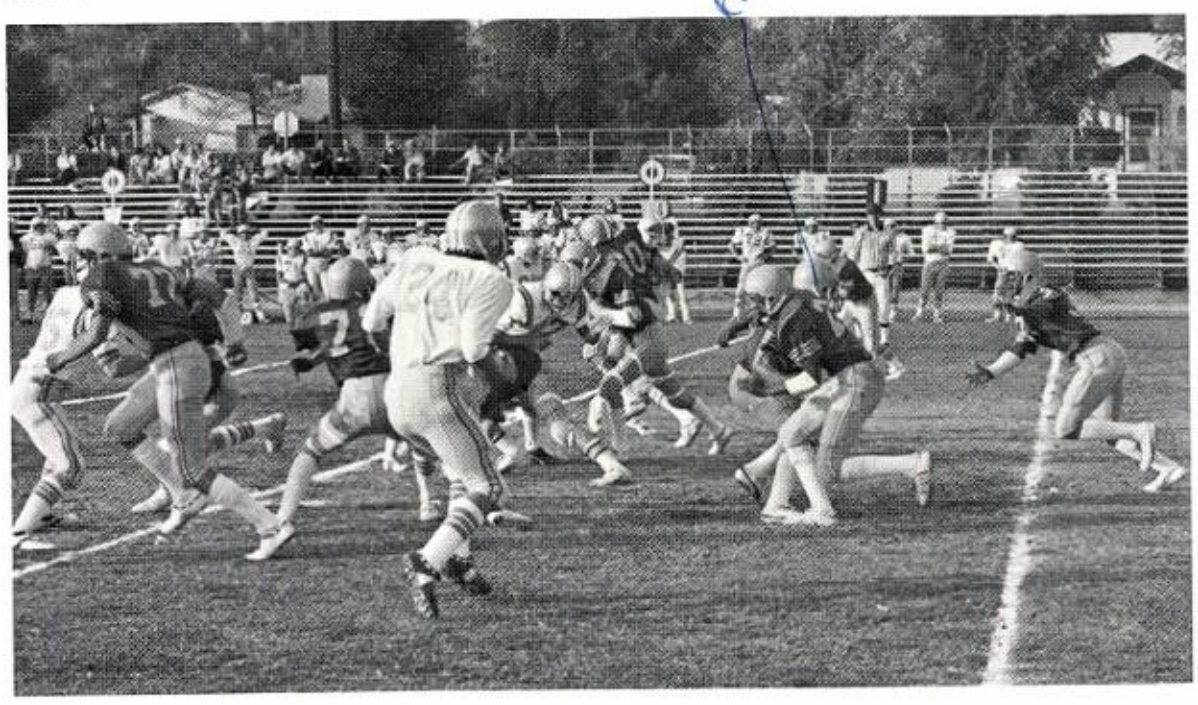
There's no stopping Bronco J.V. player, Mario Montgomery, who goes in for the touchdown.



After conferencing, the Broncos procede to a win over Elsinore.

Defensive player, Mark Schaller, holds the Elsinore Tigers back after a hard-hitting tackle.



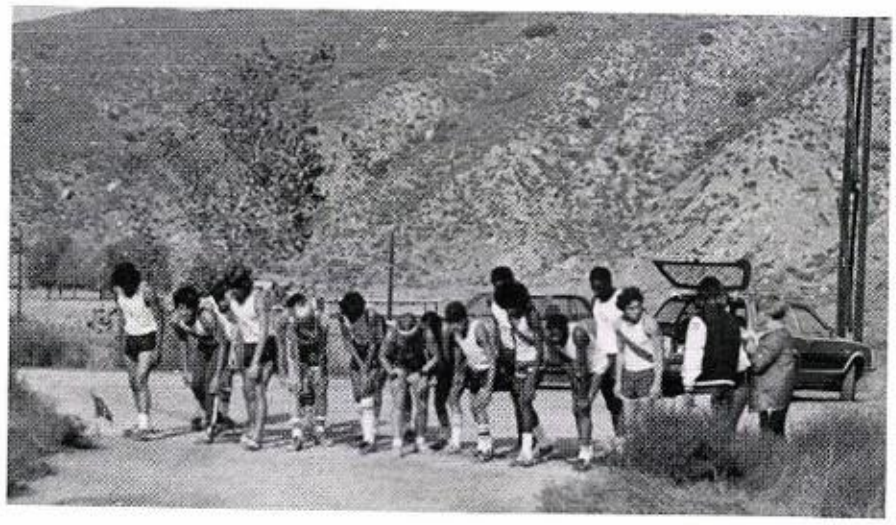


They're Off And Running . . .

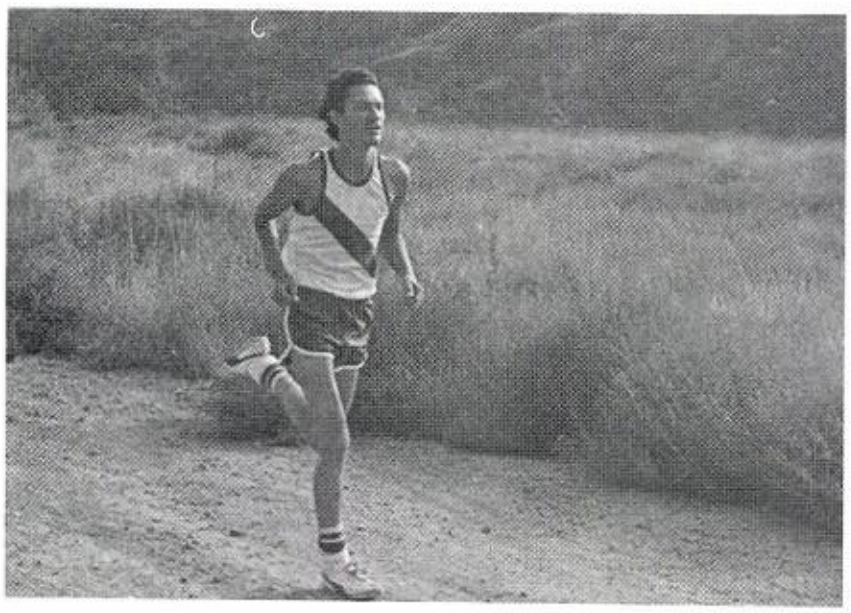
The strenuous routine of daily stretching exercises becomes monotonous to each cross-country team member. Yet, it brings a sense of accomplishment and self-admiration.

Ron Cortez, Steve Reeder, Ray Johnson, John Vallesillo, Mike Medina, Ralph Medina

Ray Johnson pulls ahead of Perris.

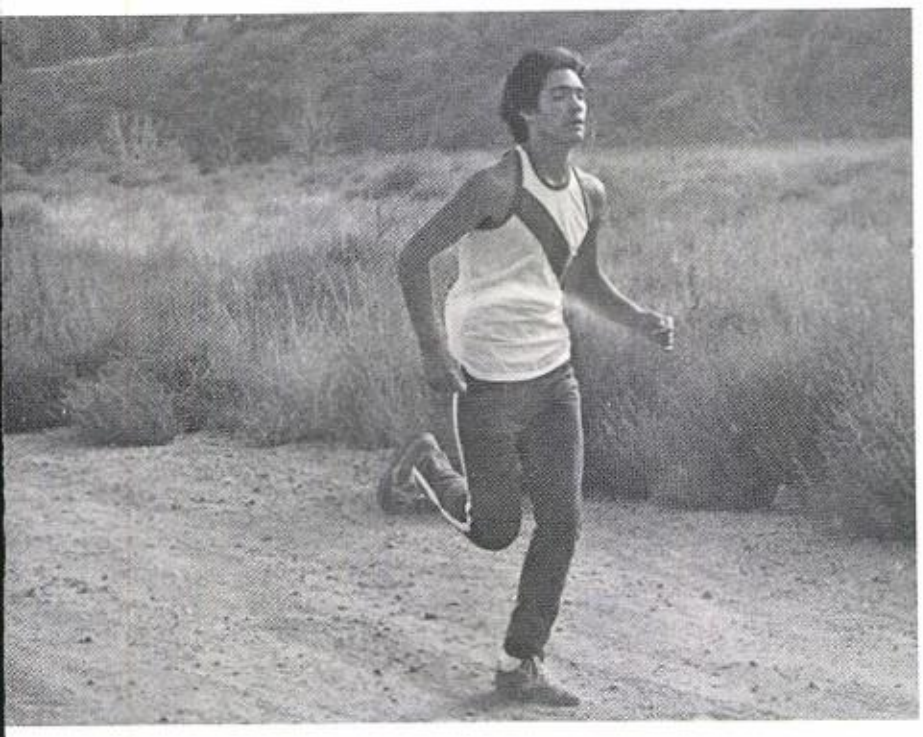


Waiting anxiously for the sound of the gun, the cross-country runners are raring to go.



See Ralph run, Run Ralph run.

Coach Cathy Dischinger rides again!



John Vallesillo takes an easy stride while running at a steady pace.

On the female side of cross country are, Sandra Sanchez and Mary Anderson.

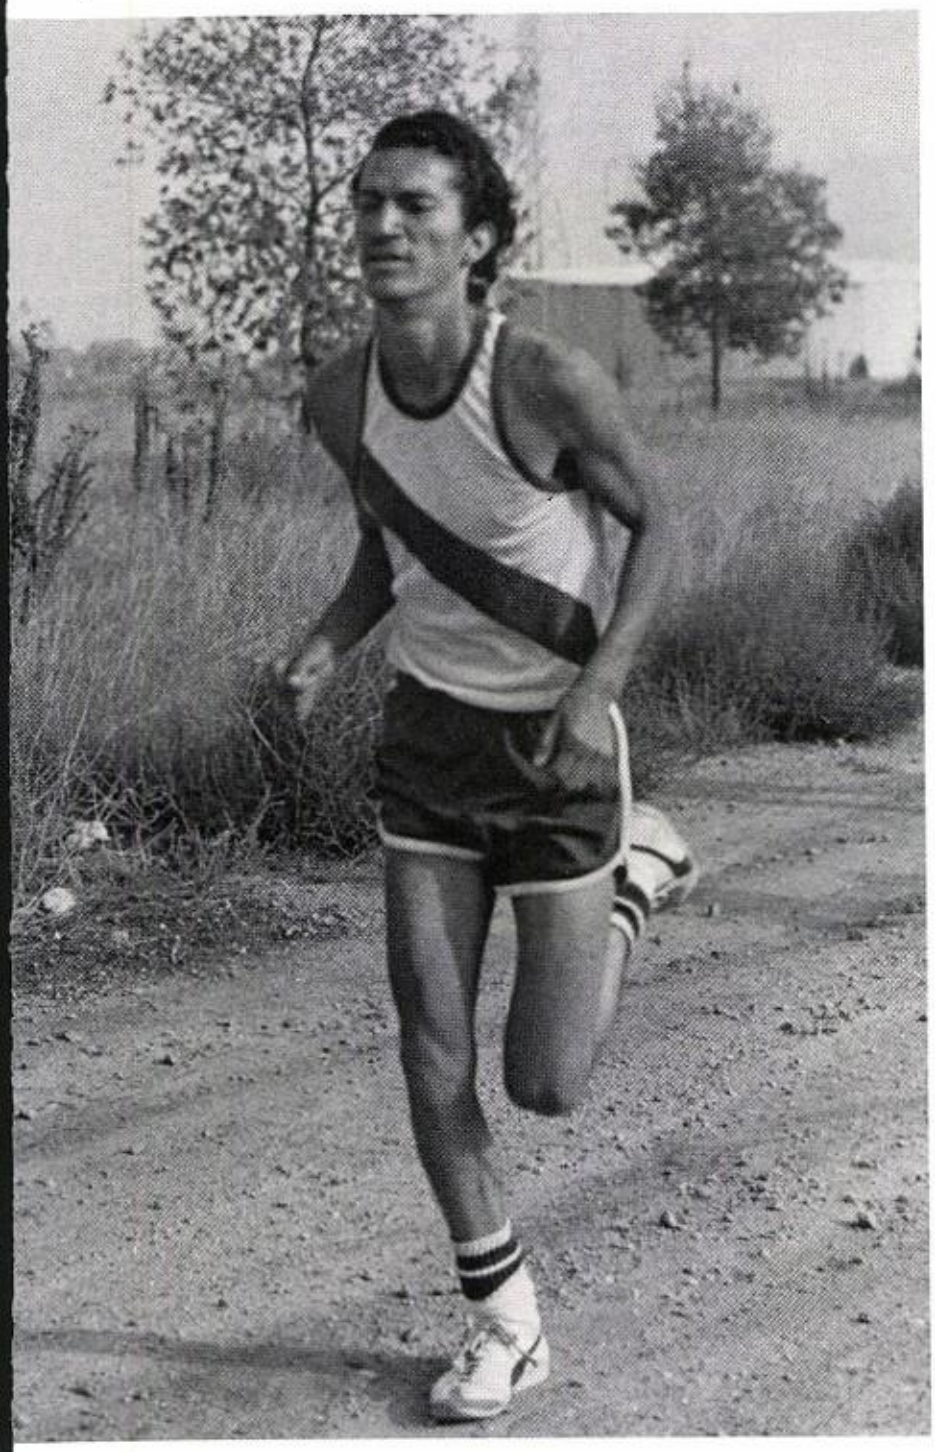
Sandra, Steve, and Mary run the distance.

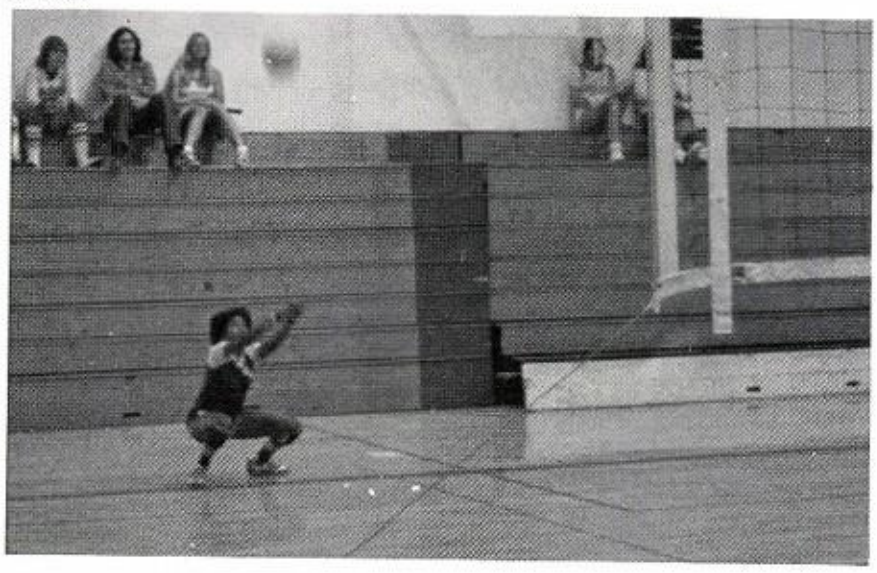


Straining hard, Ralph Medina crosses the finish line.

During the season, Ray Johnson achieved a second place at the Perris meets and first J.V. All League Finals at Bloominton. Mary Anderson and Sandra Sanchez were top girl runners in the League. Mike Medina placed third at the Perris meets fifth at Barstow, and third and fifth at Rim. Steve Reeder and John Vallesillo were good supporters all through the season. Ralph Medina and Ron Cortez also supported the team early in the season, but did not finish out the year. Coach Dischinger and the team had hoped for more participants in this sport. Because of the team size, they were limited in their chances during meet competitions.

Set . . . Spike . . . Score . . .

Brenda James starts the game with a serve.



Getting down low to return the ball, is Marsha Reagins.

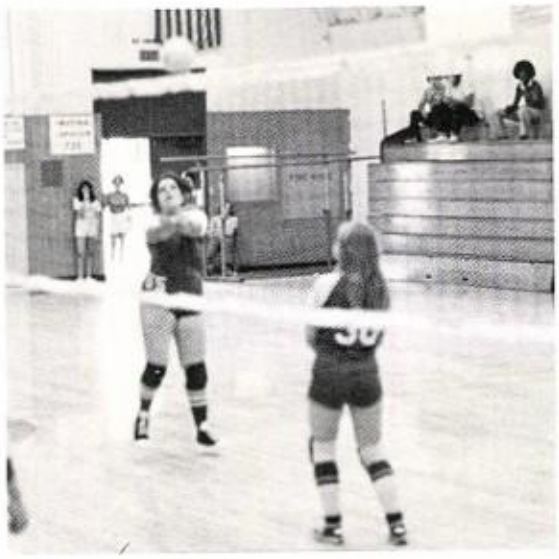
As her teammates look on, Kim Bunton returns the ball.

Going for it is JV Player Sandra Ware.

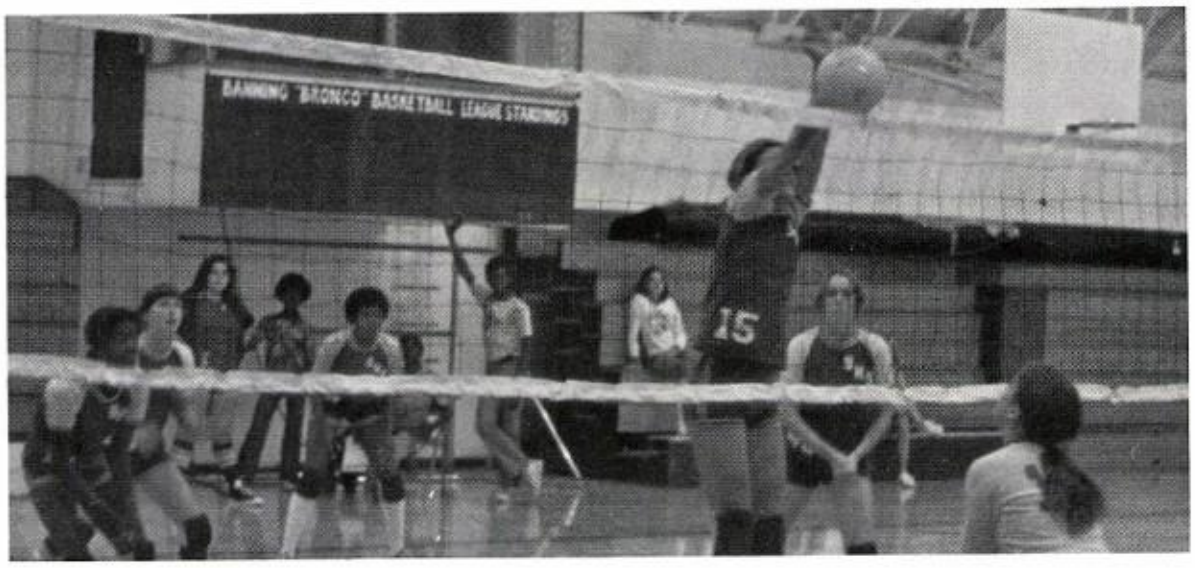
Volleyball is a game that not only requires physical strength, but a certain amount of skill. A relatively new sport to BHS, girls volleyball has had its obstacles to overcome. With technical coaching from Dennis McKee, the girls of the Varsity team: Diane Anderson, Mary Anderson, Lanette Gardaya, Jeanine Hagler, Alice Hughes, Chris McFarland, Lori McGensy, Charlene Phillips, Marsha Reagins, Colleen Wallace, Kathy Walton, have tried to overcome those obstacles.

A new addition to the JV team is Coach Darlene Swinson. The team consisting of Kim Bunton, Johnnette Hawkins, Brenda James, Janet Kompelien, Sandy Lewis, Cheryl Posey, Suzette Wallace, Gwen Walton, Sandra Ware, never let its spirit down, even in the face of defeat.

JV Player, Janet Kompelien, shows her skill at serving.



Brenda sets the ball for a return by Janet.



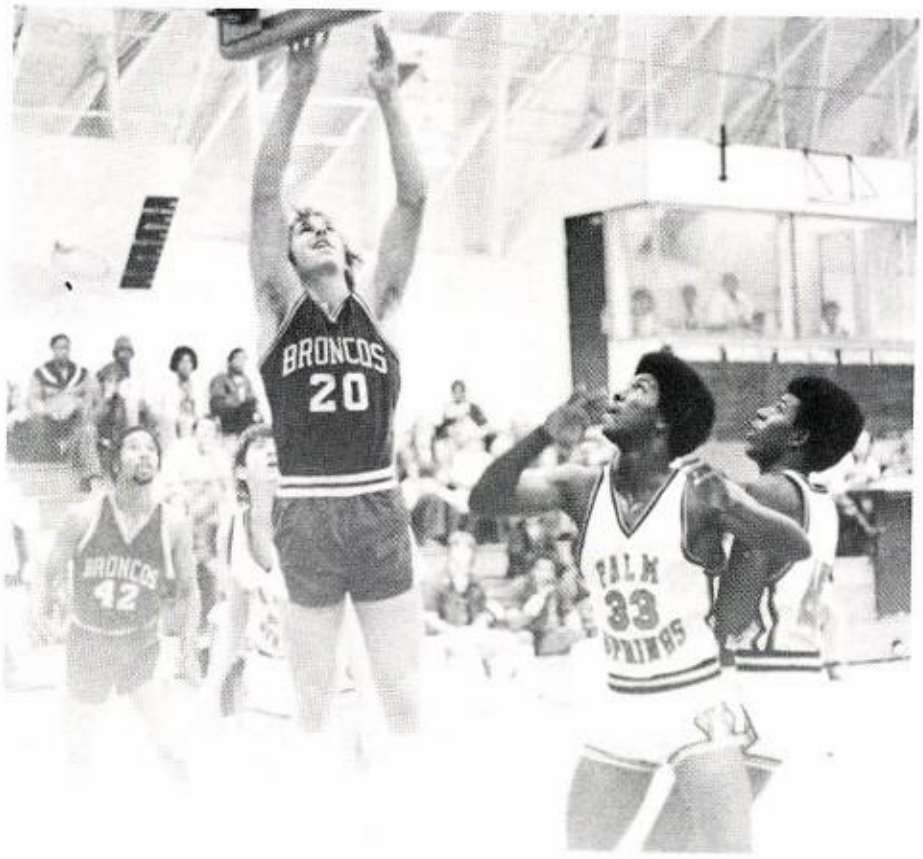
Varsity Player, Diane Anderson spikes the ball.

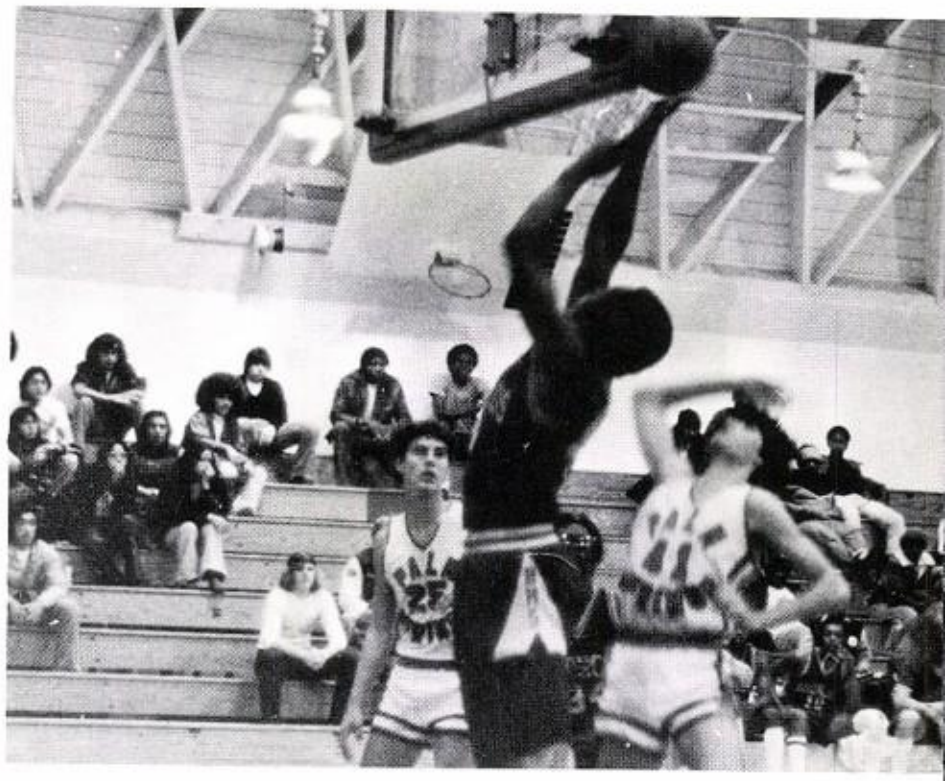
Sandra Ware goes for the point.

Janet leaps at the chance to win the game.

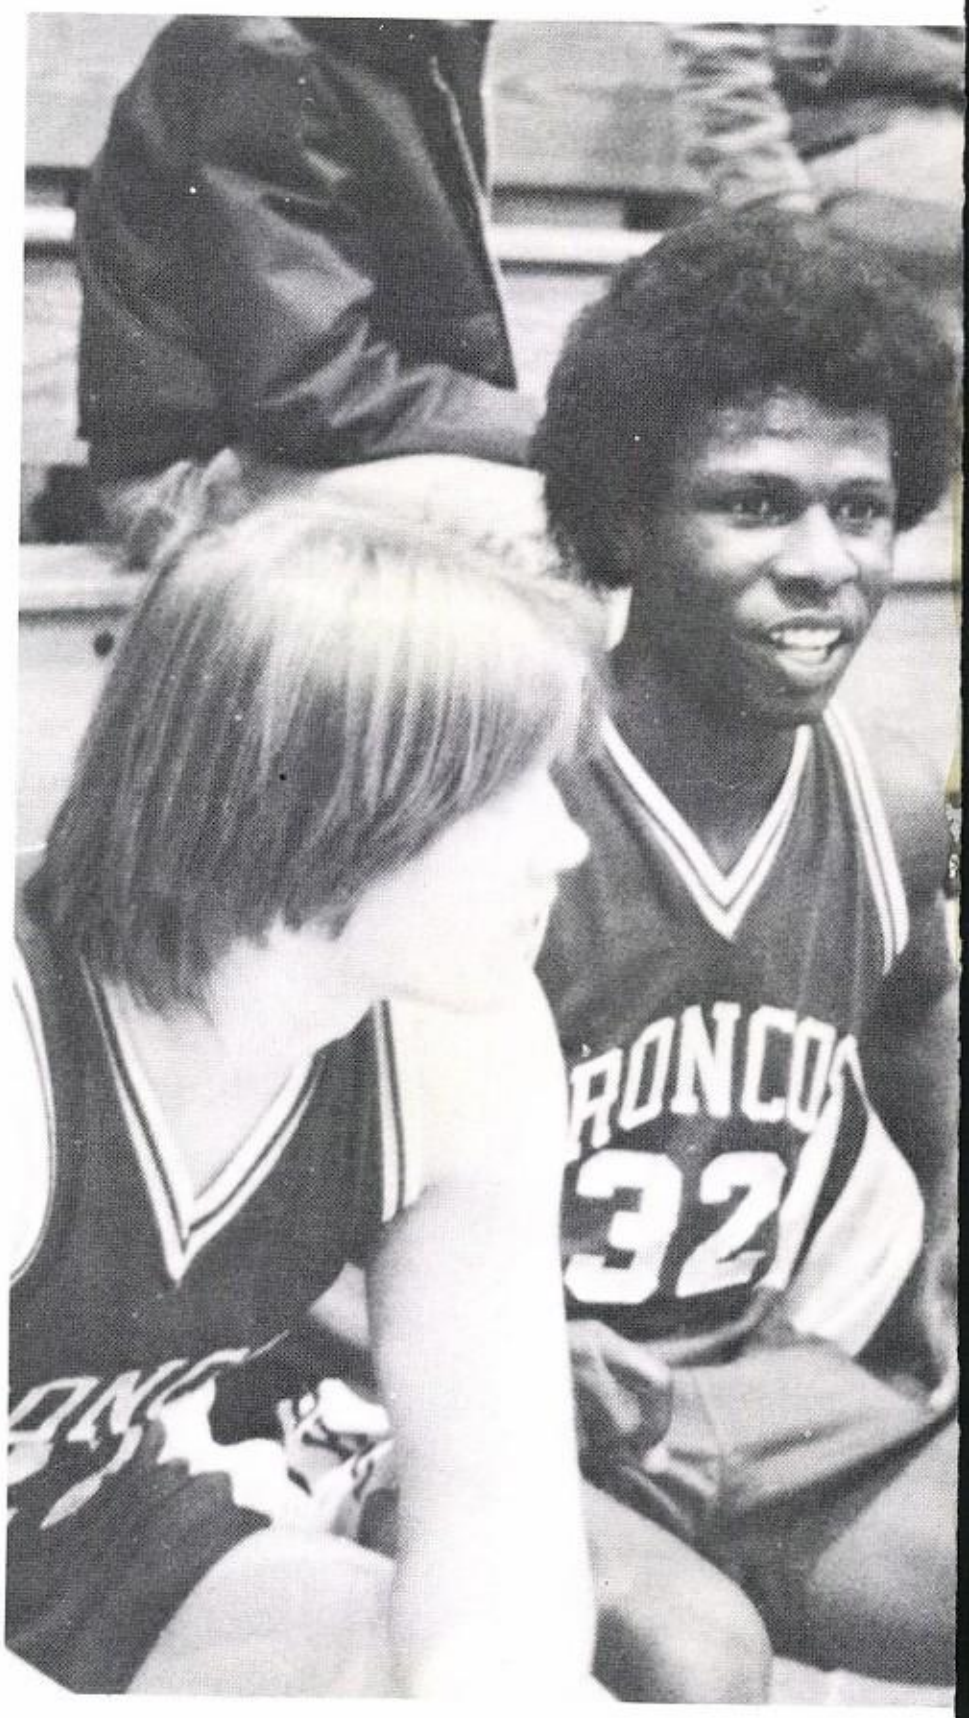
We Are The Champions, My Friends

Taking it higher and tipping it to a Bronco is center, Robert Patterson.



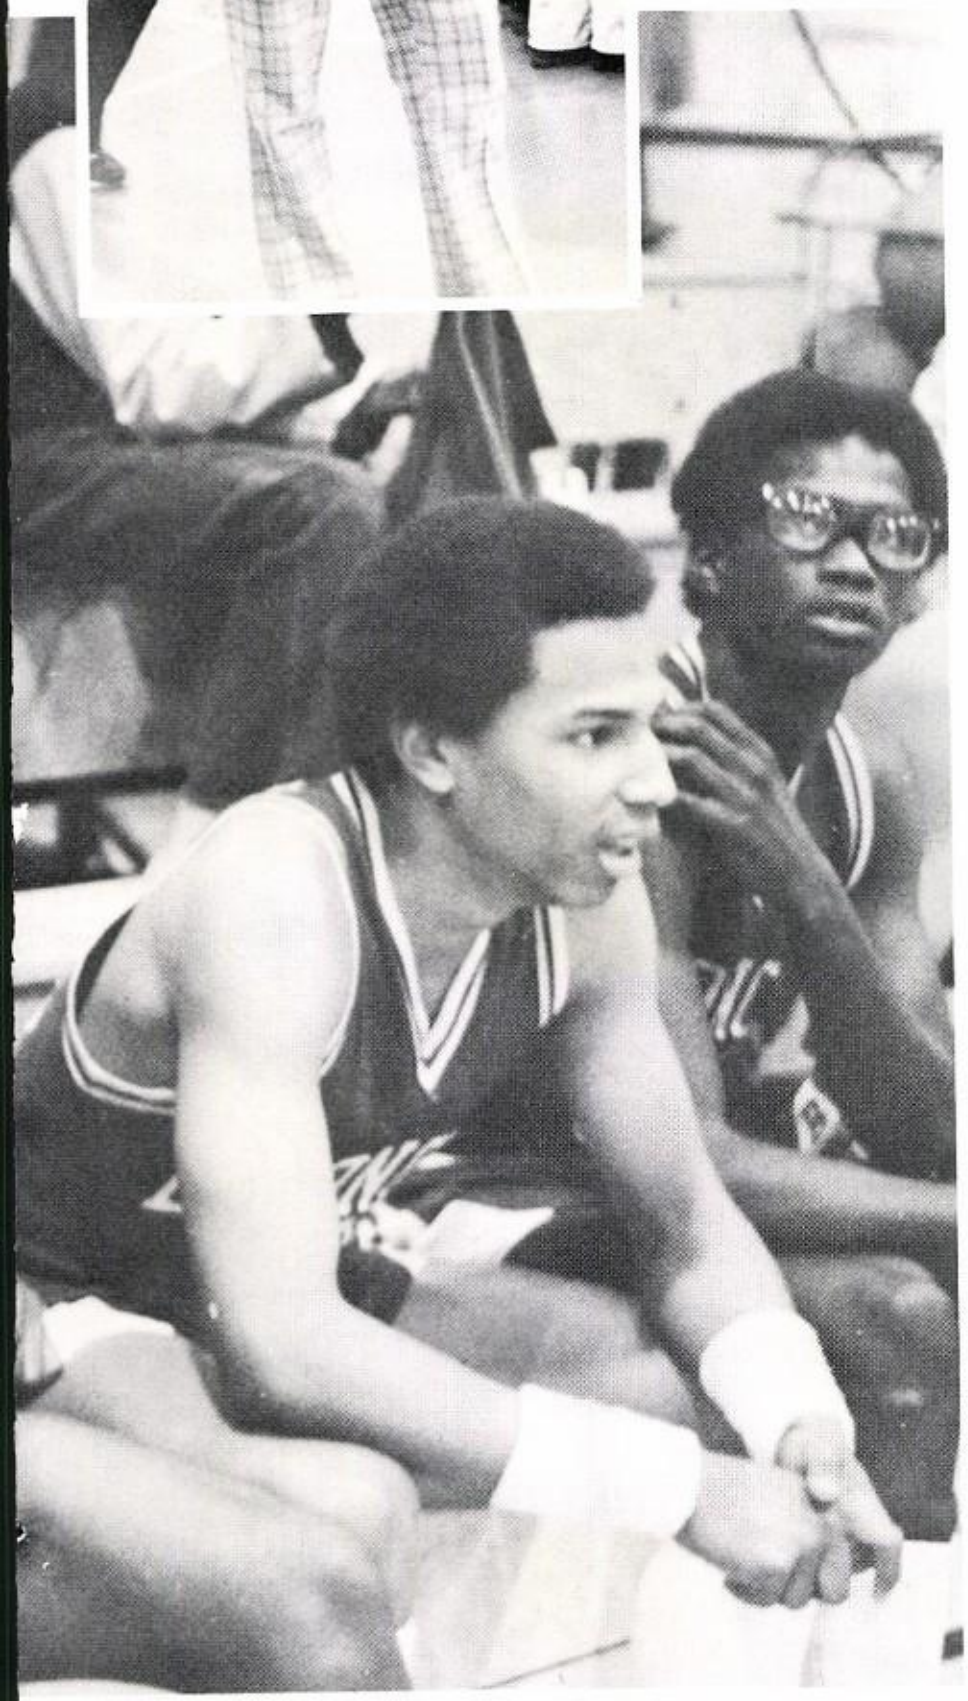


Helpless opponents look on as Armel Davison goes up for two points.



Giving his smile of approval, Coach Ray Curtis is pleased with the 1st place win.

Jumping higher for the Broncos is Billy Johnson.



The Banning Broncos certainly don't limit their physical talents to football, as proven by the Varsity basketball team this year in their triumphant season. The dedicated eight display their superiority by finishing the Block B Tournament with a glorious first place. Outside of the scheduled weekly games, the team also takes time to participate in the Riverside Holiday Invitational Basketball Tournament. The deserving team ends the season with the chance to play in C.I.F. basketball finals and become Sunkist League Champs. They do it and remain undefeated. They truly are the champions, my friends.

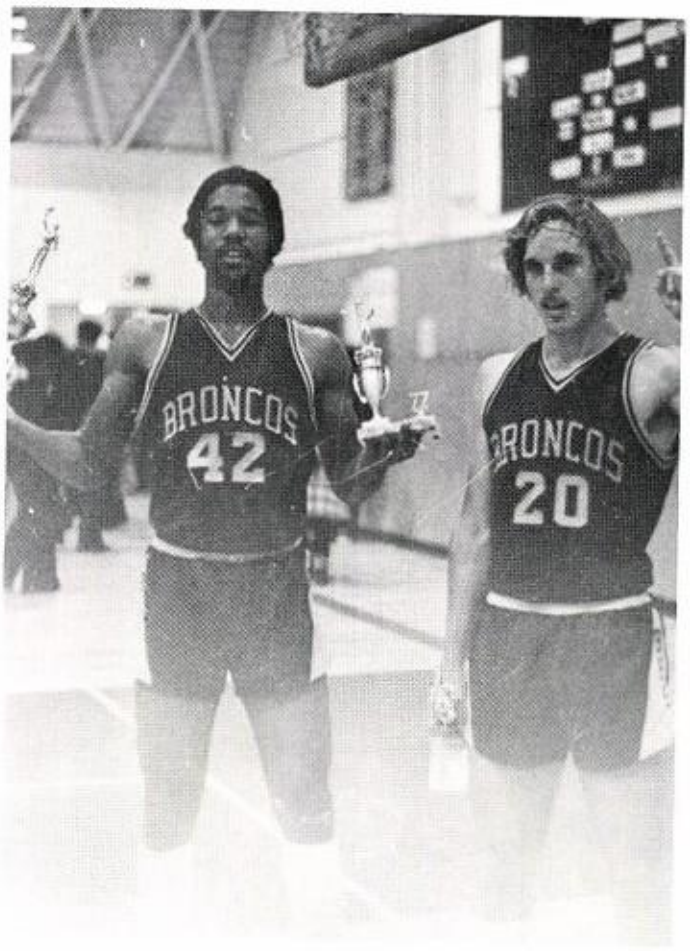
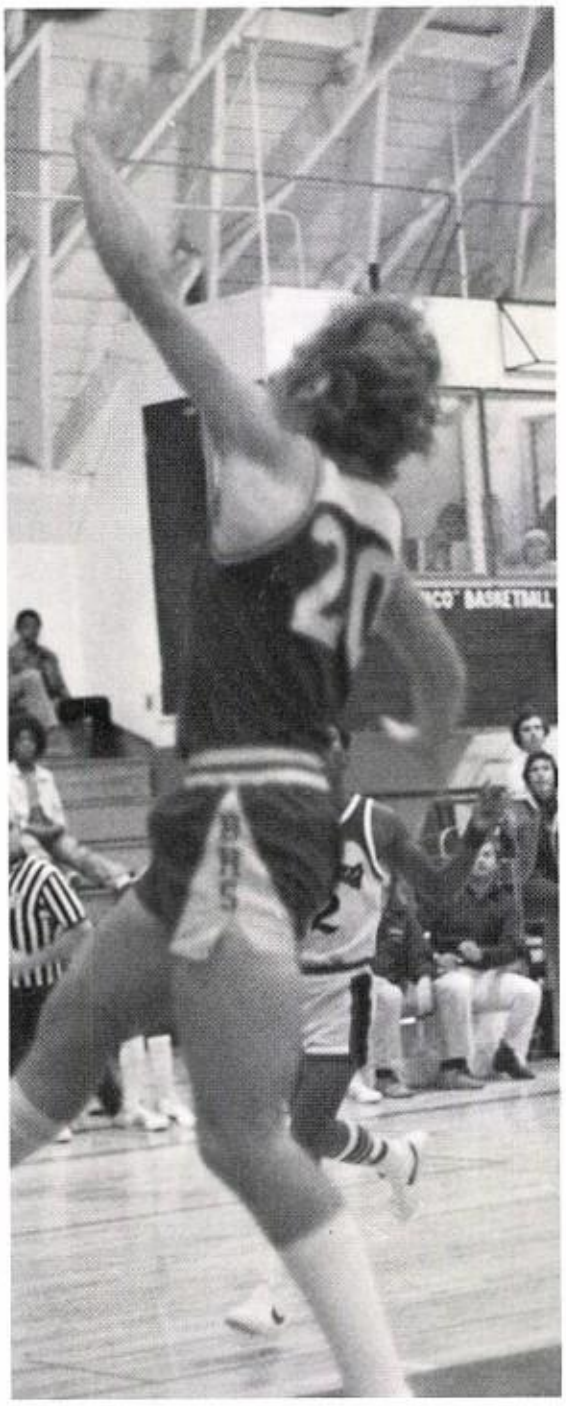
The score gets higher as the guys reach higher.

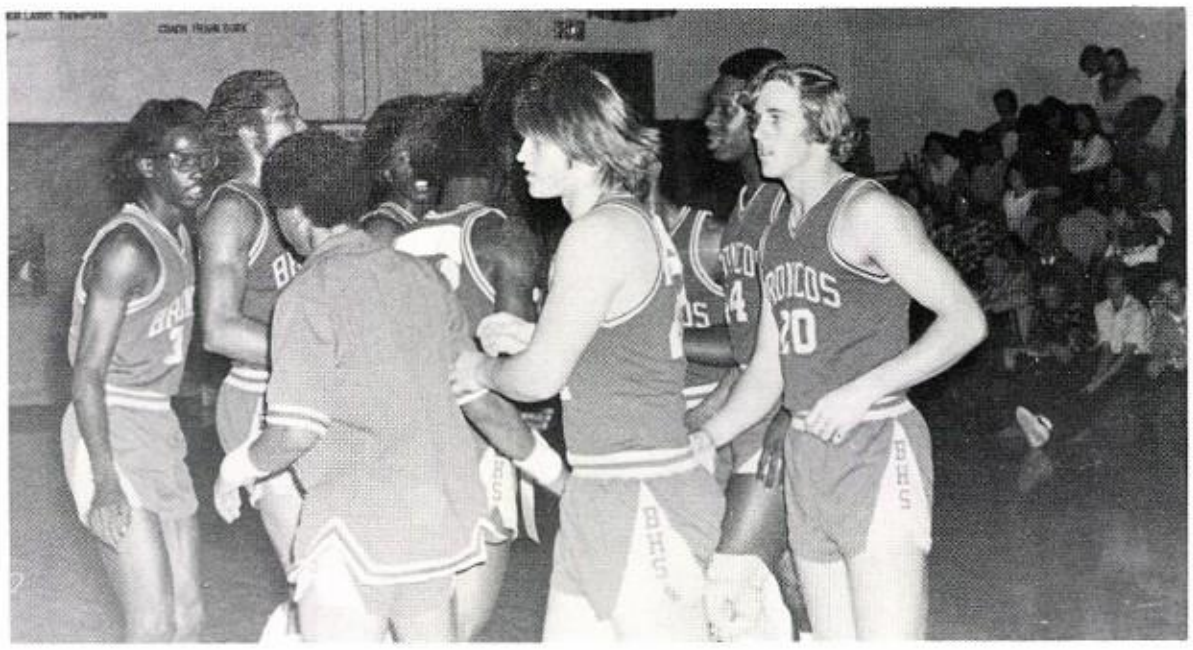


Showing their pride, Most Valuable Players, Robert Patterson and Steve Heslop go home with a victory and trophy in the Block B Tourney.

Those jumping jacks learned in P.E. finally paid off.



Steve Heslop has a shot at the basket without any interference.



The Varsity team builds spirit before taking to the court.

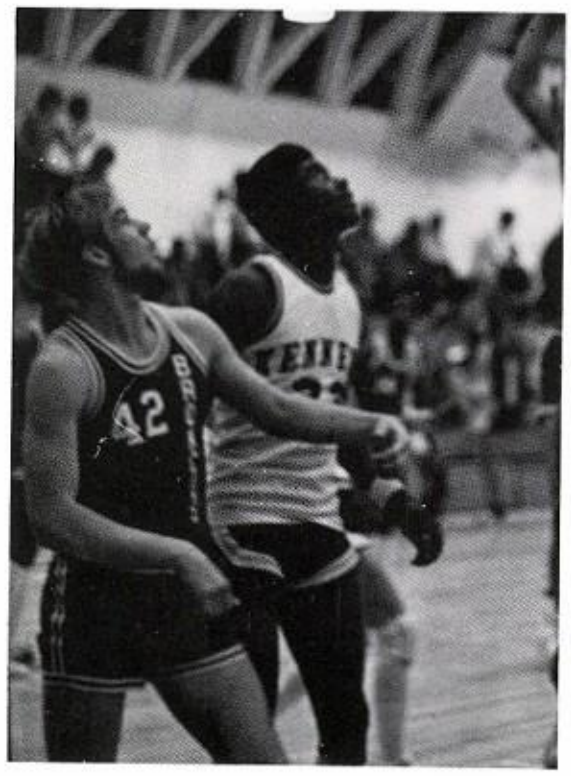
Hot Shots

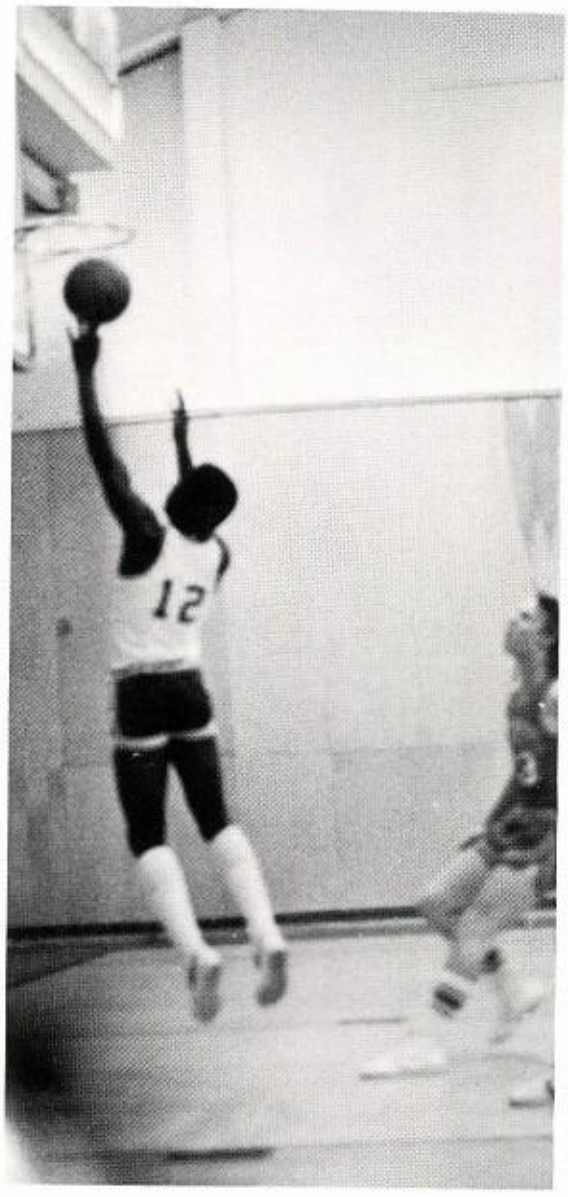
This has been a basketball season that continually exposes the teams of Banning High to C.I.F. Trailing the efforts of the majestic varsity team, are the outstanding J.V. dribblers, who display a promising future as Varsity C.I.F. participants.

Perhaps the statement received from Coach Dennis McKee, "lots of team spirit . . ." is what encouraged the boys into their unparalleled rank. Nevertheless, this talented group proves to the Sunkist League to be a team with limitless abilities, and will bring this spirit and talent to the courts in 1979.



Pat Echols looks astonished as he sinks the ball.

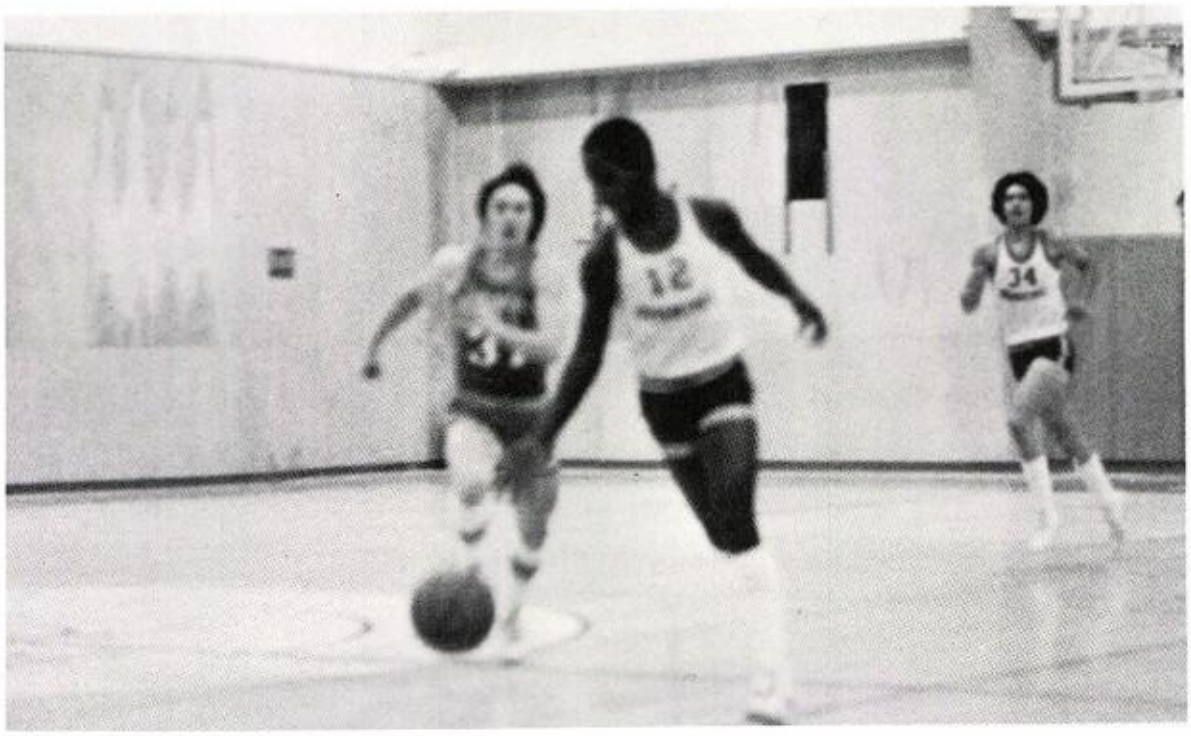
The opponents look on in bewilderment as Steve Ziem puts one away.



Going up for a lay-up at the beginning of the quarter is Mario.

We got the ball, so let's go!

John Vallesillo jumps higher than his opponent for two more points.



Banning recovers the ball and heads down the court.

What Is Title IX?

Following the newly passed federal legislation of "Title IX," a closer look has been taken at girls' athletics. Prior to the compliance of Title IX, all sports were regarded as a boys' game, completely neglecting girls from the sport's scene. This new regulation forbids sex discrimination in education, therefore, since Title IX, girls' athletics have been on the up-lift.

Banning High's girls' basketball team was soon after talked to and much "in-depth" information was gained concerning this male-coached-all-girl-team. "Inspirational" is how Coach Jim Anson defined coaching the girls. Their "unskilled abilities" are refreshing as opposed to boys; as they haven't gained any bad habits for which he would have to break them.

Because of Title IX, much attention has been given to the girls in the manner of new uniforms and improved coaching, therefore, Title IX has been a proven advantage to the girls' basketball team. Hopefully this will be an incentive for the start of more sports for girls.

The harsh rains not only dampen the ground, but bring to a screeching halt the start of all spring sports. Baseball has been one sport that has been forced to take refuge and resume practice in the gym. Even with the elements to contend with, the Varsity team manages to maintain an admirable standing for the beginning of their quiet season. Despite the weather's limitations, the Broncos muscle Beaumont and Indio out of two successive victories. With an optimistic outlook on this all-star team, Varsity coach Joel Escobar boasts that the 1978 baseball team should be potentially the strongest baseball team that he has coached. Though new, to the season, the Varsity is basically a well-acquainted group, as nine of the players are veterans. BHS's baseball teams have a reputation of delivering nothing but superb performances. So it's no wonder that this team can take it easy and come out on top.

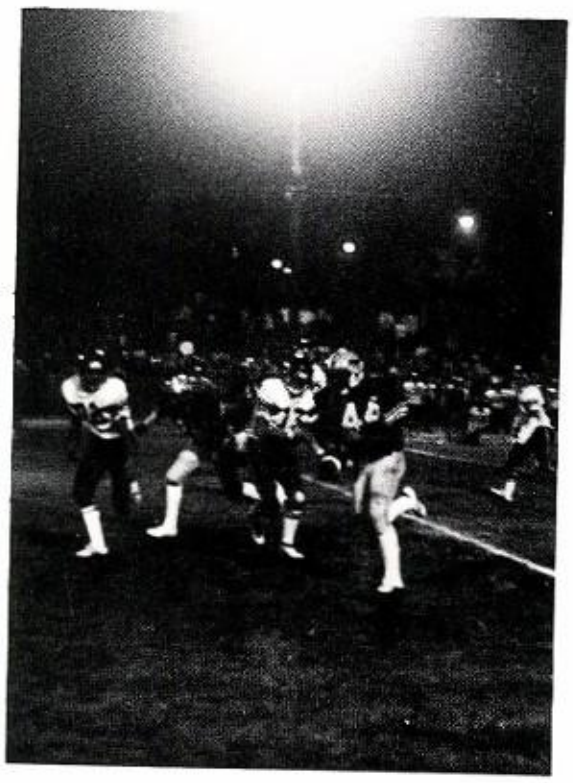
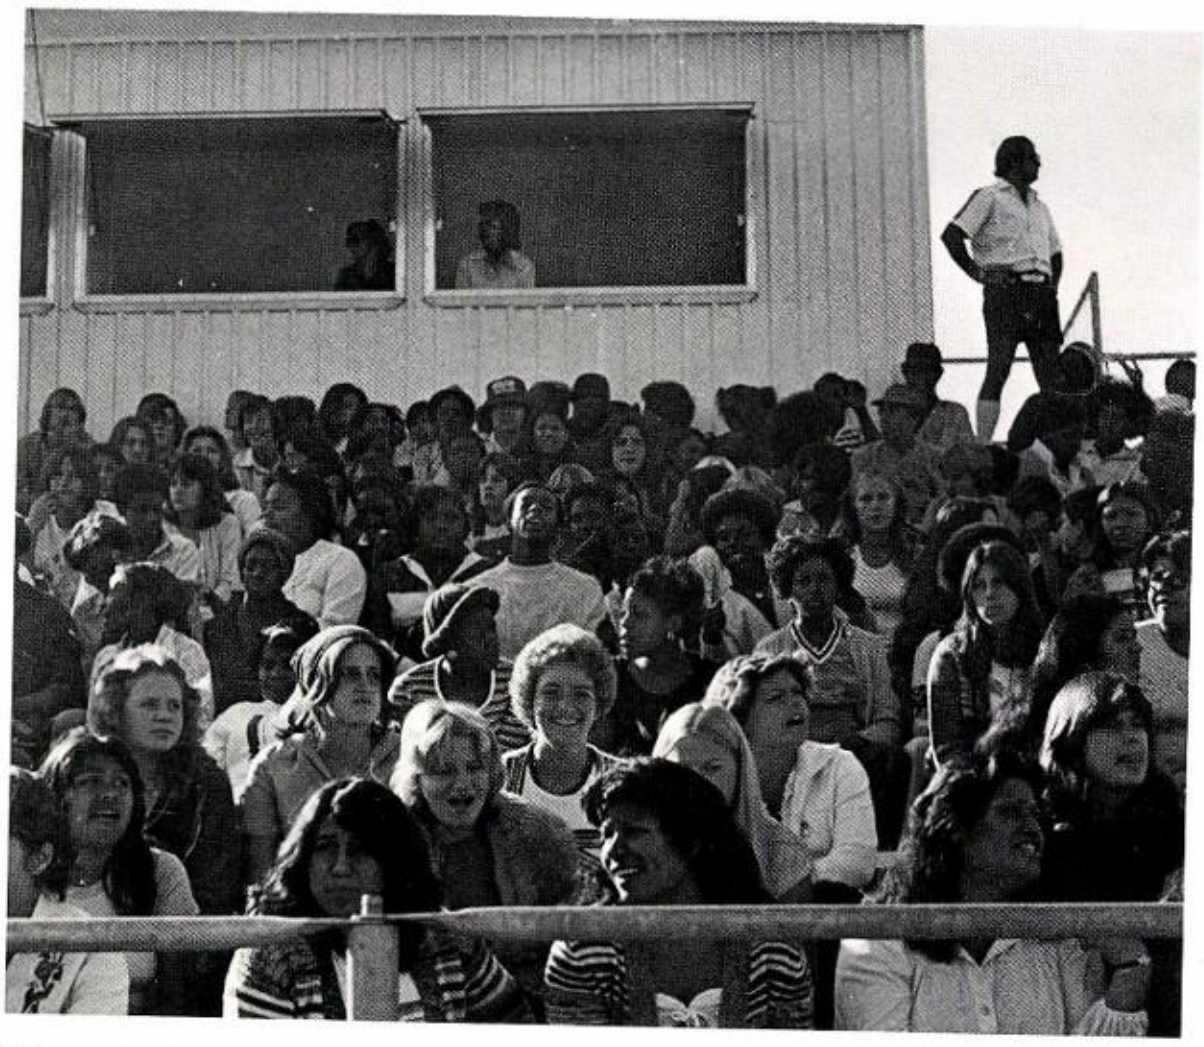
When We Play Sports,

Girls' tennis has become a major part of the sport's scene at BHS.

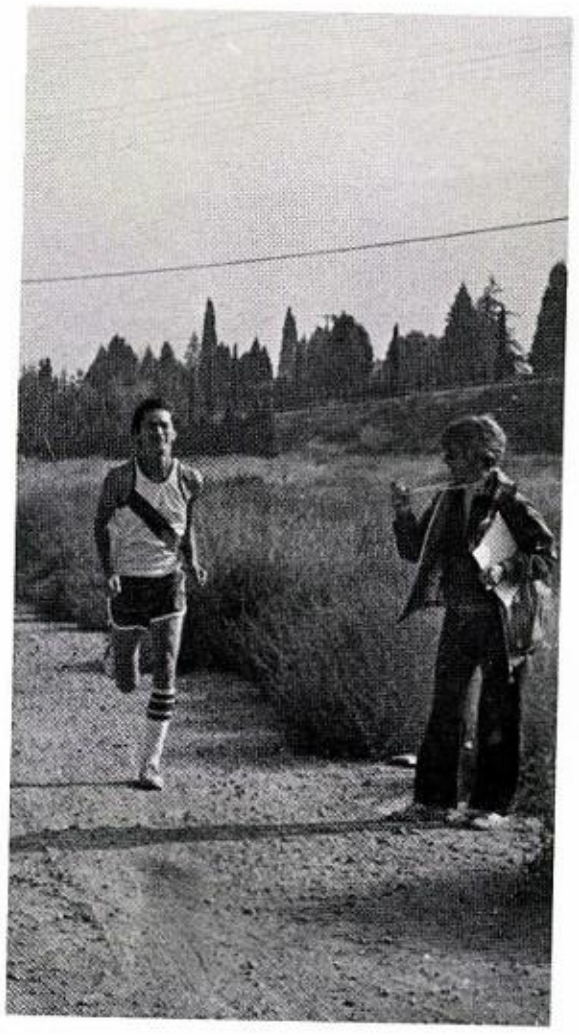


Friday night Varsity and JV football games carry us through the fall.

Basketball causes high anxiety as we edge towards CIF.

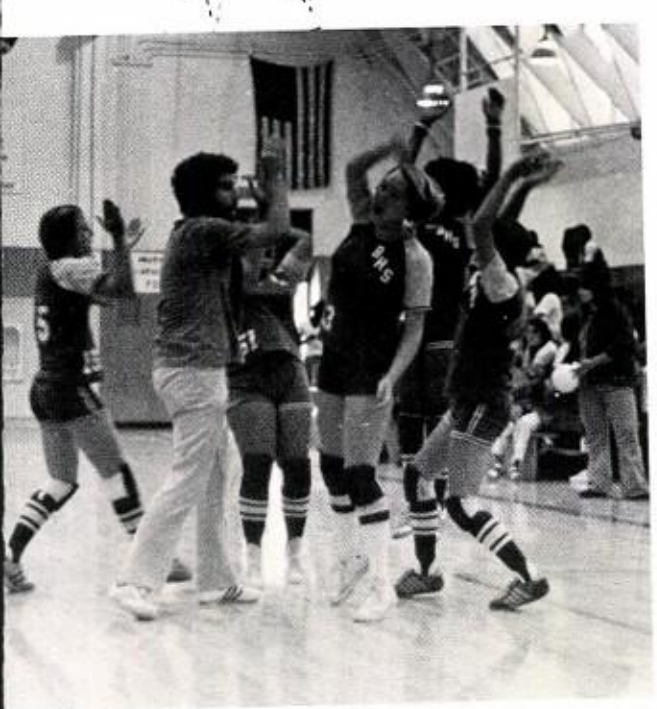


We watch with anticipation as each sport unveils its season.

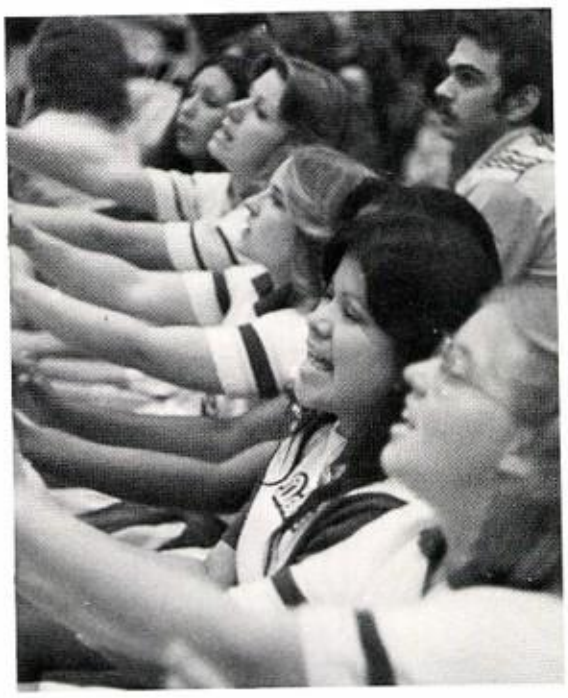


We definitely have given other teams a run for their money.

Expect No Mercy



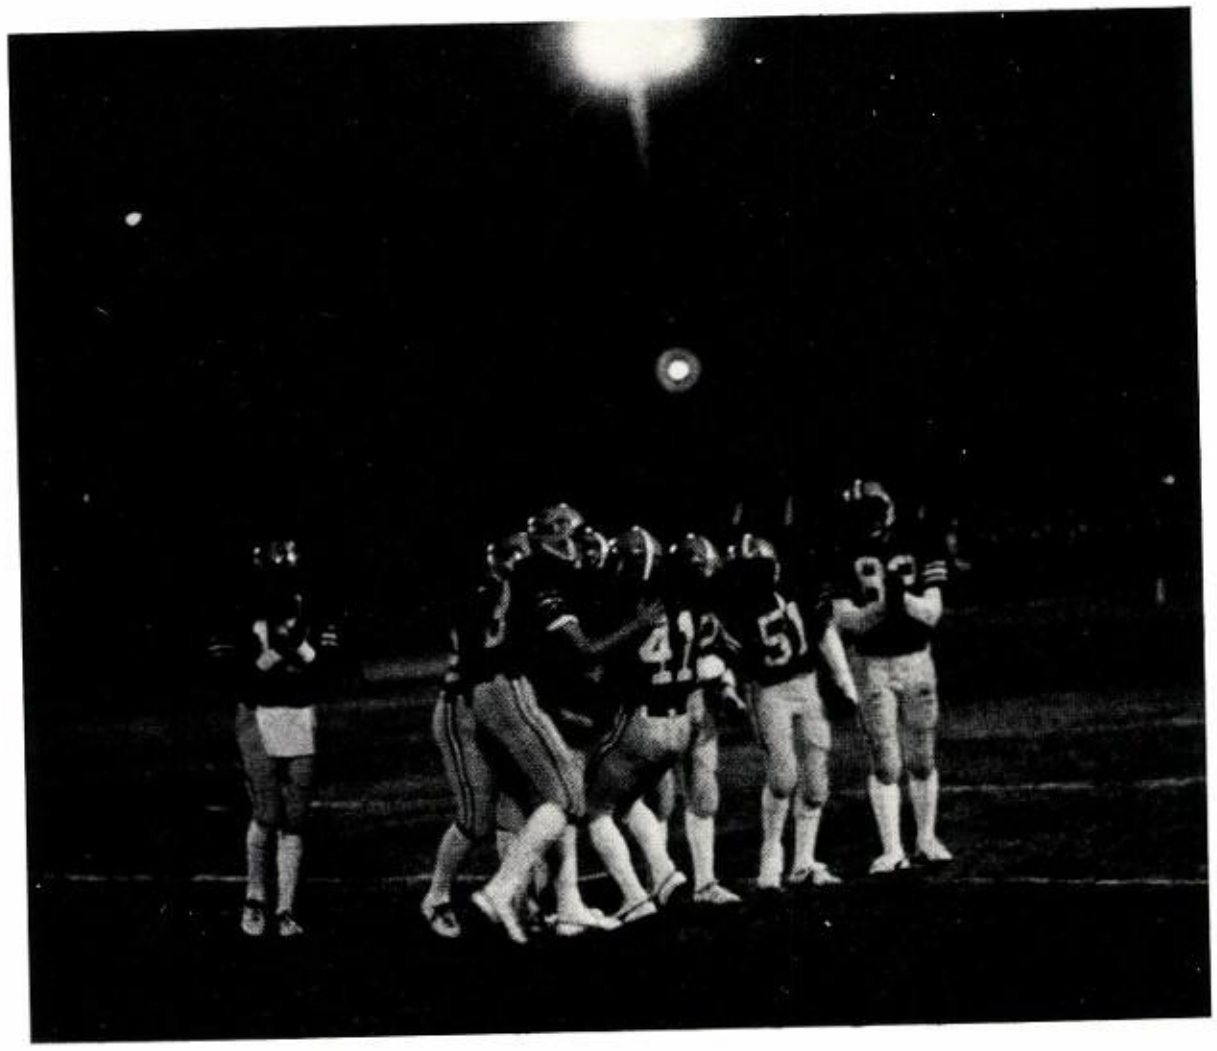
Pride and working together have brought us victory after victory.



The name of this sport is spirit.

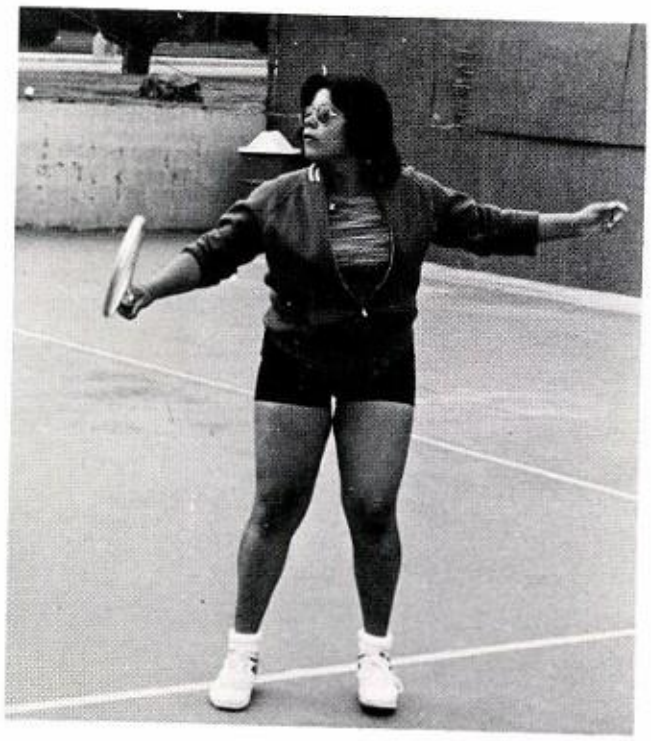
Despite the harsh rain at the start of the season, it never rained on our wins.

We all get a chance to participate in sports during PE.



It takes a lot of practice and dedication to be victorious.

What? Form?



In tennis, love means nothing.

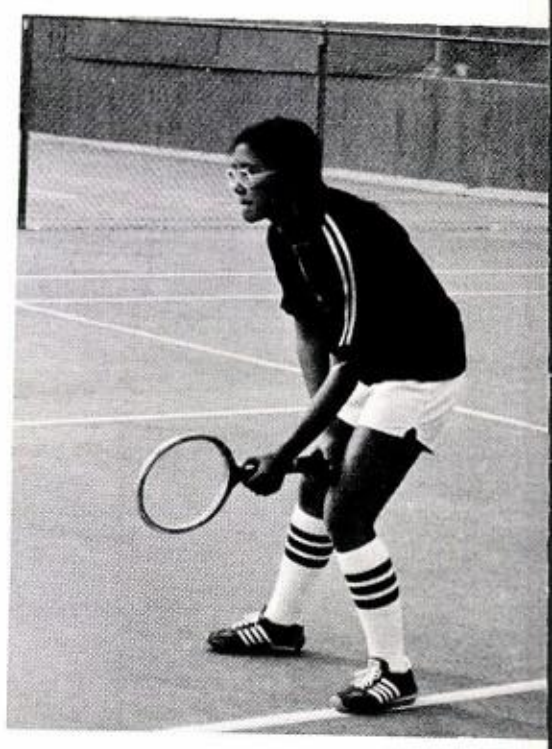
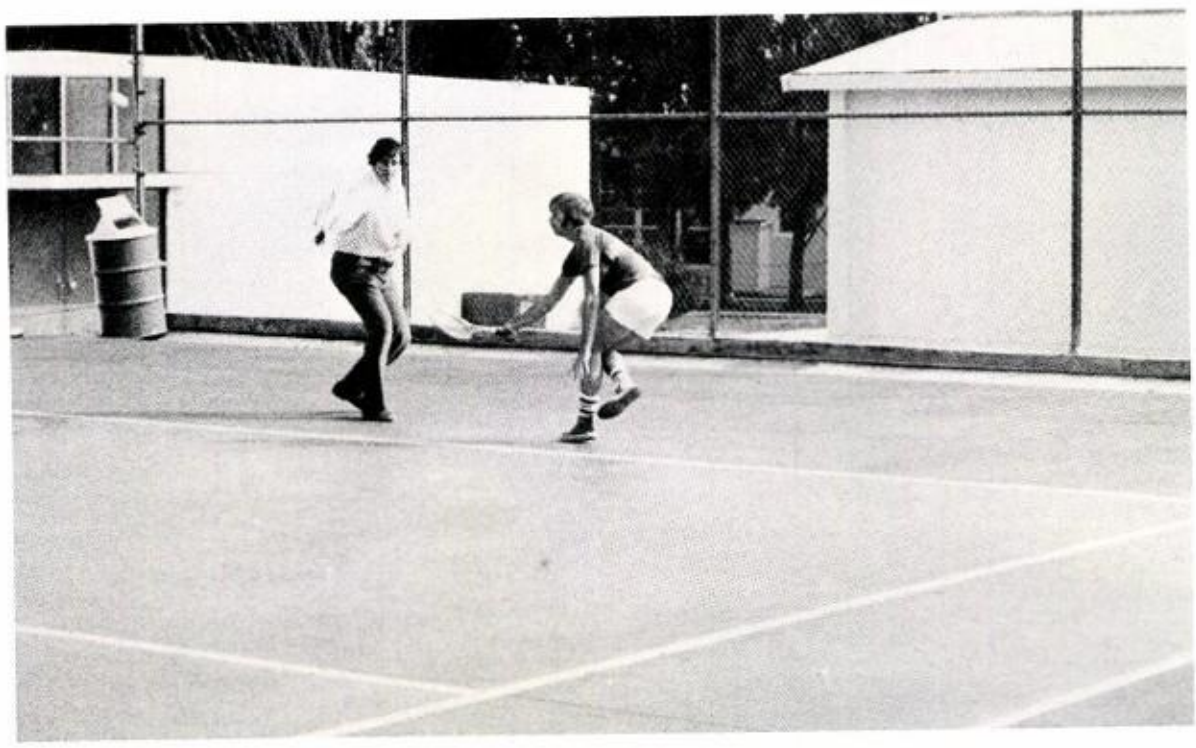
10 SN E1?

After school, in September, you can see the Girls Tennis team strenuously practicing for the long, hard season to come. The season was just that. According to Coach Rodee Chasteen, the overall performance of the team could have been better if the members had not been plagued by injuries and illnesses.

Susan Minobe proved to be the Most Valuable Player on the team because of the way she always played her best whether in singles or doubles.

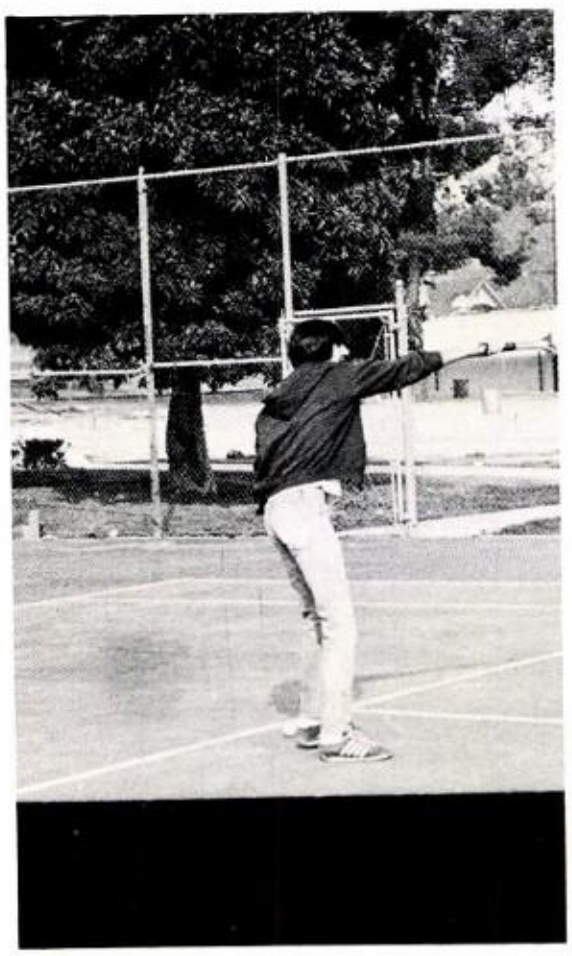
The team had many experiences, both personal and group related. As one player said, she found tennis to be "a pain in the arm."





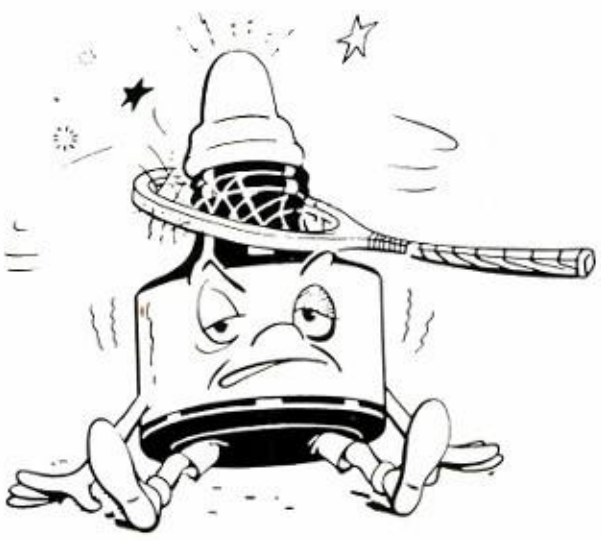
Backing up Karim Zahedi for an assist is Greg Echols.

What a forehand!



A backhand is neatly executed by Peter Herrera.

Bottom: T. Wiggs, R. Whaley, D. Zahedi, M. Trimmer. Top: G. Echols, J. Horton, D. Trimmer, K. Zahedi, R. Snider.



This year's boys' tennis team is starting off the year with four returnees. The team, coached by Rodee Chasteen, looks good and performance expectation is high. There is one strong doubles team and two strong singles players. While the other players are perfecting their skill, they are strong in enthusiasm. To make the total team strong, the style played is Round Robin.

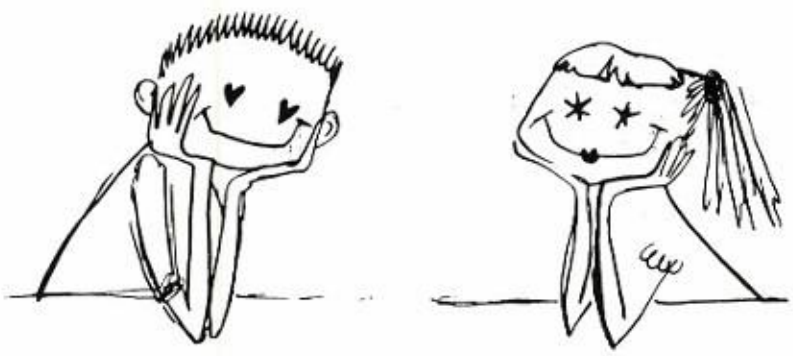
Friend's Eye View



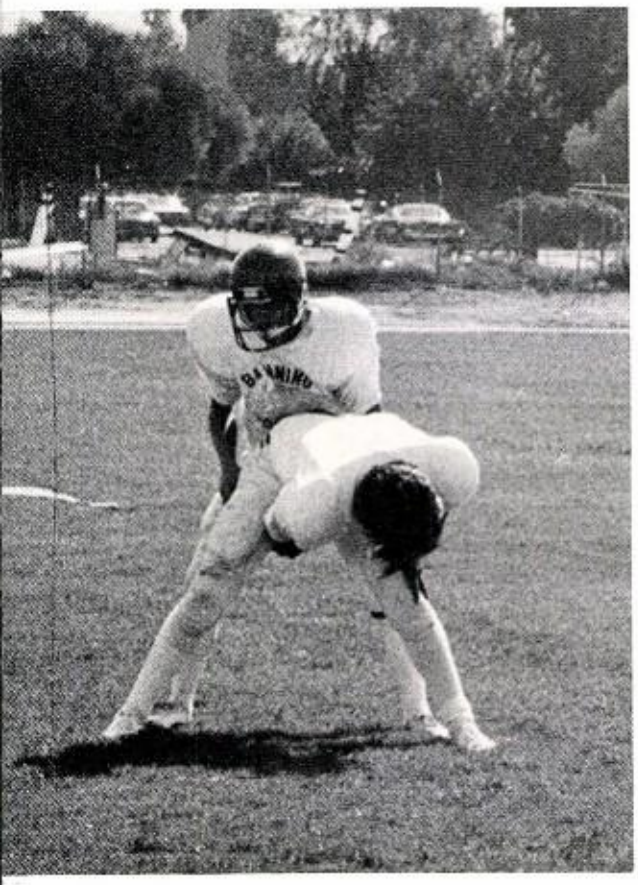
Love is never having to say you're sorry.

Lately it's not safe for a guy to sit down around here.

Open up, here comes the choo-choo.

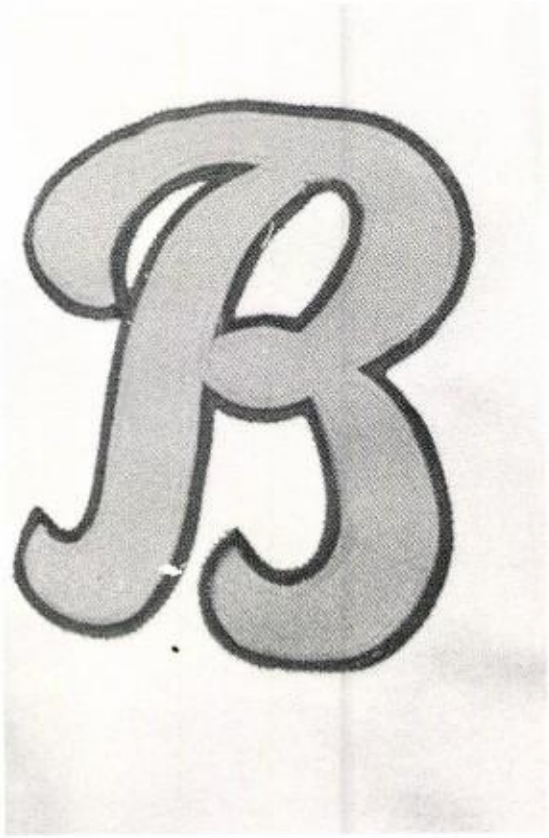
When I say no, I mean no!

I've only got eyes for you!

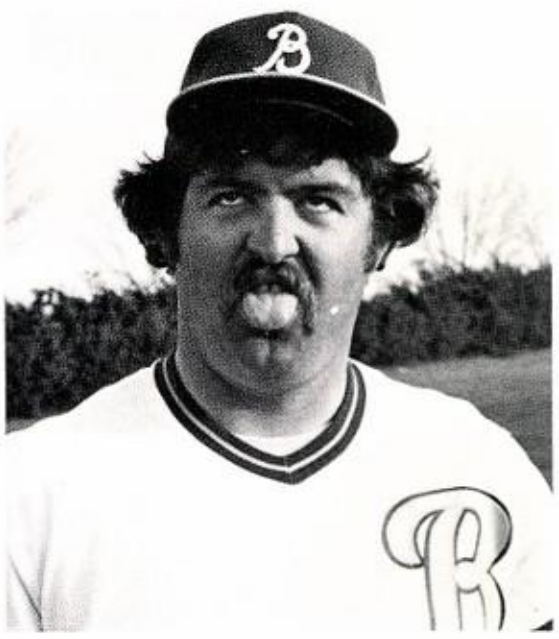


Siamese twins? Naw!

She loves me, she loves me not...



"Look at those cover girl eyes!"



Life's sure a bummer!

"Dearest John..."

Catching Our Friends

The consumer economics class looks over goodies for an in-class party.

The picnic tables in the quad are a favorite place to congregate.

Entertaining in the quad, is a tradition with the choir.

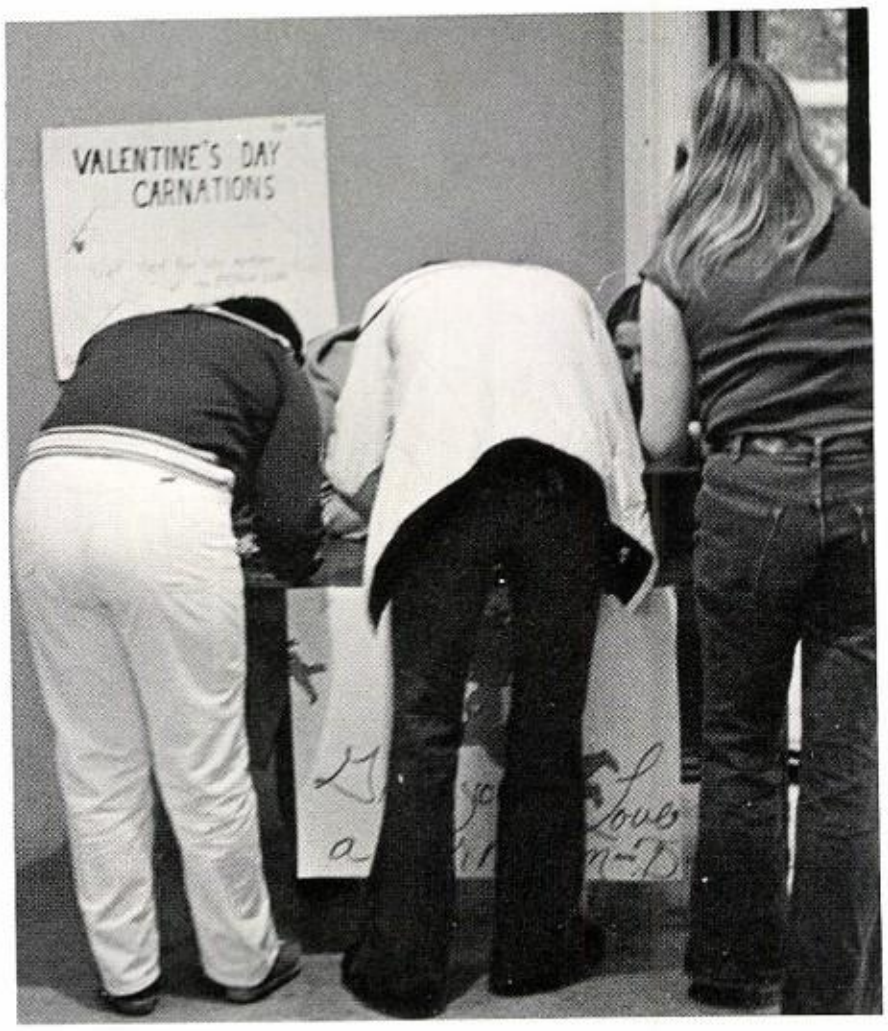
Caley Rhodes arrives to class early to complete an assignment.

If this is the senior section, what's sophomore Brian Palmer doing there?

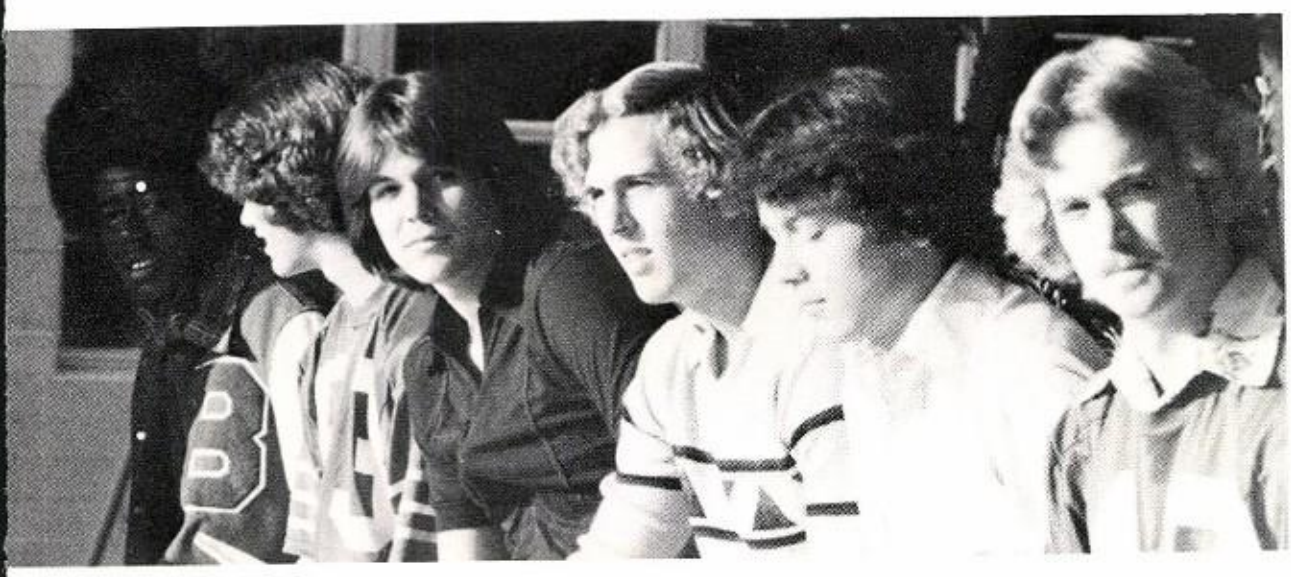
Oh come on guys! Don't be mad at the world.

From All Angles

Twenty five years from now, when I look back on this picture, I'll wonder why I hung around with this group.

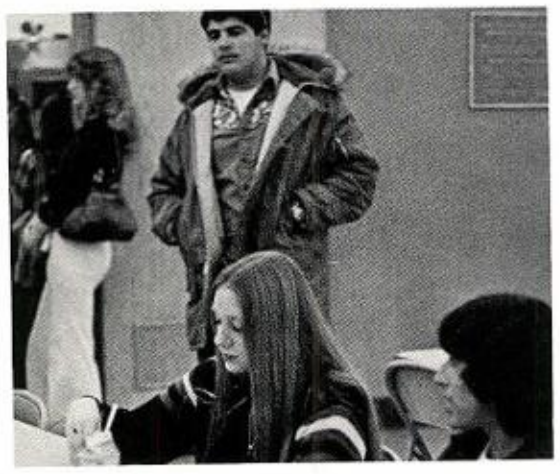


The French Club's Valentine's Day Carnation Sale ends.



It's the seniors Billy, Peter, Steve, Steve, Carlos, and Jeff's turn to occupy the bench.

When surrounded by ladies, Karim Zahedi always cracks a smile.



Ken-
To a really funny guy
in my English class. See ya round. Good luck

Memories, which we have found to be most meaningful in high school, have been captured within the pages of this book. As we reflect upon them, we can again relive the days spent on the campus of Banning High School.

Even Though The Year Has Come To An End,
Our Friendships Go On And On And On . . .

ken.
Dit was fun in Biology + thanks for all the answers. Always be happy your a really sweet guy + good friend. Hope to see you this summer +, remember 2D rules!
